> "The fact that Republican leaders have outrageously taxed the people of Pennsylvania and developed a precedent for legalized financial extortion does not necessarily mean that by eliminating certain taxes we will have to find a substitute form of revenue."

Now, I ask you, did George Leader mean what he said when he promised to balance the budget without a sales tax or wage tax? Was he kidding the people at that time?

Let us take a few more of Leader's statements. On September 17th at Steelton he said:

> "A state sales tax or any other broad based tax will not be needed to finance state operations."

How was he going to do this when he was a candidate? Well, we will tell you how he was going to do it when he was a candidate—times have changed.

He promised at that time to reduce expenditures. At Wilkes-Barre on October 28th he said:

> "We do not believe that the present level of state spending represents an irreducible minimum. We believe that many tax dollars can be saved by cleaning house and eliminating the fancy frills of injudicious management."

I will show you that I am not wrong with a few figures and facts that everyone will understand. Let's start with what we appropriated for this biennium. I say "we," because we, both the Republicans and the Democrats, voted unanimously for these appropriations two years ago. It is a fact that the General Assembly appropriated $1,014 million dollars in 1953. That is fact No. 1.

It is a fact that the General Assembly this session has appropriated $22 million to cover deficiencies. I believe that is fact No. 2, and that is correct.

It is a fact that together these two amounts total $1,036 million, which is the sum total of all of the appropriations made from the general fund for this biennium. That is fact No. 3.

It is a fact that the Governor in his speeches during the campaign, and the Democrats in their platform last year, promised to run the state government for $100 million dollars less than the Republicans did—that is a promise, a written promise—through reorganization of the government and appropriation economies. That is fact No. 4.

It is a fact, too, that $100 million from $1,036 million leaves $936 million as the amount you promised the people before the election—it was your promise before the election, not ours that you would spend to operate the state government. That is fact No. 5.

It is a fact that the amount of revenue we will receive from our permanent taxes, our temporary taxes and our other general fund receipts, without the sales tax, is $850 million. That is fact No. 6.

It is a fact that the difference between the $850 million you will have and the $936 million that you will need to keep your platform promises on state finances is $86 million. That is fact No. 7.

It is a fact that the Governor during the campaign presented what he said was his tax program. If you will remember, during the campaign the Governor did have a tax program, and this is it: the program that he promised, and we have his quotes on this, was to put the state corporation taxes, other than the corporate net income tax, on a pay-as-you-go basis, and he said that would save $45 million. That is the amount of money that would raise. That is fact No. 8.

It is a fact that the sales tax will not expire until August 31st and that it will bring in approximately $20 million in the next biennium, that is, from now until August 31st, if you attempt to collect it. That is fact No. 9.

It is a fact that there is in this biennium more than $20 million in appropriations which will not be repeated and which cannot be counted in the $100 million savings that you promised. This is fact No. 10.

It is a fact that when you add up the $45 million from the Governor's pay-as-you-go plan, as he suggested, and he now is trying to forget, or at least has forgotten, we have not heard any more about it, the $20 million from the sales tax in the next biennium and the $20 million in non-recurring appropriations, you have approximately $85 million, which is approximately the difference between what you promised the people you would spend and what present taxes will bring in. And that is fact No. 11.

That leaves nothing to be taken care of but the deficit in this biennium. We say that that deficit is $50 million. You say it is $77 million. We think we are right, and when the proper time comes we will try to prove it, but forget about that for a moment.

Let's take your figures on the deficit. How are you going to explain to the people $500 million in new taxes to pay off what you say is a $77 million deficit.

We will not be obstructionists on this side of the House because we know, all of us know, that state government must go on. But we are not going to be a party to any scheme to take $500 million from the pockets of our people just to pay off a $50 million, or what you say is a $77 million deficit. What are you going to do with the other $425 or $450 million? What are you going to pay off with that? What are you up to? What story are you going to tell the people about it? I cannot believe that you are going to say it is for commitments made by the Republicans. Surely you do not expect the people to be that gullible. You knew about these commitments during the last campaign and Governor Leader knew about them, because he voted for them. So it was no secret, not one of these commitments was a secret from anybody on your side.

He still said, knowing all of these facts, that he could run the state government without a sales or a wage tax. He said it; we didn't say it.

You knew about the commitments on education, you must have known about them because you voted for all of them. Besides there is nothing new about them, they have been on the statutes of Pennsylvania since 1951 and there was no secret about them.

Even if Governor Leader comes along now and claims he was ignorant of them, there is no excuse for the other leaders of your party who sat on the floor of this House and the Senate for many, many years. They have been in the Legislature a lot longer than many of us have been and helped to pass these laws along with the Republicans. You knew all about these commitments during the 1954 campaign. The Governor knew about them and every man that sat in this House and Senate knew about them.

We are going to let the people decide where the "Big Lie" technique lies.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. READINGER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I believe the Minority Leader thoroughly enjoyed making that speech. I can see the relish with which he was chewing over each word and I hope he did enjoy the few minutes in which he delivered those remarks.

I am going to study his speech very thoroughly, analyze it, weigh it and reply to it as soon as I have all the answers clearly in hand. As you know, the Governor of Pennsylvania is going to address the House and Senate tomorrow and deliver his budget message, at which time I believe the Members of this House and the public will be very definitely and thoroughly informed what his Excellency the Governor believes are the needs of the Commonwealth for the next biennium. He is also going to suggest the type of taxes which he thinks will raise sufficient revenues to pay what we must pay during the next biennium.

The matter of what was said during the campaign by His Excellency the Governor or by other people campaigning is something I cannot at this moment discuss because I am not aware of some of the things that were said. I will study the Minority Leader's remarks and if there is an answer I will give the answer. If there isn't any answer those who have made the statements will at the bar of public opinion have to answer them some day.

We speak about $50 million deficit or $76 million deficit and an estimated need of $500 million in new revenue. Those matters will be made quite clear in the Governor's address tomorrow. The fact remains that no matter what was said or by whom it was said, this Commonwealth has certain obligations and has certain needs and this Legislature has got to meet those needs one way or another, whether it be with one tax or another tax, and to what extent we will go in meeting those needs is something we must decide. All the talk that I might make and all the talk that the Minority Leader might make won't change that basic fact. We have got to add up the amounts we need, we have got to raise the revenue or we have got to shift the burden back home, or we must cut the services. It is just as simple as that. I say I will reply in more detail to the Minority Leader at a later date after I have had time to analyze his remarks.

The SPEAKER. For what purpose does the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Smith, rise?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I rise, Mr. Speaker, to make a brief statement of sympathy for the Majority Leader.

The SPEAKER. The Majority Leader doesn't need any words of sympathy.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I must say that I disagree with the Chair, I think the Majority Leader is in need of sympathy. I feel sorry for the Majority Leader when he has to stand on the floor of this House and defend a lot of things that were said during your campaign, because people during a campaign don't care what they say evidently. I feel sorry when he had nothing to do with what those people said, but nevertheless, they were parties who were running as candidates and who are officials in the Democratic party.

Unfortunately, they are the things, regardless of what he says, that the people of Pennsylvania were led to believe. It is unfortunate that some of us don't believe that the promises we make in a campaign should be kept after we are elected. That is not the Majority Leader's fault, and I am very much in sympathy with him in regard to that.

We knew all of the things that the Majority Leader is now saying; we knew two years ago that the state of Pennsylvania had to go on regardless, but, unfortunately, at that time, the Speaker of the House now, who was then the Minority Leader, was in the unfortunate position of having to take an entirely different tack, not because of himself but because of his party. It seems peculiar that when the shoe is on the other foot, how simple the facts can be that the money has to be raised or else it has to be placed back under local taxation.

Mr. Speaker, we knew all of these things during the campaign, we went through it and as I say I feel sorry that the gentleman is now defending a lot of people who unfortunately during the campaign had the "foot and mouth" disease.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. READINGER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I speak for the purpose of tickling the memory of the Minority Leader, very, very gently.

I know the Minority Leader is a very busy man, and he has been so busy reading speeches made during the recent campaign that he no doubt has completely forgotten that when John Sidney Fine was running for the Governorship of this state he very emphatically and on many occasions said: "I do not believe any new taxes will be necessary." But he no sooner got into the Chair of the Governor when he came before this Legislature, solemnly convening us here to hear his wise words when he said, "I was mistaken, we need another $125 million."

I remember so well, the days when, I believe it was Duff who was running for Governor, was laboring under the misapprehension that he was going to get a surplus from Martin of some $200 million, and low and behold, when he became Governor there wasn't any surplus. Every Republican Governor seemed to have in some way indicated that he was going to leave office with a surplus, but every successor came in and found the cupboard was bare. And, brother, we have certainly found it bare this time and we've got to do something about it, and we will. But those facts are very conveniently forgotten when the gentleman now speaks of some of the things said during the recent campaign. Don't forget, the public doesn't forget sometimes as quickly as we politicians forget.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. AUKER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I listened with a great deal of interest to the remarks of both the Majority and the Minority Leaders and it put me in mind of a story.

A hillbilly rode into town one day on his donkey and under his one arm he had a jug of moonshine, and under the other arm a rifle.

He met a pedestrian passing by and he said, "Hey you."

The pedestrian walked over to him, and the hillbilly said to him, "Take a drink of this." The pedestrian says, "I'm sorry, Mister, but I don't drink."

So the hillbilly pulled his rifle out, aimed it at him, and remarked, "I said take a drink of this."

The pedestrian said "All right."

So he took the jug, took a big swig of it and just about choked to death. He says, "Oh, that is awful stuff."

The hillbilly says, "Ain't it awful, now you take the gun and hold it on me while I take a drink."

RESOLUTION No. 56

REPORT AND RESOLUTION OF THE COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS AND APPORTIONMENT

Mr. LOPRESTI. Mr. Speaker, as Chairman of the Committee on Elections and Apportionment I desire to submit a report to the House, together with a resolution of recommendation of the Committee on Elections and Apportionment on the contested election of Harry "Jerry" Butler and Stanley Meholchick for the office of Representative for the Second District of Luzerne County.

To the Honorable Hiram G. Andrews, Speaker, and the Honorable members of the House of Representatives:

This matter comes before the House of Representatives on petition of Harry "Jerry" Butler contesting the election of Stanley Meholchick to a seat in the House of Representatives from the Second Legislative District of Luzerne County. A petition on behalf of Mr. Butler appealing the decision of the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County on January 31, 1955, which declared that Stanley Meholchick was entitled to election from the district for the term beginning 1955, was duly filed with the House of Representatives on February 9, 1955, in accordance with the election laws and rules of the House of Representatives and was referred to this Committee for action on February 14, 1955.

On February 7, 1955, pursuant to certification from the Secretary of the Commonwealth, Mr. Meholchick took the oath of office as Representative from the Second Legislative District of Luzerne County and was seated without prejudice to the rights of Mr. Butler to appeal.

Although it is not disputed that the law imposes no restrictions on the Committee as to what evidence it shall hear and consider, nor from what source it shall be obtained, it was agreed by counsel for both parties and this Committee that the decision of the Committee would be based solely upon the record of the Luzerne County Court, oral argument before the Committee and written briefs. Such oral argument was heard and briefs were filed on March 14, 1955.

The jurisdiction of the House of Representatives to hear and determine this matter is clearly defined. Article II, Section 9, of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania provides,

"Each House . . . shall judge of the election and qualifications of its members."

It has been established without question by the Courts of the Commonwealth that this House is the sole judge of the qualifications of its members.

"Every fact and every conclusion of law found by the Court and by the Committee may be disregarded by the House, and its decision, expressed by its vote, as to which is entitled to the office, is final and conclusive." In Re Contested Election of McNeill, 111 PA 235, p. 242.

At the General Election on November 2, 1954, Harry "Jerry" Butler was the Republican Candidate and Stanley Meholchick was the Democratic Candidate for the office of Representative in the General Assembly from the Second Legislative District of Luzerne County. The official count of the Board of Elections of Luzerne County accredited Mr. Butler with 8,802 votes and Mr. Meholchick with 8,796 votes or a majority for Mr. Butler of 6 votes.

On November 20, 1954, Mr. Meholchick instituted an election contest before the Court of Common Pleas of Luzerne County. As a result of this contest, twenty-three votes which were cast in the Borough of Warrior Run were determined by the Court to be illegal and invalid. The Court's decision is reported in Vol. 45, Luz. Leg. Reg. Reports, p. 33, and in the Legislative Journal on February 7, 1955, p. 274.

The sole question presented to this Committee by the record and by the arguments and briefs of counsel was the validity of the votes of these twenty-three persons from the Borough of Warrior Run.

All twenty-three of these persons were assisted in voting by one Stanley Nadwodny, the Tax Collector of Warrior Run Borough and an employee of the County Commissioners. It is also undisputed that not one of the twenty-three were administered the oath by the Judge of Elections as required by the Election Code prior to being accompanied by Mr. Nadwodny into the voting booth.

One of the persons assisted was a former member of the Borough Council and at the time, Borough Road Supervisor in which capacity he submitted written reports to Borough Council. His original registration application showed an erasure in the box where need for assistance was indicated and he was marked as entitled to assistance on the grounds of illiteracy.

Another person who received assistance was a man with the mental age of two years who could not talk, read or write. The records show that Mr. Nadwodny procured his illegal registration on September 11, 1954. He was illegally permitted to vote on November 2, 1954, with the assistance of Mr. Nadwodny.

Another one of the twenty-three votes in question was cast by a man who was naturalized on January 18, 1943, and required the services of an interpreter in the Luzerne County Court. He stated that on election morning at 7:30 A.M. Mr. Nadwodny came to his home and asked him to go and vote, but he refused. Shortly thereafter, the Chief of Police arrested him and took him before the Justice of the Peace where, in the presence of Mr. Nadwodny he was told that he would get thirty days in jail unless he went and voted. In view of this threat, he went to the polls where he was assisted by Mr. Nadwodny.

Several of the twenty-three who gave as reasons for need of assistance "poor eyesight," did not require glasses in order to read.

On twelve of the original registration records which were exhibited to the Committee, there were obvious erasures in the place where the need for assistance was to be indicated. Since these original registration records were solely within the custody and control of the County Registration Officials, it would seem obvious that these erasures were the responsibility of the County Elections Board.

From the facts presented to this Committee with respect to these individuals who were permitted to cast their ballots in the circumstances outlined above, it would seem apparent that some reforms would be in order in the election processes in the Borough of Warrior Run and in the Registration Office of Luzerne County. The exploitation of a mentally deficient individual, the use of police authority to intimidate a prospective voter, and the participation of Election Officials and all others concerned in the subterfuge of assistance of intelligent and literate individuals cannot be too strongly condemned.

As the Court of Luzerne County stated,

"It must be conceded that the cornerstone of honest elections is secrecy in voting. A citizen voting in secret is a free man; otherwise, he is subject to pressure and, perhaps, control."

"One method by which this guarantee of freedom can be defeated is the device of illegal assistance."

As the Court also pointed out, there is a specific duty imposed under the Election Laws, not only upon the Judge of Elections to administer the oath to one seeking assistance, but also upon the voter to receive this oath before allowing the face of the voting machine to be seen by another.

"Any elector . . . who, without having made the declaration under oath or affirmation required by section 1218 of this act . . . shall permit another to accompany him into the voting compartment . . . or who shall state falsely to any election officer that because of illiteracy he is unable to read the names on the ballot . . . or that by reason of physical disability he cannot . . . see or operate the voting machine without assistance . . . shall be guilty of a misdemeanor . . ." Act of June 3, 1937, P. L. 1333, 25 P.S. 3530 at p. 645, 646.

Under all of the facts presented to this Committee it is clear that each of the twenty-three votes in question was cast in plain disregard of that duty, and therefore should be invalidated. Further there is no doubt that these votes were attempted to be cast for Mr. Butler. Wherefore, it is the opinion of this Committee that the following Resolution expressing the decision of the Committee be presented for the consideration of and adoption by the House of Representatives:

Resolved, That it is the decision of the Committee on Elections and Apportionment of the House of Representatives that the appeal of Harry "Jerry" Butler be denied, and be it further

Resolved, That Stanley Meholchick be declared the duly elected Representative in the General Assembly from the Second Legislative District of Luzerne County for the term beginning January 1955, and be it further

Resolved, That the action of the House of Representatives on February 7, 1955, in seating Stanley Meholchick be hereby confirmed.

Respectfully submitted,

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Warren, Mr. Gibson.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Warren consent to be interrogated?

Mr. GIBSON. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I request the gentleman to explain as briefly as possible just what this bill does and the need for it.

Mr. GIBSON. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the Majority Leader's question, this bill was introduced as a development of the unfortunate murder of Judge Wade in Warren County in January, 1954.

Following that great trial of the murderer and his conviction it was found that the case was appealed because of insanity. In a small County such as Warren we have not the facilities for the adequate care of prisoners over a long period of time. There is not the opportunity to give a prisoner proper exercise, and because of the alleged insanity it was necessary to have guards on 24 hour duty.

We have found that it has been very, very expensive, costing nearly $50 a day and it was felt that larger counties, for example, perhaps Erie County, or Allegheny County or even the state prisons could provide much more suitable and adequate care for this type of prisoner, where it was necessary to keep him for many months or as in this case, it has been well over a year. So, this bill was introduced to provide for the transfer of prisoners after they were found guilty but pending their sentencing, to jails where more adequate facilities prevail. The cost incidentally would, of course, be borne by the county where the crime originated, but it would still be much less.

Does that answer the gentleman's question?

Mr. READINGER. I thank the gentleman. That clarifies the matter.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The second section and title were separately read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 656, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 4 1927 (P. L. 519) entitled "An act concerning boroughs and revising amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs" increasing the maximum compensation payable to councilmen in boroughs whose population is more than five thousand

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

House Bill No. 670, Printer's No. 175

was passed over temporarily at the request of Mr. READINGER.

Agreeably to order,

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. SARRAF asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a resolution to be introduced by him.

RESOLUTION

COMMENDATION

Messrs. SARRAF, FILO, KAMYK, WALSH, McLAUGHLIN, THOMAS, LEONARD, LUTTY, MATT S. ANDERSON, MORAN, BOIES, OLSEN, MIHM, JOHN J. MURRAY, VERONA, JENKINS, SCHUSTER, RIGBY, EWING, HAUDENSHIELD, THOMPSON, COOPER, GIBB, DONALDSON, AGNEW, WILT, PRICE and GOLDSTEIN asked and obtained unanimous consent to introduce a resolution and for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 18, 1955.

On Tuesday, April 12, 1955, in the University of Michigan's Rackham Auditorium there was announced to all the world by the scholarly University of Michigan Scientist, Dr. Thomas Francis, Jr., that the Salk Vaccine was acclaimed the conqueror of Polio, a great victory of medical science over a vicious enemy.

It was a triumphant occasion and a glorious moment for Dr. Jonas E. Salk, developer of the vaccine, who is a Research Professor of Bacteriology of the University of Pittsburgh.

Hailed as one of the greatest scientific achievements in the field of medicine, the Salk Vaccine will place Dr. Salk side by side with two other heroes of medical science, Baron Joseph Lister and Louis Pasteur. To the world generally, the Salk Vaccine will be the greatest life saver our generation will ever know.

Dr. Jonas E Salk was born October 28, 1914 in New York City and attended Townsend Harris High School, a school reserved for exceptionally gifted children. At the age of 15 he was a freshman at City College of New York when he took his first science course for curiosity. That led to medical school at the New York University where he held three fellowships during his years of study. He received his M.D. in 1939. Deciding that research was his field, Dr. Salk moved to the University of Michigan to begin his association with Dr. Francis. Together they developed a vaccine for influenza and Dr. Salk, not yet 30, became a consultant to the United States Army in Epidemic Diseases and a member of the Commission on Influenza. He is married and the father of three sons, Peter, 11; Darrel, 8; and Jonathan, 5.

In 1947 he came to the University of Pittsburgh and two years later began his research into Polio. With his staff of 50 assistants he worked with endless energy that resulted in great dividends—human lives saved and limbs salvaged, a dividend not measured in dollars and cents. Now, therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives (with the Senate concurring) do hereby recognize and hail the greatest scientific achievement in the field of medicine for the benefit of mankind in our generation, the discovery of the Salk Vaccine as the conqueror of Polio, and do hereby extend our deep and grateful appreciation to Dr. Jonas E. Salk, the developer of the vaccine, and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent forthwith to Dr. Jonas E. Salk, Dr. Rufus Fitzgerald, the Chancellor of the University of Pittsburgh, and to Dr. Thomas Francis, Jr. of the University of Michigan.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for its concurrence.

COMMUNICATION FROM GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

STATEMENT BY SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The Chair calls the attention of the Majority and Minority Leaders and the Chairmen of Committees to the seriousness of the situation which has been called to the attention of the House by the Desk. There should be some clearance other than through the Desk here as to Committee meetings.

The Chair would suggest that meetings of important Committees clear through the Majority Floor Leader, otherwise we are going to find that our Committees can not act on important matters because of the lack of quorum, or because of a conflict in time, but at any rate the situation is one that should be handled in systematic fashion.

We are rapidly reaching the point, in the Chair's opinion, where it will be necessary for us to go on a schedule calling for three days during which to transact business in a regular fashion, with the fourth day to operate on a basis of a consent calendar. We are not going to be able to finish this session in an orderly fashion unless we very soon recognize the fact that sooner or later, and the sooner the better, we engage in a three day schedule when we have a working plurality in the House.

The Chair simply suggests that we will save our time, we will save our money by very shortly changing our schedule so that instead of working a day and a half we will have a three day week during which to work, with the fourth day as a consent calendar day.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, if the Majority Party would like to take time out to inquire of the present Minority Party how we so well ran the House for several years back as far as committees are concerned we would be glad to advise the Majority Leader and the Majority Whip just how to make his committee meetings so that they don't over-lap. We are open to suggestions, we are all old Republicans with plenty of old advice to give. We are perfectly willing to help the younger Members in the Majority Party.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. READINGER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

I would simply like to state "Ain't it wonderful to be in the Minority"?

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. HASS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until Tuesday, April 19, 1955 at 2:00 p.m.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 6:20 p.m.) the House adjourned.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1955. 141st of the General Assembly.

Vol. 34. HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, APRIL 19, 1955. No. 34.

SENATE

TUESDAY, April 19, 1955.

The Senate met at 2:00 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Roy E. Furman) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. HERBERT W. STROUP, JR., Pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, Camp Hill, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray.

We are reminded this day, Our Heavenly Father, that Thy birth was in Bethlehem because of the necessity to register for a new tax. Help us to keep in mind that the true cost of democracy is never money, but rather in human lives and sacrifice.

So, with this knowledge, may we be rededicated to the complete service of those who look to us and depend upon us to provide the freedom wherein life may be lived to its highest and fullest extent.

In the Name of Christ, we pray, Amen.

JOURNALS APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. MAHANY and Mr. PECHAN, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

Mr. PECHAN asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. PROPERT, due to illness.

He also asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. WOLFE, due to illness.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. SEYLER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. President, I speak as one who is vitally interested in the maintenance of our great freedoms. Of these freedoms, I am particularly impressed with the necessity of keeping freedom of the press a bright and shining part of them, because in a Democratic Nation it seems to me that freedom of the press is a necessary function, almost equivalent to breathing in a human individual. However, Mr. President, some of us have been concerned with the lack of responsibility that is sometimes manifested and which, it seems to me, should be a necessary concomitant of this freedom.

All of us are familiar with the problem of the press handling trials, the details of trials before they actually come to court, in such a manner that the opinions of the jurors are swayed in advance of the case. Although many of the things that appear in the newspapers would not be admitted in the courts, nevertheless, they are planted in the minds of the public and so the jurors, and a fair trial becomes difficult. That is one problem of responsibility.

Mr. President, the recent treatment by the press of the "much kept secret in Pennsylvania" presents an instance to my mind of a similar lack of responsibility. I do not want to set myself up as a person who is competent to criticize the gentlemen of the press, because I am not a practicing, at least a full-time practicing, member of that profession.

Mr. President, when I got up this morning, I read an editorial in my local newspaper which seems to me to hit this nail directly on the head. I think it will be of interest not only to the gentlemen of the press here assembled, and their editors, but also to the Members of the Senate. I am not the sort who gets up and reads daily the editorials in my local newspaper, because I do not think my editor has a monopoly on wisdom. However, I do think that in this particular instance he has made a very timely statement and I would like to read it:

"Leader's Tax Program," it is entitled.

"The Leader Administration's proposed tax program for Pennsylvania will be unveiled today. Now that the time is due for Pennsylvanians to learn exactly what it is that Governor Leader and his aides recommend as money-raising methods let us call attention to the manner in which all too much of the press in the state has treated this story-in-the-making these past three months.

"The press is supposed to report news. Therefore one might think that the best way for a responsible press to handle the tax subject would be to wait until the Governor made his recommendations, publish them as completely as possible and proceed to comment as it pleased. The members of the Leader Administration, just like all those in office in the United States, are servants of the public; the public is entitled to full, accurate reports of what its servants do; and the function of a free press is to render these reports.

"But the press of Pennsylvania in most cases has not been satisfied to fulfill this function in the instance of the Leader tax program. Instead of getting the whole story when it was there to be given, the people of the Commonwealth have been treated to guesses, rumors, speculation, gossip, partial reports and much whetting of the journalistic knives at the prospect of a tax program which would offer opportunity to show that Governor Leader was going back on promises, that he was about to ruin himself politically and that the voters made a mistake in electing Democrats to state office in the first place.

"Such, if we may say so, is hardly responsible reporting. It isn't even reporting at all. What it really has to be called is psychological warfare conducted against the Leader Administration by that part of the press—most of it, as a matter of fact—which hopes that the truly desperate condition of state finances will be too much for the Democrats. Scarcely a word, of course, has been printed about the state's financial condition or how it got that way, all of this available as fact to any of the newspapers or wire services with correspondents in Harrisburg. But reams of words on what Leader might do. Journalism? Well, maybe of a sort which we see all too much of nowadays. But not reporting. And not fair to the public which ought to be able to judge the tax program for what it is in the light of the circumstances which have produced it."

Mr. President, I offer this as I said, not as a bit of uncontrovertible wisdom but I offer it as a very timely comment from a member of the great profession, which I hope will endure forever and to whom I hope will be given, along with the great freedom which we owe to it and which we need to have, the responsibility that goes with that great job.

NINTH GRADE STUDENTS FROM CONRAD WEISER JOINT HIGH SCHOOL, ROBESONIA, PRESENTED TO SENATE

Mr. RUTH. Mr. President, I would like to present to the Senate a group of ninth grade students from one of the Robesonia Schools, the Conrad Weiser Joint High School, who are here under the leadership of their principal, Luther S. Butt. They are seated in the balcony.

The PRESIDENT. On behalf of the Members of the Senate, the Chair wishes to extend greetings to the constituents of Senator Ruth. We are glad to have you with us.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. MAHANY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I see that our good Senator, Senator Seyler, has decided it is wise to adopt the same tactics that ex-President Truman used the other day when he was trying to blast the press.

Mr. President, I think that the press, and the representatives of the press, should be commended for trying to give to the people of Pennsylvania the news in Harrisburg as it develops. Certainly, this is nothing new. When we, the Republican Party, were in control in Harrisburg the representatives of the press came to us to find out what taxes we were planning and to find out our tax policy and they printed it in all the newspapers in Pennsylvania. As the gentleman well kows, if he can remember back to the 1951 Session and the 1953 Session, before the tax program was unveiled, we had editorials pro and con on our tax program. Certainly, the newspapers came out at that time and blasted what was termed then as the "Fine Income Tax."

Mr. President, surely this is nothing new. These newspapers throughout Pennsylvania have sent their top men to Harrisburg to cover the happenings here and they would not be carrying out their duties if they did not report back to their newspapers what was going on here, not only on the Senate floor but in the Governor's Office, in the caucuses if they can get the news from the caucuses, and committees and wherever else they can find news in one way or another. It is their job to send it back to their editors. When their editors get that news, then they certainly have a perfect right in their editorials to comment either for it or against it, as did the editor of the newspaper to which the Senator referred when he read the editorial into the record.

I believe, as Senator Dent said yesterday, in quoting Voltaire, that they certainly have the right to speak their opinions. We, here, should not object to the fact that the press in Pennsylvania is trying to tell the people of Pennsylvania what the Governor and the Democratic Party have in mind in relation to a tax program for them.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I agree with most of the things that the Majority Leader said, except the last statement. We do not object to the newspapers of Pennsylvania telling the people of Pennsylvania what the Governor has in mind for the tax program. We object when the editors tell the people what the editors have in mind that the Governor may have in mind for a tax program.

NOMINATIONS BY THE GOVERNOR

Which was committed to the Committee on Finance.

House Bill No. 126, entitled:

An Act amending the act of July 15, 1897 (P. L. 292) entitled "An act to provide revenue by taxation," extending the date for making the reports required of banks and savings institutions concerning shares of capital stock

Which was committed to the Committee on Finance.

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

TIME OF NEXT MEETING

He also informed the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution from the Senate as follows:

In the Senate, April 18, 1955.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That when the Senate adjourns this week, it reconvene on Monday, April 25, 1955, at two-thirty o'clock, p. m., E. S. T., and when the House of Representatives adjourns this week, it reconvene on Monday, April 25, 1955, at a time to be fixed by the House of Representatives.

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

He also informed the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution from the Senate as follows:

JOINT SESSION

In the Senate, April 18, 1955.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the Senate and House of Representatives meet in Joint Session, Tuesday, April 19, 1955, at three o'clock, p. m., in the Hall of the House of Representatives for the purpose of hearing an address by His Excellency the Governor of the Commonwealth.

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

He also informed the Senate that the House has concurred in resolution from the Senate as follows:

COMMITTEE TO ESCORT GOVERNOR TO THE HALL OF THE HOUSE

In the Senate, April 18, 1955.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That a committee of three on the part of the Senate be appointed to act with a similar committee on the part of the House of Representatives (if the House shall appoint such committee), to escort His Excellency the Governor to the Hall of the House of Representatives to address the Members of the General Assembly in Joint Session.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

EXTENDING APPRECIATION TO DR. JONAS E. SALK FOR DISCOVERY OF THE SALK VACCINE

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows and referred to the Committee on Rules:

In the House of Representatives, April 18, 1955.

On Tuesday, April 12, 1955, in the University of Michigan's Rackham Auditorium there was announced to all the world by the scholarly University of Michigan Scientist, Dr. Thomas Francis, Jr., that the Salk Vaccine was acclaimed the conqueror of Polio, a great victory of medical science over a vicious enemy.

It was a triumphant occasion and a glorious moment for Dr. Jonas E. Salk, developer of the vaccine, who is a Research Professor of Bacteriology of the University of Pittsburgh.

Hailed as one of the greatest scientific achievements in the field of medicine, the Salk Vaccine will place Dr. Salk side by side with two other heroes of medical science, Baron Joseph Lister and Louis Pasteur. To the world generally, the Salk Vaccine will be the greatest life saver our generation will ever know.

Dr. Jonas E. Salk was born October 28, 1914, in New York City and attended Townsend Harris High School, a school reserved for exceptionally gifted children. At the age of 15 he was a freshman at City College of New York when he took his first science course for curiosity. That led to medical school at the New York University where he held three fellowships during his years of study. He received his M.D. in 1939. Deciding that research was his field, Dr. Salk moved to the University of Michigan to begin his association with Dr. Francis. Together they developed a vaccine for influenza and Dr. Salk, not yet 30, became a consultant to the United States Army in Epidemic Diseases and a member of the Commission on Influenza. He is married and the father of three sons, Peter, 11; Darrel, 8; and Jonathan, 5.

In 1947 he came to the University of Pittsburgh and two years later began his research into Polio. With his staff of 50 assistants he worked with endless energy that resulted in great dividends—human lives saved and limbs salvaged, a dividend not measured in dollars and cents. Now, therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives (with the Senate concurring) do hereby recognize and hail the greatest scientific achivement in the field of medicine for the benefit of mankind in our generation, the discovery of the Salk Vaccine as the conqueror of Polio, and do hereby extend our deep and grateful appreciation to Dr. Jonas E. Salk, the developer of the vaccine; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent forthwith to Dr. Jonas E. Salk, Dr. Rufus Fitzgerald, the Chancellor of the University of Pittsburgh, and to Dr. Thomas Francis, Jr., of the University of Michigan.

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO ESCORT THE GOVERNOR TO THE HALL OF THE HOUSE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair, on behalf of the President pro tempore, wishes to announce the appointment of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. WEINER; the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. MULLIN; and the gentleman from Bucks, Mr. WATSON; as a committee to escort the Governor to the Hall of the House.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. BLASS, from the Committe on Insurance, reported as committed Senate Bill No. 241, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 11, 1949 (P. L. 1210), entitled "An act relating to group life insurance; describing permitted policies and restrictions thereon, the premium basis thereof and rights thereunder; limiting the amount of such insurance; prescribing standard policy provisions; and requiring notice of conversion privileges," extending the types permitted and fixing requirements thereof.

Which was committed to the Committee on Education.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, the bills that I am about to present deal with judges' salaries and pensions in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. I am not wedded to the figures that are contained in the bills. However, it is important to put them in as the judges have advocated them and then it is entirely within the jurisdiction of the Members of the Senate, if they see fit, to set the figures and rates as best fit the purpose.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. DENT (By request) read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 317, entitled:

An Act fixing the salaries and compensation of the Chief Justice and judges of the Supreme Court, the President Judge and judges of the Superior Court, the judges of the courts of common pleas, the judges of the orphans' courts, the judges of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia and the judges of the County Court and Juvenile Court of Allegheny County, certain associate judges not learned in the law, and repealing certain inconsistent acts.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

He also (By request) read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 318, entitled:

An Act pertaining to the resignation and retirement of judges under certain conditions; fixing their compensation upon resignation or retirement and imposing duties on certain State officers.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

TRIBUTE TO THE LATE DOCTOR ALBERT EINSTEIN

Messrs. WEINER, MAHANY, CAMIEL, SEYLER, DiSILVESTRO and DONOLOW offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, April 19, 1955.

Dr. Albert Einstein, the greatest theoretical physicist of all time, has passed away at the age of seventy-six. Though few of us are able to comprehend the full significance of Dr. Einstein's contributions to humanity, yet we realize that had it not been for the scientific genius of this one great man the world today would be far less advanced.

Author of the theory of relativety and the father of nuclear fission and electronics, Dr. Albert Einstein's genius made possible the most powerful implements of destruction ever known to man, yet he remained throughout his life one of the strongest advocates for peace among the people and the nations of the world.

Born in Grmany of Jewish descent, Dr. Einstein chose the United States, with its freedom of expression and movement as his home, and bestowed upon it the bounty of his brilliance. For his contributions to science which have been instrumental in making our country the leader in this scientific age we shall be eternally grateful; therefore be it

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania pause at this time to pay tribute to Dr. Albert Einstein, the leader of science for the twentieth century, and to make known our deep feeling of sorrow in the loss to humanity suffered by his death; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Miss Margot Einstein, Princeton, New Jersey.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented communication in writing from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

GOVERNOR'S BUDGET MESSAGE

The Chair cleared his table and announced receipt of the "Seventeenth Biennial Budget of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania" and "Supplement to the Seventeenth Biennial Budget of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania" for the fiscal biennium June 1, 1955 to May 31, 1957, together with the "Budget Message of George M. Leader, Governor of Pennsylvania, to the General Assembly, April 19, 1955," copies of which have been placed on the desks of the Senators.

INTERROGATION

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from York, Senator Seyler.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from York, Mr. Seyler, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SEYLER. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. MAHANY. Senator Seyler, I just want to ask you whether or not you think the members of the press here did a pretty good job of telling the people of Pennsylvania, through the newspapers, what the Governor's tax program was.

Mr. SEYLER. I think the difficulty, Senator Mahany, was that they told the people a great deal of other things besides. I think the newspaper instilled a lot of fears and so on which are probably now pretty well brushed away.

Mr. MAHANY. I do not agree with the latter statement, Senator, but I think they did a very good job. In fact, there were some taxes that are being promulgated by the Governor that the press did not mention. I think they mentioned all the ones that he had, but there were two or three that they did not catch up with.

Mr. SEYLER. I think the program, as outlined by the Governor, has proved to be less offensive than some of the taxes outlined by the press.

Mr. MAHANY. Senator Seyler, that remains to be seen.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

MEMORALIZING CONGRESS TO ENACT INTO LEGISLATION THAT ALL UNITED STATES CURRENCY BEAR THE INSCRIPTION "IN GOD WE TRUST" AND URGING FAVORABLE ACTION ON HOUSE BILL NO. 4661

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Messrs. SCHMIDT and VAN SANT offered the following resolution which was twice read, and referred to the Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations:

In the Senate, April 19, 1955.

The United States of America, the greatest democracy that ever existed in the history of mankind, was conceived and dedicated to the belief that only through the love of God and an abiding faith in Him to show the way, the truth and the light could our Nation or any other nation prosper and exist in a peaceful world. In times of peace and in times when the world was torn asunder causing death, chaos and grief, He has been our strength and guidance and has made us the leading Nation of the world.

Again the times are critical and the peace of the world is threatened with conflict. It is time for rededication to the belief that faith and trust in God is the only hope for peace and to impart by every means at our command this belief to all the peoples of the world, especially those existing in countries where there is no God. One of the means is the currency of the United States which has world-wide distribution therefore, be it

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania memorialize the Congress of the United States to support and enact into legislation that all United States currency shall bear the inscription "In God We Trust" and to take favorable action of House Bill No. 4661 of the 64th Congress; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the presiding officers of each house of the Congress of the United States and to each Senator and Representative from Pennsylvania in the Congress of the United States.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. YOSKO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, the distinguished Majority

Leader asked to interrogate Senator Seyler on the budget as presented by the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, as well as the tax program. Now that we have it, there is a great deal of work to be done. Those who question the amount of funds that are needed and the taxes proposed to finance those needs should, from here on in, put their shoulders to the wheel and help to get our house in order here in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, I hope that everybody here will scrutinize the budget. Let us conduct budget hearings with the various departments, boards and commissions to make sure that only the bare needs of the Commonwealth are included in the budget. Let us work with the Governor to give him a uniform accounting system, so that it will be possible to keep a record of checks and balances, of the receipts and expenditures of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, which has been impossible up to the present time.

Let us release that bill for a constitutional amendment to authorize Annual instead of Biennial Sessions. Here in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania we are serving 11,000,000 people and, at least in my opinion and in the opinion of both parties, because it was included in their platforms, Annual Sessions are desirable.

Mr President, the Annual Session bill passed the last Session of the Legislature and it passed the House this Session. However, it has been lodged in one of the Senate committees awaiting release. Let us release it at once so that we can still put it on the Primary ballot and have Annual Sessions approved. Let us join with the Governor in the reorganization of the State Government to effect every possible economy so that budget needs, if possible, can be reduced and at the same time reduce the tax needs that have been presented today.

Mr. Prsident, if we do all of the things that are necessary to give this Commonwealth a sound fiscal policy and program, I am sure the people will go along with us.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. MAHANY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I want to assure Senator Yosko that we on this side of the aisle are willing and ready to assist the Governor in every way possible to affect any economy in government which he deems wise.

Mr. President, I noticed today in the Budget Message that there was not one word about any savings that might be effected through economy in his program. The fact of the matter is, he must have thought that all of the expenditures in the past administration were all right, because he said we were $75,000,000 short and we would need another $75,000,000 to make that up. Evidently, the Governor was not figuring that any money that we used in the past administration was misused.

We have given him his House Bill No. 1, and we are ready and willing to act on any plans which he sends over. He now has the right and the authority to send us his plans under the Reorganization Act. We are waiting with bated breath for that No. 1 plan to arrive here, and I assure the gentleman that when it does and it can show economy and it will further good government, he will find us on this side of the aisle ready to vote for it and give it due consideration.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. YOSKO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, on the question of economy in the Governor's Message today, I agree with the distinguished Majority Leader that there was no reference made to it.

However, Mr. President, there was reference made to it in a message he sent to the Lgislature requesting the reorganization bill. To include it in today's Message would have only been repetition.

RECESS

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for five minutes, for the purpose of holding a meeting of the Committee on Highways.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to introduce bills at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Messrs. HOLLAND, LANE and DENT, read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 319, entitled:

An Act amending the act of April 12, 1951 (P. L. 90), entitled "An act relating to alcoholic liquors, alcohol and malt and brewed beverages; amending, revising, consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto; regulating and restricting the manufacture, purchase, sale, possession, consumption, importation, transportation, furnishing, holding in bond, holding in storage, traffic in and use of alcoholic liquors, alcohol and malt and brewed beverages and the persons engaged or employed therein; defining the powers and duties of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board; providing for the establishment and operation of State liquor stores, for the payment of certain license fees to the respective municipalities and townships, for the abatement of certain nuisances and, in certain cases, for search and seizure without warrant; prescribing penalties and forfeitures; providing for local option, and repealing existing laws," limiting the effect of certain citations, violations and penalties.

Which was committeed to the Committee on Law and Order.

They also read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 320, entitled:

An Act amending the act of April 12, 1951 (P. L. 90), entitled "An act relating to alcoholic liquors, alcohol and malt and brewed beverages; amending, revising, consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto; regulating and restricting the manufacture, purchase, sale, possession, consumption, importation, transportation, furnishing, holding in bond, holding in storage, traffic in and use of alcoholic liquors, alcohol and malt and brewed beverages and the persons engages or employed therein; defining the powers and duties of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board; providing for the establishment and operation of State liquor stores, for the payment of certain license fees to the respective municipalities and townships, for the abatement of certain nuisances and, in certain cases, for search and seizure without warrant; prescribing penalties and forfeitures; providing for local option, and repealing existing laws," prohibiting the issuance of citations and imposition of penalties in certain cases.

Which was committed to the Committee on Law and Order.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

TUESDAY, April 19, 1955.

The House met at 2:00 p.m.

The SPEAKER (Hirman G. Andrews) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend Harold J. Crouse, Pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, York, offered the following prayer:

O Lord, Our Lord, how excellent is Thy name in all the earth. To Thy throne of grace we raise our voice of praise and adoration. Our heavenly Father ere these Thy servants of government meet for another session, give each and all understanding hearts and minds. Turn the searchlight of Thy Spirit upon their inmost motives. Send forth Thy light and Thy truth that they may light up every thought, word and deed. Where there are differences, let them be clearly stated and honestly debated, for the good of liberty and freedom in this land which is still the last best hope of free men.

Most merciful Father be gracious unto Thy servant, the Governor of this Commonwealth. Give him strength for the task of this day. To all who listen and must act, give the richness of Thy grace and spirit so that they may act responsible and do the right things at the right time. O God, how earnestly we would pray that Thou wouldst deliver us from the spirit of oppression, careless greed which seeks comfort or ease or gain at the cost of the misery of others. Create in us a passion for justice, that freedom may be a blessing and liberty bear the fruit of good will. Remove from us the mote of prejudice and pride so that we may look for truth alone. So Lord, give us the sense of good sight, good listening and good thinking. In the name of Jesus, we pray. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVAL POSTPONED

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the approval of the Journal for Monday, April 18, 1955 will be postponed until printed. The Chair hears none.

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH.

(Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 57.

In the House of Representatives, April 18, 1955.

The Democratic Party in their 1954 platform charged that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania granted "excessive refunds to favored corporations and taxpayers."

Governor Leader, when a candidate for the office of Governor, charged that "millions upon millions of dollars have gone out the back door in secret tax refunds to favored corporations."

Members of the Board of Finance and Revenue, which has the responsibility of approving all refunds, have denied these charges.

The citizens of Pennsylvania have a right to know the truth or falsity of these allegations.

Section 405 of "The Administrative Code of 1929" provides that the Board of Finance and Revenue shall keep full and exact minutes of its proceedings, which shall at all times be open to the inspection of the Governor and the General Assembly; therefore be it

Resolved (the Senate concurring), That the President Pro Tempore of the Senate appoint a committee of four Senators and the Speaker of the House appoint a similar committee of four House members to inspect the minutes of the Board of Finance and Revenue for the period between January 1, 1951 and December 31, 1954 and make a report to the General Assembly on or before May 1, 1955, as to the truth or falsity of the charge of excessive refunds to favored corporations and taxpayers.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

By Mr. RIGBY. RESOLUTION No. 58.

In the House of Representatives, April 19, 1955.

Inability to produce promised results should be admitted, not brushed off and blamed on other persons or groups.

The Democratic Party in Pennsylvania came to power with a promise not to renew the State sales tax and not to levy a wage tax. The realities of government seem to dictate a different course.

If examining the books by the proper persons in the present administration has uncovered fraud or other illegal activities with the previous administration, these facts should be made the basis of prosecution. If no illegal activity has been uncovered, there should be no loose and unfounded charges made. Rather than this, the Democratic Party should shoulder the responsibilities of government in a straightforward manner, and not look for excuses for not carrying out campaign promises.

Taxation is the basis upon which government service is founded. The persons who have custody of governmental functions should assume full responsibility for their actions, and not try to camouflage their actions by double talk or the levelling of loose and unfounded charges against other persons and groups; therefore be it

Resolved, That the present administration and leadership of the Democratic Party either produce facts which they claim to have uncovered concerning what they have termed Republican artifices, so that further investigation may be made by this body and prosecution be brought against persons guilty of illegal acts, or if these facts do not exist, assume full responsibility for having made promises to the voters of Pennsylvania which will be broken by the enactment of tax legislation which, during the last political campaign, the Democratic Party promised would not be enacted.

RESOLUTION No. 59.

In the House of Representatives, April 18, 1955.

The Pennsylvania Cities of Erie, Bradford, Williamsport, are presently without benefit of direct scheduled air transportation to the major industrial center of Detroit, Michigan.

These Pennsylvania cities are presently making substantial and determined efforts to strengthen and supplement their industrial facilities.

The industrial growth and well-being of these Pennsylvania cities would be greatly benefited by the provision of scheduled air transportation directly between Erie, Pennsylvania and Detroit, Michigan.

The Civil Aeronautics Board presently has before it under Docket Number 6927 a petition by Erie, Pennsylvania for immediate investigation as to the need for direct scheduled air transportation between Erie, Pennsylvania and Detroit, Michigan, which petition is actively supported by Bradford, Williamsport, Scranton, Wilkes-Barre and other Pennsylvania cities to be benefited, therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania adjures the Civil Aeronautics Board to give immediate consideration to the need for providing scheduled air service directly between Erie, Pennsylvania and Detroit, Michigan by granting the petition of the City of Erie in Docket Number 6927; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent to the Secretary of Commerce of the United States and the Chairman of the Civil Aeronautics Board of the United States.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

By Messrs. FRANK and AMARANDO.

(Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 60.

In the House of Representatives, April 18, 1955.

The International Olympic Games enable all countries of the world, both slave and free, to lay aside tension and strife and to vie in friendly competition for sporting honors. The importance of these games in bringing about a friendly understanding among nations cannot be over estimated.

The 1956 Olympic Games were originally scheduled to take plpace in Melbourne, Australia; but Avery Brundage, President of the International Olympic Committee, recently stated that he was very much disappointed in the preparations which have been made by Australia for the games, and that it was not too late for the site of the games to be changed.

With the 1956 Olympics still in the embryonic stage it is possible that with a little encouragement these games could be brought to the United States; and Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, with its atmosphere of brotherly love and its excellent facilities for athletic events would be the ideal location.

To have the 1956 Olympics in Philadelphia would bring international publicity to our Commonwealth, and would greatly benefit Pennsylvania business by the thousands of contestants and spectators which it would attract; therefore be it

Resolved, (the Senate concurring), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania urge the International Olympic Committee and its president, Mr. Avery Brundage to favorably consider Philadelphia, Pennsylvania as the site for the 1956 Olympic Games.

RESOLUTION (Not Printed).

In the House of Representatives, April 18, 1955.

Munhall High School Rifle Teams, Mixed and Girls' Squads, of Allegheny County, have again, with level sights and true aim, captured state and national honors for the fourth straight year.

The Girls' Squad annexed the national title for 1955 while the Mixed Team secured second place nationally. Both teams won the W. P. I. A. L. and State championships this year.

In 1954, Munhall's rifle squads gained national recognition for their great shooting in winning the national title for the mixed team and the girls' squad.

In one of the most exciting and closely contested matches in many a year, the Munhall Sharpshooters, on April 2, 1955, defeated Upper Darby, Bradford, and Stroudsburg, for the P. I. A. A. State championship (at Dubois, Pennsylvania), by a score of 996. It was Munhall's eleventh win in fourteen appearances in the State Shoots.

Under the expert coaching of J. Solon Wilson, Munhall High School rifle teams have won 11 state titles, 17 national titles, twice second honors and once have taken third place.

The outstanding record of Munhall High School rifle teams over many years is the result of the inculcation on the students' individual and team achievements gained by hard work, courage, self control, a grim determination and a rugged disposition of "don't know when to quit" until the goal is reached.

The remarkable performance by the Munhall Rifle Squads has enriched the school spirit, developed community interest in school activities, stimulated sportsmanship among the students, and has fostered a cheerful singing attitude to the tune of "Davy Crocket," in praise of the rifle sharpshooters; therefor, be it

Resolved, That this House of Representatives hereby extend congratulations to the members of the Girls' and Mixed Rifle Teams of Munhall High School, to their outstanding and great coach, J. Solon Wilson, to the Superintendent of the Munhall School District, and to the entire student body and faculty for support and assistance rendered to the Munhall High School Rifle Teams; and, be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent to each member of the Girls' and Mixed Rifle Teams, Munhall High School, to their coach, J. Solon Wilson, and to the Superintendent of the Munhall High School District.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

By Messrs. FILO and BOIES.

RESOLUTION (Not Printed)

In the House of Representatives, April 18, 1955.

In spectacular and stellar performance, the Volley Ball Team of Homestead High School, Allegheny County, on April 2, 1955, at Penn State University, retained the P. I. A. A. State Championship, sweeping through the tournament without a single loss.

The victory was a glorious tribute to the team's great coach, Victor J. Sullivan, who is regarded by some as "Mr. Volleyball" throughout the State of Pennsylvania.

For the "Homstead Steelers," as they are commonly known, it was the fourth state crown and the eleventh W. P. I. A. L. title.

In winning the state title, the Homestead High School Volley Ball Team duplicated last year's unique and outstanding accomplishment by not losing a single game or match in the state tournament.

For a community whose history abounds in steel, open hearths and blast furnaces, the achievement of the Homestead High School Volley Ball Team, reflecting good, clean sportsmanship in winning coveted state honors, brings to a materialistic community the admirable qualities strength of character, courage, endurance, and the will to win; therefore, be it

Resolved, That this House of Representatives hereby extend congratulations to the members of the Homestead High School Volley Ball Team, its great coach, Victor J. Sullivan, the Superintendent of the Homestead School District, the students and faculty who have supported and rendered assistance to the team; and, be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be sent to each member of the Homestead High School Volley Ball Team, to their coach, Victor J. Sullivan, and to the Superintendent of the Homestead School District.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

SENATE MESSAGE

INVITATION TO JOINT SESSION

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, April 18, 1955.

Dr. Jonas E. Salk, University of Pittsburgh scientist, has at last attained that pinnacle of success for which we have so long awaited; the discovery of a vaccine against polio. Far too many great minds in the recent past have been directed toward the destruction of mankind. Now one brilliant man has come forth with a discovery which well entitles him to a position of honor in the annals of history as one of the greatest saviors of mankind; a discovery to rid the world of the heartbreak and destruction wreaked by that horrible disease, polio.

Because of this monumental discovery and the deep feeling of gratitude shared by all, we, as the representatives of the people of Pennsylvania, wish to make our feelings known to Dr. Salk; therefore be it

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring), That Dr. Jonas E. Salk be sincerely invited to attend a joint session of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania specially called in his honor, and there to receive the tribute which he has so well earned; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Dr. Jonas E. Salk at the University of Pittsburgh.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

REPORT OF PANEL TO HEAR GRIEVANCES OF PUBLIC EMPLOYEES

COMMUNICATION FROM GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

GOVERNOR'S RECEPTION

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 11, 1955.

Secretary to the Governor
Hon. Hiram G. Andrews
Speaker
House of Representatives
Harrisburg, Pennsylvania

Dear Hi:

For your information, I am enclosing a card which is being mailed today to all of the persons who were invited to Governor and Mrs. Leader's Reception in honor of the members of the General Assembly, changing the date from Tuesday, April 26th to Tuesday, June 7th.

As you will note, the Reception will be held at the State House at Indiantown Gap, instead of at the Executive Mansion, and the time has been changed to "three o'clock to seven o'clock, Eastern Standard Time."

I suggest that you may wish to make an appropriate announcement of this change when the House reconvenes on April 18th.

Because it is so far ahead you may also wish to announce the date and time about a week before June 7th.

Sincerely yours,

DAVID V. RANDALL.

FIXING LAST DAY FOR INTRODUCTION OF BILLS

Mr. READINGER asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer a resolution and for its immediate consideration, which was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 19, 1955.

Resolved, That Thursday, May 12, 1955, be fixed as the last day for the introduction of bills in the House of Representatives during this Session, except bills raising revenue and making appropriation.

SUBSTITUTION OF COMMITTEE MEMBER

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Ziegler, not being in the Hall of the House, the Chair appoints the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Johnson, as a member of the Committee to escort the Senate to the Hall of the House. The Chairman of that committee will take notice.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE

Mr. BOIES. Mr. Speaker, your Committee appointed to escort the Senate to the Hall of the House has performed that duty and the Senate is now in attendance.

The SPEAKER. The Committee is discharged with the thanks of the House.

The Lieutenant-Governor, the Honorable Roy E. Furman is invited to preside over the Joint Session of the General Assembly.

The President pro tempore, Honorable M. Harvey Taylor and the Secretary of the Senate, Honorable G. Harold Watkins, are invited to a seat in the rostrum.

The Members of the Senate will please be seated.

JOINT SESSION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR PRESIDING

The LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR. The Chair recognizes the Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate.

The SERGEANT-AT-ARMS. Mr. President, a Committee on the part of the Senate.

Mr. WEINER. Mr. President, I have the honor to present His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Honorable George M. Leader.

The LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR. The Chair has the honor and the privilege of presenting His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Honorable George M. Leader, who will now address you.

ADDRESS OF GOVERNOR GEORGE M. LEADER

GOVERNOR LEADER. Mr. Lieutenant Governor, Mr. Speaker, Members of the General Assembly:

This day, Ladies and Gentlemen of the General Assembly, is a day of reckoning, because we are going to the people with a balanced Budget program.

It is a day of reckoning because it is the day we cast accounts; the day we face the needs of the State for the next two years and contrast those needs with the revenues available to pay for them.

It is a day of reckoning because it is of necessity a time of realism, a time when all wishful thinking—executive, legislative, or public—must give way to cold hard facts.

A day of reckoning is the moment in time when truth becomes absolute; when it finally becomes clear that you cannot remain solvent if you spend more than you take in, if you make commitments against the future without the funds to make them good, if you borrow without creating a reserve fund to pay your debts when they come due.

The budget which I must submit to you today is a tally sheet for such a reckoning.

There was a custom in ancient days for disappointed princes to kill the bearers of bad news.

Perhaps it was in point, but this day at least, I am glad that it is no longer in general usage.

For, to my deep regret, I have only somber fiscal information and proposals for the Legislature, and for the people of Pennsylvania, today.

We must first make a reckoning of our experience in this current biennium which is about to end. That reckoning shows a period of disastrous financial management, in which our State will incur a deficit estimated at $74,732,533. If we had not promptly exercised strict budget controls and operational economies, this deficit would have been greater still.

It should be remembered that this huge deficit occurred even with the general sales tax that was enacted at the last session of the Legislature.

Now, as we budget for the coming biennium of 1955-57, we must make appropriations and levy taxes to cover the $75,000,000 shortage which is our inheritance from the previous Administration.

We must also recognize the simple arithmetic which dictates that if the revenues in the last biennium were insufficient by seventy-five millions to meet the 1953-55 budget; then, the revenues for the 1955-57 budget must be increased by seventy-five millions of dollars to bring into balance a budget no larger than the last one.

The hard fact is that the failure of the 1953-55 budget to match its appropriations with its actual revenue yield will force us to find $150,000,000 in new revenues now, at this session, for the next two years.

It is idle to exchange recriminations as to why this happened.

The fact is that it did happen, and it is before us.

In addition, at the beginning of the 1953-55 biennium, the State had a cash surplus of $22,786,519. That balance was wiped out and replaced by a deficit.

We now must replace it in the State's fiscal reckonings with new income obtained from additional revenue.

To summarize a rather complex set of circumstances into one sentence:

If we were to adopt to the letter and the dollar the budget which was adopted by the last session of the Legislature, and make that budget serve for 1955-57, we would be forced to find new revenues totalling more than $172,000,000.

But we cannot adopt the budget totals of the 1953-55 biennium, and still keep faith with the commitments written into law prior to this Administration. We presume that these committments represent the pledged word of the representatives of the people of Pennsylvania; some of them are absolute and binding legal commitments as well.

Let me list these mandated payments, which are now included in the budget in fulfillment of policies and pledges already made and written into law.

For support of public schools through reimbursement for instruction—which means principally teachers' salaries: $426,840,000.

This is an increase of $78,840,000 above the last State budget. The increase represents the added costs of increments in teachers' salaries coming due in this biennium on the basis of the schedule voted by the Legislature in 1951.

For support of public schools through a subsidy for pupil transportation: $29,761,000.

This is an increase of $5,359,000 above the last State budget, and is again in accordance with the requirements of existing law.

For support of public schools through rental reimbursement of public school buildings: $25,599,000.

This is an increase of $6,638,000. The appropriation represents the State's contribution to schools built and proposed under the State School Authority and the Municipal Authority Laws.

For State reimbursements of county health units: $5,432,000.

This is a long-standing commitment by the State, expressed in Act 315 of 1951, and now at long last proposed for payment as a matter of good faith and good public health practice.

For State aid to stream purification projects: $3,200,000.

This is an increase of $1,200,000—due and payable under legislation enacted in the 1953 session.

For public assistance: $138,000,000.

The increase above the 1953-55 appropriation is $15,-821,000. This recommended appropriation is in fullfillment of the State's legal obligations under legislation first enacted in 1937.

For rentals to the General State Authority: $23,000,000.

This represents an increase of $5,165,873 above the last State budget. It is a contractual obligation of the State which cannot be reduced or avoided.

For payments on debt service for the World War II bonus: $63,490,000.

This is an increase of $6,880,000, to which the full faith and credit of the Commonwealth are pledged.

The increases in these payments mandated by legislation total $125,335,873.

This $125,000,000 must be provided in new revenues, or the Legislature must be prepared to amend the laws which make these increased expenditures necessary. I doubt that a majority can be found in either House, or upon either side of the political aisle, which will be willing to make such amendments.

In the present event, we are forced to add them to the budget.

In the same event, the Legislature will of necessity be compelled to enact taxes to pay for them.

In examining the revenue prospects from existing taxes and other income sources, we find that we cannot always expect to get the same return in 1955-57 as we gained in the last biennium. An illustration is the transfer of profits from the liquor sales in State stores, which has been done on an unsystematic take-as-you-need basis. The actual working capital of the liquor stores has been depleted and payments from liquor store receipts to the General Fund will not be available in a similar amount in the biennium for which we now budget. The revenue loss will be $12,500,000.

Estimated reductions in other revenue receipts will total approximately $9,000,000.

I did not seek election as Governor of this State to live in the past, or to assess the blame for our difficulties upon my predecessors in office.

Our common task today, and in the hard days ahead, is to solve our problems, and not to whine about them.

Accordingly, I am quite prepared to divide this budget and its grave requirements between those critical troubles which make up our inheritance, and those challenges and problems which we freely admit are of our own seeking out and recognition.

On the basis of the existing tax structure, and of the budget of the last State Administration plus the mandatory increases, our need for new revenue totals nearly $320,000,000.

All of this is on our doorstep; all of this is the result of a continuous willingness to advocate and accept appropriations and commitments without the levying of taxes sufficient to support them.

I have within me a deep conviction that we are now ready to do better; that we are no longer so thoughtless as to pass to each new session and to each new Governor the failures and the evasions of the years gone by.

Certainly, I am ready to do my part, ready to assume my full share as Governor of the responsibility for a fiscal policy that will be honest, however hard.

If, as I have said, this is a day of reckoning, I trust that it will also be a day memorable because the reckoning was marked paid, paid in full.

The last session of the General Assembly passed a general sales tax.

I oppose this kind of tax because it is a wrong tax. It is a regressive tax—unfairly placing burdens of payment upon those least able to pay.

As a Senator, I voted against that tax. As a candidate for Governor, I campaigned for its elimination. As Governor, I cannot with any self-respect, with any regard for my pledged word, with any regard for the plain instruction of the people, come to you today and urge its retention, or, as many voices now advocate, urge its extension to food and clothing and its increase in rate to three or four per cent.

I expect this Legislature to let the sales tax expire.

But equally, I expect this Legislature to pass—as part of an equitable tax program—a revenue substitute for the sales tax.

The net revenue loss from the expiration of the sales tax will be $80,000,000. Its yield has been disappointing to its sponsors, and the return from it will be $35,000,000 less than the original budget estimates adopted in 1953.

In the interest of complete accuracy, it should be noted that the 1955-57 budget will benefit by $20,000,000 from the continuation of the sales tax to its legal expiration date of August 31 of this year.

Again in the interest of accuracy, it should become clear to the people of this State that the existing sales tax is no answer to the State's fiscal problems. Anyone who poses the question "Do you favor the retention of the sales tax or the adoption of some other tax?" leaving the impression that is all there is to it, is either wholly ignorant of the State's financial requirements or is practicing a planned deceit.

Our decision—for which we take full responsibility—to let the sales tax die does indeed make it necessary for us to find new revenues totalling $80,000,000 for the next two years. This amount—and it is a sizable amount—is nevertheless only one-fourth as much as those new revenues we are compelled to ask as a result of actions taken before this Administration came into being. It is only fifteen per cent of our total new revenue needs.

The total General Fund budget which I am today submitting calls for appropriations of $1,237,464,930.

We do not regard these estimates as inviolate.

The Legislature may choose to reduce some of them, or to add to them.

But they do represent our best judgment as to the needs and obligations of the Commonwealth.

There are substantial increases provided in the amount of State assistance to State Teachers Colleges, Pennsylvania State University, and to the State-aided universities and medical schools. The total increase in this category is $14,637,000.

There are substantial increases provided for our State-aided local hospitals, so that they may continue to care for patients who are unable themselves to pay their way.

The total increase in aid to such hospitals is $7,228,000.

Our State and our society have failed miserably in the past to meet the problems of mental health and mental disease. Under Pennsylvania law, the care of mental patients is a complete responsibility of the Commonwealth. Since we have the responsibility, we should man-fully have the courage to accept its weight, and summon up the imagination and determination to carry out an effective program.

We all know of the thousands of retarded children in this State who cannot gain admission to the institutions we are obligated to maintain for their care and treatment.

The mental health program is of such importance that I intend to submit a supplementary message to the Legislature outlining in detail exactly what is proposed; what it may cost, now and in the future; and what good things may be achieved.

To start a good program will cost $29,959,000 in additional appropriations.

The total increase now requested for the Department of Welfare comes to $44,895,890.

The printed budget estimates are based upon existing programs and existing State responsibilities. They do not include the cost of the economic development program which I outlined to the Legislature on March 28th.

This will cost, as you will remember, $35,700,000 in appropriations. No better money, no more necessary money, could be spent by the State than this "seed money" for our economy. We quite willingly accept responsibility for its addition to the projected appropriations, and I am gratified by the measure of bi-partisan support which has already been evidenced on behalf of the economic development program.

Our total needs for new revenue for the General Fund of the Commonwealth will come to the enormous amount of $510,604,474.

This figure does not include any allowance for additional appropriations made by the Legislature or for the administration of the tax program which the Legislature finally adopts.

I doubt that any state in our union was ever confronted with the need to raise so much in new revenue at a single session of its Assembly.

We do not have an enviable assignment, you and I. It is always popular to appropriate; it is never popular to tax.

I think that for a few minutes, before I come to my recommendations as to the tax program which we should adopt, we should discuss the basic trends which have brought us to this pass.

Primarily, they are the assumption by the Commonwealth of responsibilities which once were local responsibilities. Under the compulsion of our times, and with the consent and urging of both parties, we have found it necessary to assume on a State-wide basis the major degree of support for public education, the whole degree of support for public assistance, the entire responsibility for mental disease, an ever-increasing percentage of the highway and road system.

The State Government has entirely changed in its character.

It is for you to determine whether this trend is irreversible.

You could, the Legislature could, turn the whole responsibility for public education back to the school districts and their local taxpayers; you could turn relief back to the counties; you could exact from local tax rates the amounts now spent for the care of mental patients who after all come from a locality.

It could be truthfully said, for instance, that it is not the State that has a financial crisis.

It is public education in Pennsylvania which has a financial crisis.

The total recommended appropriations to the Department of Public Instruction come to $623,462,352. If these costs for education were not borne by the State, we would have the pleasant duty of coming before you today and recommending tax reductions of more than $100,000,000.

It can be said with equal truth that it is not the State Government which has a financial crisis, so much as we have a social and welfare crisis in Pennsylvania.

The departments of health, public assistance, and welfare call for a combined appropriation in State funds of $380,514,552.

Here again, if the State should decide that these social services were none of its concern, that local communities could care for their welfare needs as they did under the Elizabethan poor law, this State Government would be easily financed.

But I think we are all realistic enough to know that these roll-backs to the past are not going to happen.

We have been elected to administer the present.

Having sought election, we cannot now shrink from our duties.

Consequently, I have not looked for an easy refuge in any pretense that taxes are a legislative responsibility and that the Governor may present his estimate of needs and duck a recommendation of taxes to finance those needs.

Instead I do now recommend a tax program to the Legislature which will finance the expediture budget I have submitted—and finance it equitably, fairly, and in full accordance with the platform upon which I ran, in accord with the established principles of my Party, in accord with every word I have spoken in public or in private. Obviously, it is a tax program which I believe will be in the best interests of the people of the State.

The principle of this program is the sound principle of ability to pay.

It has been shaped within the limitations of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

Its core is an income tax, an income tax that will fall upon every classification of income earned or unearned.

We have long classified income in this State as a subject of taxation. We did that when we first taxed corporate income and did not tax personal income.

I now propose a tax program that will carry forward this principle of classification of income as follows:

Net income derived from long term capital gains. To be taxed at a rate of six per cent per year. Estimated biennial yield, $34,250,000.

Net income derived from dividend payments. To be taxed at a rate of five per cent per year. Estimated yield, $56,750,000.

Net income derived from interest, rents and royalties. To be taxed at a rate of four per cent per year. Estimated yield, $42,000,000.

Net income derived from the operation of a business or the practice of a profession. To be taxed at the rate of two per cent. Estimated yield, $83,200,000.

Net income derived from all other sources, including employment. To be taxed at a rate of one per cent. Estimated yield, $194,800,000.

The total yield from this system of classified income tax is estimated at $411,000,000. This estimate is based upon a collection system which gives the taxpayer the normal business and professional expense deductions as granted under the Federal Income Tax Law, and gives the employed person the right to a cost-of-earning deduction, plus a deduction of all local taxes, which may be an actual itemized statement or a flat claim of $1,000, whichever is the higher.

I submit this proposed tax schedule to the Legislature as a tax which can be readily collected, which is simple for the taxpayer whose return will follow the Federal classifications, and which is based upon ability to pay.

It is not a graduated income tax because the Constitution forbids us to levy a graduated income tax.

It does differentiate between classese of income on those good grounds of public policy which are to be found in comparative ability to pay.

It is in proper counter balance with the recent changes in the Federal tax system which have conspicuously favored income from investments as against income from employment.

Our people have already been exposed to extensive misrepresentations that this tax would fall most heavily upon our wage earners. I submit that this is a deliberate attempt to mislead them. The impact of this tax program falls most heavily on those best able to pay; more than half of the anticipated revenues come from investment income and business and professions. I have kept faith with the great mass of our people who subscribe, with me, to a tax philosophy that our higher income groups should pay a proportionately higher share of the cost of Government. I shall hold fast to that philosophy.

To raise the additional revenues which are required above the yield of the classified income tax, I recommend:

1. That the corporate net income tax rate be increased by one per cent. Estimated yield of the increase, $52,800,000.

2. That the gross receipts tax on public utilities be increased from 14 mills to 24 mills. Estimated yield of the increase, $18,500,000.

3. That companies furnishing natural gas be made subject to the gross receipts tax on public utilities, at the new rate of 24 mills. Estimated yield, $11,880,000.

4. That the tax on bank shares be repealed and banking corporations be made subject to the corporate net income tax at the new rate of six per cent. Estimated net increase in yield, $3,500,000.

5. That Federal savings and loan associations, mutual savings institutions, building and loan associations, and cooperative banks be made subject to the corporate net income tax. Estimated yield, $5,100,000.

6. That the corporate net income tax statute be amended to make dividends received by corporations taxable to the same extent that they are taxable under the Federal Income Tax Law. Estimated yield, $3,000,000.

7. That the net eight mills tax on the gross premiums paid to domestic stock insurance companies and to mutual life insurance companies be reinstated. Estimated yield, $7,500,000.

8. That a license fee for the privilege of storing natural gas in Pennsylvania be enacted, to be collected at the rate of one cent for every thousand cubic feet of gas withdrawn. Estimated yield, $3,000,000.

9. That the rate of the inheritance tax for non-dependent lineal heirs be raised from two to five per cent. Estimated yield, $12,800,000.

I also suggest to the Legislature that it now begin the job of clearing away some of the brush that has grown up around our tax system in Pennsylvania.

Specifically, I recommend the elimination of the following hodgepodge of taxes:

1. The tax on corporate loans.
2. The tax on gross receipts of motor carriers.
3. The gross receipts tax on private bankers.
4. The stock transfer tax.
5. The tax on income of agricultural coperative associations.
6. The tax on membership of rural electrification associations.

With the exception of the tax on corporate loans, these yield relatively little revenue. They are burdensome in the paperwork they force on both the taxpayer and the State, and generally are part of a hodgepodge unrevised system of taxation into which we are now attempting to bring order.

The total loss of revenue to be expected from the repeal of the taxes I have just listed is $3,513,000.

As I have already said, I urge the repeal of the tax on bank shares because banking corporations should become subject to the corporate net income tax. The same reasoning leads to a recommendation that the existing tax on the net earnings of mutual savings institutions and similar agencies should be also repealed, and these organizations also brought under the corporate net income tax.

Further, I recommend the repeal of the excise taxes on both domestic and foreign corporations. These taxes present a financial and a psychological handicap to the development of new businesses in Pennsylvania, and to the expansion of existing enterprises. The revenue loss will be $4,500,000.

In all, we are able to recommend repeal of nine nuisance taxes, chiefly affecting business, and thus contribute substantially to the simplification of our tax structure, while increasing substantially our revenues from remaining business tax sources.

On the basis of the tax schedule I now submit, the revenue yield to the Commonwealth in the next biennium will be $1,358,288,000. This will finance the General Fund Budget and the proposed economic program which together total $1,273,000,000. It will pay off the $75,000,000 deficit of the preceding Administration. It will leave a balance of $10,000,000 for additional appropriations that may originate in the Legislature to finance the collection of taxes and other legislatively mandated appropriations.

The budget will be thoroughly in balance.

We will take the turn of the road that leads to solvency, and abandon the skid row alley that has been leading our State to the equivalent of bankruptcy in its public finances.

Like any human instrument, this program is, of course, not perfect. No one in this Administration will be so obstinate I hope, or so full of the pride of authorship, as to refuse to accept modifications and improvements.

But in its basic principles, this program is sound and fair.

It is not a soak-the-rich tax program.

It is not a soak-the-poor tax program.

It is not a soak-business program.

It has no prejudice, or special target.

It recognizes the fact that our new revenue needs come to $25 a year for every man, woman and child in Pennsylvania. It attempts to distribute the burden broadly, but to distribute it in relationship to ability to pay.

I fully expect the great debate to be between those who accept this program in its general outlines, and those who will argue for an increase in the sales tax rate to three and three-quarter per cent with a removal of all exemptions except food bought for home consumption.

Such a three and three-quarter per cent sales tax schedule would cost practically every employed person more than he will pay under the income tax proposed. Every fact we can find, every statistic as to the average Pennsylvania family, shows this beyond a doubt.

Under the income tax schedule that is proposed, a typical family with an annual income of $4,000 would pay $30 to the State.

Under the increased sales tax, figured at three and three-quarter per cent, that same family would pay $56 to the State.

This same disparity runs up and down the income scale. Of course, the lower the family income, the more oppressive the sales tax becomes.

I think our people can count, and even if they pay the sales tax in driblets, they will know from their household books what it is costing them.

Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes said that "Taxes are the price we pay for a civilized society."

He was right, but that doesn't prevent a tax debate in a free country from verging into savagery.

I accept the fact that this will be a hard, a savage fight, but the Governor, at least, will not lose his sense of proportion. I expect to pound the facts home at every opportunity, and I expect those who campaigned with me to keep their word as I propose to keep mine. And I expect the facts to prevail, as they always do when they are sufficiently understood.

In addition to the portions of the State budget financed by the General Fund, there are—as the legislators know—special services of the State financed under either Constitutional or statutory provisions by special taxes and licenses.

The largest of these special services is the Motor License Fund which is financed by the taxes on liquid fuels, by the motor license charges, by the charges for operators' licenses, and by grants-in-aid from the Federal Government.

I will submit a supplementary message explaining in detail our proposals for an improved and accelerated highway maintenance and construction program, and for increased distribution of highways funds to the localities for the improved maintenance of rural roads and urban streets.

The Highway Department budget as submitted calls for apropriations of $589,241,648.

To finance this budget, I recommend an increase in the liquid fuels tax of one cent per gallon. The estimated yield from this increase in the gasoline tax is $52,000,000 for this biennium. I recommend further that the motor vehicle license payment for passenger cars be increased from $10 to $15. The estimated yield in revenue will be $29,000,000. I recommend finally that the motor vehicle license fees for trucks be increased along their whole range, to a new series of charges rising from $20 to $300. The estimated yield in new revenue is $18,000,000.

We all know, and I am sure we all agree, that the need for improved highways is great and always growing; that we need new and better highways now. To get them, we must be prepared to pay their cost. No one has a more direct return in service from the taxes he pays than the motorist and trucker.

The other special fund budgets are:

The Fish Fund	$4,546,224
The Game Fund	9,056,439
The Banking Department Fund	1,950,022
The Milk Control Fund	933,500
The State Farm Products Show Fund	390,903

Now, you have the budgetary facts as we see them and the solutions we propose.

In looking toward the future, I would suggest these things.

First. That we make a firm decision as to what are local and what are State responsibilities in the public affairs of Pennsylvania, and that all of us—State Government and local agencies of government—organize ourselves to met our responsibilities supremely well.

Second. That we abandon the pretense of temporary taxes in the State's tax structure, and have the hardihood to enact a tax program with the honest admission that it has come to stay unless changing circumstances and Constitutional amendments provide the opportunity for constructive alteration.

Third. That the process of State budgeting be made more intelligent and intelligible by the passage and adoption of the Constitutional Amendment providing for annual sessions of the Legislature.

Fourth. That this session of the Legislature begin the long process of submitting to the people an amendment to the Constitution which will permit us to adopt the fairest of all tax systems—the graduated income tax.

As to the grave matters before us, it seems to me that the one thing which the people will not forgive is a prolonged deadlock—an impasse which will cripple the State financially, drive use further into deficits by delaying revenues, exhibit the weakness in Pennsylvania which we are so quick to condemn in other free countries where party strife and divisions paralyze the democratic process.

I recognize the natural ambition, the natural function of opposition, which now lies in the other party.

If we had a majority in both houses, I would urge my fellow Democrats to accept their responsibility, to take their lumps, and let the opposition enjoy its freedom from the cares of office and the State.

We Democrats have been in the minority so often that we are ready—always ready—to let the other party revel in what to them are the unaccustomed pleasures of free-wheeling.

But the voters of Pennsylvania did not so decree.

They divided the responsibility between a Democratic House, a Democratic Governor, and a Republican Senate.

Accordingly, the financial plan we fashion must sometime, somehow, someplace in this session be a work of common consent and mutual repsonsibility.

I must therefore ask my Republican colleagues to remember their share in the affairs of the Commonwealth. After they have had their fun and made their speeches, they too must soberly participate in these decisions of State and accept with us a common devotion, above partisanship, to the affairs which the people have entrusted to us.

This is not a time, it cannot be a time, for anyone of us to worry about his political future. I am quite ready to lay mine on the block.

It is a time for us to worry about the future of Pennsylvania.

And I have made this pledge to myself—that I will, under no circumstances, be party to passing on to my successor in this office a structure of State finance that is built of straw.

That, I believe, is a resolve that as honorable men and women you all share equally with me.

Let us then get to the hard task before us.!

GEORGE M. LEADER

The LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR. Governor Leader, on behalf of the Members of the General Assembly, I want to thank you for your splendid message and to assure you that all phases of that message will receive our careful consideration.

The Committee on the part of the Senate and the House will now escort his Excellency the Governor of the Commonwealth to his chambers.

The purpose for which the Joint Session of the General Assembly was convened having been accomplished, the Chair now declares the Session adjourned.

The Senators will please re-assemble in the Senate Chamber.

The SPEAKER (Hiram G. Andrews) IN THE CHAIR

JOINT SESSION PROCEEDINGS PRINTED IN LEGISLATIVE JOURNAL

Mr. WHEELER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the proceedings of the Joint Session of the Senate and House of Representatives held this day be printed in full in the Legislative Journal.

The motion was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The receipt of the 17th Biennial Budget and the Supplement thereto is hereby acknowledged.

DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS

The SPEAKER. Immediately after adjournament of the House there will be a Democratic Caucus.

The Chair requests the cooperation of the House to complete the business of the House by 5:00 o'clock.

L. 1044) entitled "An act to authorize and provide for the transfer and retransfer of person or persons confined in any penitentiary prison workhouse house of correction or any other institution for adult prisoners under sentence of law to some other prison penitentiary workhouse house of correction or other institution for adult prisoners" providing for the transfer and retransfer of certain persons confined in county jails or institutions in counties of the seventh and eighth classes and providing for the payment of expenses of transfer retransfers and the maintenance of certain prisoners

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The act of July 11 1923 (P. L. 1044) entitled "An act to authorize and provide for the transfer and retransfer of person or persons confined in any penitentiary prison workhouse house of correction or any other institution for adult prisoners under sentence of law to some other prison penitentiary workhouse house of correction or other institution for adult prisoners" is amended by adding at the end thereof a new section to read

Section 6 (a) The Department of Justice of this Commonwealth upon petition of the superintendent or official in charge of any prison jail or other institution for adult prisoners located in and maintained by any county of the seventh or eighth class may authorize subject to the approval of the court of quarter sessions of the county wherein the jail is located the transfer to another prison penitentiary or other institution for adult prisoners of any prisoner convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree by jury verdict if (1) the prisoner has not been sentenced by the court and (2) the place wherein he is confined lacks the accommodations for his proper care custody control and safety

(b) The prisoner shall be confined in the instiution to which he has been transferred pending further proceedings If his presence is required in the court wherein he was convicted for any reason the department may retransfer him to the county jail or institution upon order of the court When the presence of the prisoner is no longer required in the county wherein convicted he shall be returned to the prison penitentiary or other institution for adult prisoners upon order of court wherein he was convicted

(c) The petition shall include (1) the name of the prisoner (2) the crime for which convicted (3) the date of the verdict and (4) the reasons why the prisoner should be transferred or retransferred A copy of the petition shall be sent by registered mail to the county commissioners of the county from which the prisoner was committed and to the county commissioners of the county to which the prisoner is transferred or retransferred

(d) The superintendent or other official in charge of the prison to which the prisoner is transferred or retransferred under the provisions of this section shall immediately give notice in writing to the county commissioners of the county in which the prisoner was convicted and to the clerk of the court of the county in which the prisoner was convicted which notice shall be filed and entered on the records

(e) The expenses of transfer and retransfer and maintenance of the prisoner shall be borne by the county in which the prisoner was convicted and shall be paid to the authorities having custody of the prisoner

Section 2 This act shall take effect immediately

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Section 2 Any persons issued a check between May 24 1944 and March 29 1946 both inclusive who did not present the check for payment may present a claim for the payment of such check to the Department of the Auditor General for the purpose of examining and adjusting such claim in the manner provided by sections 306 405 and 1003 of the act of April 9 1929 (P L 343) known as "The Fiscal Code"

Section 3 If the Auditor General and State Treasurer determine that a moral claim exists against the Commonwealth for payment of the check and that such claim or claims are not adjustable or recoverable against the Commonwealth under existing law they shall make a finding to that effect and shall fix the sum which in their opinion will compensate the claimant for nonpayment of the check

Any amount so fixed by the Auditor General and the State Treasurer shall be payable from the appropriation hereinbefore made by requisition in the manner provided by law To each such requisition shall be attached the findings of the Auditor General and the State Treasurer

Section 4 If the Auditor General and the State Treasurer should for any reason refuse to grant a claim authorized to be made by this act the claimant shall have the right to appeal to the Board of Finance and Revenue and from the decision of that board to the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County in the manner prescribed by law

Section 5 No statute of limitations or other limitations as to time prescribed by law shall apply to or limit a claim made pursuant to the provisions of this act

Section 6 This act shall take effect June 1 1955

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

NOT VOTING—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House of Representatives has passed the same without amendment.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will return to page 11 of today's calendar, Bills on Third Reading.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 532, as follows:

An Act relating to baseball basketball bowling football and hockey on Sunday in Philadelphia prohibiting these sports on Sunday before two o'clock post meridian and after that hour unless the electors of the city are in favor of the same and in certain cases a license has first been secured from the city providing for a referendum to ascertain the will of the electors and for the enactment and repeal of licensing ordinances and resolutions in accordance therewith providing penalties and repealing inconsistent laws

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I looked over this bill last evening after the amendments were inserted, and I still believe that the title of the bill is defective. If it would be all right with the Chair and particularly with the sponsor of this bill, I would like if possible to pass this bill over in order if it meets with the approval of the other side, until we straighten this bill out.

The SPEAKER. For the information of the Minority Leader, the Chair would say, as the gentleman from Philadelphia would say, were he in the Chair, that the only procedure proper at this time is a motion to postpone.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the third reading postponed calendar.

Mr. AMARANDO. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 582, as follows:

An Act concurring with the State of New Jersey in revoking in part Paragraph First of the Compact between the State of New Jersey and this Commonwealth dated April 26 1783 and ratified by the act approved the 20th day of September 1783 (2 Smith's Laws 77) entitled "An Act to ratify and confirm an agreement made between commissioners appointed by the legislature of the state of New Jersey and commissioners appointed by the legislature of the state of Pennsylvania for the purpose of settling the jurisdiction of the river Delaware and islands within the same" and accepting the terms and conditions of Chapter 443 of the Public Laws of 1953 of the State of New Jersey relating to the construction the payment of land damages for land taken by eminent domain in New Jersey costs and expenses and the payment of taxes to New Jersey municipalities on land acquired in New Jersey for the purpose of constructing if and when the General Assembly of this Commonwealth shall authorize construction (but within fifty years from the effective date of this act) a storage dam across the Delaware River at or near the area known as Wallpack Bend and a reservoir above such dam or to construct a diversion dam across the Delaware River at or near Yardley or Brookville or both such storage dam or reservoir and such diversion and authorizing the Governor to apply on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to the Congress of the United States for its consent to the agreement which this act and Chapter 443 of the Public Laws of 1953 of the State of New Jersey will constitute

Whereas on December 30 1953 the Governor of the State of New Jersey approved Chapter 443 of the Public Laws of 1953 of the State of New Jersey which reads as follows

"An Act concerning the construction and maintenance of certain dams and a storage reservoir across and in the Delaware river and of certain reservoirs in and immediately adjacent to the said river for the purpose of impounding the waters of said river to provide a supply for domestic commercial and industrial purposes and compensation flow providing for the giving of authority to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or through it to any commission or other public body or municipality singly or collectively designated by the Legislature of said Commonwealth to construct and maintain said dams and reservoir and use of water impounded therein for said purposes as a public project subject to certain terms conditions and limitations providing for participation by the State of New Jersey in the said project granting to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or its authorized agency the right to acquire property in New Jersey for the purposes of this act providing for the exercise of the power of eminent domain in connection with said project by the New Jersey State Department of Conservation and Economic Development granting certain powers to and imposing certain duties upon said department in connection with said project prescribing the procedure for condemnation providing for the inoperation of the act unless and until the Legislature of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania shall enact into law legislation consistent with the terms of this act and revoking in part (subject to Pennsylvania's concurrence) the compact between New Jersey and Pennsylvania dated April twenty-sixth one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three and ratified by the act entitled 'An act to ratify and confirm an agreement made between commissioners appointed by the Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania and commissioners appointed by the Legislature of the State of New Jersey for the purpose of setting the jurisdiction of the river Delaware and islands within the same' passed May twenty-seventh one thousand seven hundred and eighty-three (P L 1783 chap XX 2d sitting)

"Whereas Litigation is pending in the United States Supreme Court between the State of New York the City of New York the State of New Jersey and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania relative to the use of the Delaware river as a source of public water supply and

"Whereas The State of New Jersey has claimed the right to divert a volume of water from the Delaware river based upon its prior diversion through the Delaware and Raritan canal and

Whereas The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has indicated that it will contest this State's diversion of said waters for public water supply without compensation flow releases and

Whereas The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has agreed not to contest this State's right to divert a volume of water equivalent to one hundred million gallons per day out of the Delaware basin for domestic commercial or industrial purposes without any requirement for compensation flow releases if the State of New Jersey enacts the following mutually advantageous legislation and

"Whereas It is proposed that the United States Supreme Court will retain jurisdiction over diversions from the Delaware river by either State and

"Whereas It is desirable that the water resources of the Delaware river be made available to meet the water needs of the State of New Jersey and

"Whereas The city and State of New York have proposed substantially increased minimum flows of the river to be provided by them upon the completion of their present reservoir construction and the proposed dam and reservoir at Cannonsville New York all under the jurisdiction of the United States Supreme Court therefore

"Be it enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey

"1 Subject to the provisions of this act authority is given to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or through it to any commission or other public body or municipality singly or collectively designated by the Legislature of said Commonwealth to construct and maintain a storage dam across the Delaware river at or near the area known as Wallpack Bend but above the confluence with Flatbrook and including the works and appurtenances of said dam and to maintain the reservoir above said dam for the purpose of impounding the waters of said river to provide a supply of water for domestic commercial and industrial purposes and compensation flow Such construction and maintenance shall be deemed to be a public project for the benefit of New Jersey and Pennsylvania The authority to construct such reservoir hereby conferred shall expire unless sooner exercised fifty years after the effective date of this act

"2 (a) The entire cost of such construction and maintenance shall be borne by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or by said commission or public body or municipality but the State of New Jersey shall be entitled to become a participant in the said project and acquire a proportionate interest therein not to exceed a thirty per centum (30%) interest by paying to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or to said commission or public body or municipality immediately upon the completion of the project such proportionate amount of the cost of the project and thereafter from time to time the proportionate cost of maintaining the project

"(b) The county of Sussex in the State of New Jersey shall have the right to divert from the Wallpack Bend reservoir for the water supply of its municipalities a quantity of water not exceeding 25 million gallons daily and shall pay for the quantities diverted the average production cost thereof calculated by sound accounting principles provided that if the State of New Jersey shall have participated in the construction of the project any water diverted by the county of Sussex shall be taken out of New Jersey's proportionate share of the water and the county of Sussex shall make its payments therefor solely to the State of New Jersey

"3 Any such reservoir so constructed and maintained shall at all times be made available for fishing and recreation subject only to reasonable rules regulations and license fees to be adopted by the State of New Jersey applicable to that section of the reservoir within its territorial limits and by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania applicable to that section of the reservoir within its territorial limits Each State shall have the right to erect and maintain publicly owned recreational facilities on its respective side of the reservoir and to provide reasonable access thereto in conformity with such reasonable rules and regulations

"4 No work upon any such project shall be commenced by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or said commission public body or municipality until copies of the plans and specifications for such work shall first be filed with the New Jersey State Department of Conservation and Economic Development

"5 In the event that the State of New Jersey shall elect to become a participant in any such project as in section two of this act provided the State of New Jersey shall be entitled to withdraw water from said reservoir or said river or both for domestic commercial and industrial purposes and compensation flow according to the proportion of its interest but subject to any restrictions that may be imposed by decree of the Supreme Court of the United States Any restrictions upon such taking which may be imposed upon New Jersey by decree of the Supreme Court of the United States shall not affect the right of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to construct the reservoir and diversion dam authorized herein

"6 Authority is also given to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or through it to any commission or other public body or municipality singly or collectively designated by the Legislature of said Commonwealth to construct and maintain a diversion dam across the Delaware river at or near Yardley or Brookville Pennsylvania with necessary appurtenances for the withdrawal of a water supply from the said river

"7 In connection with the construction of any such storage dam and reservoir or any such diversion dam real property in New Jersey may be acquired by purchase or may be taken by the exercise of the power of eminent domain The power so to take shall be exercised by the

New Jersey State Department of Conservation and Economic Development or its successor hereinafter called the department and any such acquisition or taking shall be deemed to be for and shall inure to the benefit of the State of New Jersey and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania The cost of any such acquisition and the entire expense of any condemnation proceeding including the payment of awards shall be borne by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or by said commission public body or municipality provided however that if the State of New Jersey shall be a participant in the construction of the storage dam and reservoir the State of New Jersey shall bear its proportionate share of such cost and expense Before such condemnation proceeding shall be instituted the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or its authorized commission public body or municipality shall deposit with the Treasurer of the State of New Jersey for the use of the department such reasonable amount in cash or United States Government securities as shall meet with the approval of the Governor of the State of New Jersey as security for the payment of its share of cost and expense and any surplus remaining after the payment of such cost and expense shall be repaid or returned to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

"8 Upon the exercise of the power of eminent domain by the department the compensation to be paid thereunder shall be ascertained and paid in the manner provided in chapter one of Title 20 of the Revised Statutes in so far as the provisions thereof are applicable and not inconsistent with the provisions contained in this act Subject to the rules of civil practice in the Superior Court adopted by the Supreme Court of New Jersey the department may join in separate subdivisions in one complaint the descriptions of any number of tracts or parcels of land or property to be condemned and the names of any number of owners and other parties who may have an interest therein and all such land or property included in said complaint may be condemned in a single proceeding provided however that separate awards be made for each tract or parcel of land or property and provided further that each of said tracts or parcels of land or property lies wholly in or has a substantial part of its value lying wholly within the same county

"9 Upon the filing of such a complaint or at any time thereafter the department may file with the clerk of the county in which such property is located and also with the Clerk of the Superior Court a declaration of taking signed by the department declaring that possession of one or more of the tracts or parcels of land or property described in the complaint is thereby being taken by and for the use of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and State of New Jersey The said declaration of taking shall be sufficient if it sets forth (1) a description of each tract or parcel of land or property to be taken sufficient for the identification thereof and to which there may or may not be attached a plan or map thereof (2) a statement of the estate or interest in the said land or property being taken (3) a statement of the sum of money estimated by the department by resolution to be just compensation for the taking of the estate or interest in each tract or parcel of land or property described in said declaration and (4) that in compliance with the provisions of this act the department has established and is maintaining a trust fund as hereinafter provided

"10 Upon the filing of the said declaration the department shall deposit with the Clerk of the Superior Court the amount of the estimated compensation stated in said declaration In addition to the said deposits with the Clerk of the Superior Court the department at all times shall maintain a special trust fund on deposit with a bank or trust company doing business in this State in an amount at least equal to the aggregate amount deposited with the Clerk of the Superior Court as estimated compensation for all property described in declarations of taking with respect to which the compensation has not been finally determined and paid to the persons entitled thereto or into court Said trust fund shall consist of cash or securities readily convertible into cash constituting legal investments for trust funds under the laws of this State Said trust fund shall be held solely to secure and may be applied to the payment of just compensation for the land or other property described in such declaration of taking The department shall be entitled to withdraw from said trust fund from time to time so much as may then be in excess of the aggregate of the amount deposited with the Clerk of the Superior Court as estimated compensation for all property described in declarations of taking with respect to which the compensation has not been finally determined and paid to the person entitled thereto or into court

"11 Six months after the filing of the said declaration as aforesaid and depositing with the Clerk of the Superior Court the amount of the estimated compensation stated in said declaration the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and State of New Jersey without other process or proceedings shall be entitled to the exclusive possession and use of each tract of land or property described in said declaration and may forthwith enter into and take posession of said land or property it being the intent of this provision that the proceeding for compensation or any other proceedings relating to the taking of said land or interest therein or other property shall not delay the taking of possession thereof and the use thereof by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey for the purpose or purposes for which the department is authorized by this act to acquire or condemn such land or other property or interest therein

"12 The department shall cause notice of the filing of said declaration and the making of said deposit to be served upon each party in interest named in the complaint residing in this State either personally or by leaving a copy thereof at his residence if known and upon each party in interest residing out of the State by mailing a copy thereof to him at his residence if known In the event that the residence of any such party or the name of such party is unknown such notice shall be published at least once in a newspaper published or circulating in the county or counties in which the land is located Such service mailing or publication shall be made within ten days after filing such declaration Upon the application of any party in interest and after notice to other parties in interest including the department any judge of the Superior Court assigned to sit for said county may order that the money deposited with the Clerk of the Superior Court or any part thereof be paid forthwith to the person or persons entitled thereto for or on account of the just compensation to be awarded in said proceeding provided that each person shall have filed with the Clerk of the Superior Court a consent in writing that in the event the award in the condemnation proceeding shall be less than the amount deposited the court after notice as herein provided and hearing may determine his liability if any for the return of such difference or any part thereof and enter judgment therefor If the amount of the award as finally determined shall exceed the amount so deposited the person or persons to whom the award is payable shall be entitled to recover from the department the difference between the amount of the deposit and the amount of the award with interest at the rate of six per centum (6%) per annum thereon from the date of making the deposit If the amount of the award shall be less than the amount so deposited the Clerk of the Superior Court shall return the difference between the amount of the award and the deposit to the department unless the amount of the deposit or any part thereof shall have theretofore been distributed in which event the court on petition of the department and notice to all persons interested in the award and affording them an opportunity to be heard shall enter judgment in favor of the department for such difference against the party or parties liable for the return thereof The department shall cause notice of the date fixed for such hearing to be served upon each party thereto residing in this State either personally or by leaving a copy thereof at his residence if known and upon each party residing out of the State by mailing a copy to him at his residence if known In the event that the residence of any party or the name of such party is unknown such notice shall be published at least once in a newspaper published or circulating in the county or counties in which the land is located Such service mailing or publication shall be made at least ten days before the date fixed for such hearing

"13 Whenever under chapter one of Title 20 of the Revised Statutes the amount of the award may be paid into the court payment may be made into the Superior Court and may be distributed according to law The department shall not abandon any condemnation proceeding subsequent to the date upon which it has taken possession of the land or property as herein provided

"14 Whenever real property in New Jersey is acquired or taken in connection with said project the municipalities wherein such real property is located shall be compensated for the loss of tax revenue by reason of such real property being devoted to a public use by the payment to the said municipalities by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or by said commission public body or municipality or proportionately by said Commonwealth or said commission public body or municipality and by the State of New Jersey should the State of New Jersey become a participant in the project annually of an amount equal to the average annual taxes assessed against the real property during the five-year period preceding such acquisition or taking

"15 In the event that this act becomes operative as herein provided the New Jersey State Department of Conservation and Economic Development shall be charged with the duty of administering it and shall have the power to do all things necessary thereto

"16 The procedure for condemnation of lands shall be to acquire in the name of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or its authorized commission public body or municipality singly or collectively in accordance with the provisions of law in so far as such provisions may be applicable such public lands or parts thereof or rights therein and any fee simple absolute or any lesser interest interest in private property and any fee simple absolute in easements upon or the benefit of restrictions upon abutting property to preserve and protect said dam or diversion projects

"17 This act shall not be construed as a consent by the State of New Jersey to the diversion by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania of any specific volume of water from such reservoirs dam or diversion dams Any diversion by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania shall be subject to restrictions or conditions that may be imposed by decree of the Supreme Court of the United States or restrictions or conditions arrived at by compact between the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey

"18 Subject to the concurrence of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania but only if this act becomes effective in accordance with the following section Paragraph First of the compact between the State of New Jersey and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania dated the 26th day of April 1783 and ratified by the Act of May 27 1783 (P L 1783 Chap XX 2d sitting) is hereby revoked in so far as it would prevent the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or any commission or other public body or municipality singly or collectively designated by the Legislature of said Commonwealth to construct and maintain the dams and reservoir specified in this Act

"19 This act shall become effective when the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania shall prior to July first one thousand nine hundred and fifty-five by statute accept the terms and conditions of this act relating to the construction the payment of land damages costs and expenses and the payment of taxes to municipalities on land acquired for the aforesaid purposes and shall concur in the revocation of the compact of April 26 1783 to the extent provided in the preceding section"

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby concurs with the State of New Jersey in revoking Paragraph First of the Compact between the State of New Jersey and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania dated the 26th day of April 1783 and ratified by the New Jersey Act of May 27 1783 (P L 1783 Chapter XX Second Sitting) and by the Pennsylvania Act of September 20 1783 (2 Smith's Laws 77) entitled "An act to ratify and confirm an agreement made between commissioners appointed by the legislature of the state of New Jersey and commissioners appointed by the ligislature of the state of Pennsylvania for the purpose of settling the jurisdiction of the river Delaware and islands within the same" in so far as it would prevent the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or any commission or other public body or municipality singly or collectively designated by the General Assembly of this Commonwealth from constructing and maintaining the dams and reservoirs specified in Chapter 443 Public Laws of 1953 of the State of New Jersey which is hereinbefore set forth in full

Section 2 The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby accepts the terms and conditions of Chapter 443 Public Laws of 1953 of the State of New Jersey hereinbefore set forth relating to the construction of the dams and reservoir specified in that act the payment of land damages costs and expenses and the payment of taxes to municipalities of the State of New Jersey on land acquired in New Jersey for the purpose set forth in that act

Section 3 Inasmuch as this act and Chapter 443 Public Laws of 1953 of the State of New Jersey constitute an agreement between this Commonwealth and the State of New Jersey the Governor is hereby authorized to apply on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to the Congress of the United States for its consent and approval of such agreement

Section 4 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. POMEROY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I hold in my hand the Harrisburg Patriot that reports in the last 72 hours several cases of polio have been reported in the state of Pennsylvania, which means that the dreaded poliomyolitis season has commenced.

Yesterday an emergency bill was introduced in this House to immunize Pennsylvania children in the most vulnerable age group by the Salk method. Time is running against us. I strongly urge and implore this House to act as rapidly as possible on this bill and use all of its power and ability to prevent any future tragic occurrence, and to move with all speed earthly possible to protect the children of this Commonwealth against this dreaded disease.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. WHEELER asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a bill to be introduced by him.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. READINGER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, for the information of the Members of the House, the plans at present are to start on three-day weeks, working days, the week of May 2nd.

We plan also to not have the House in sessions on the 16th and 17th of May, which is primary day and the day before. But we plan to meet on Wednesday and Thursday of that week and possibly Friday. We don't want to stay in session the rest of the year and we must start working three days a week. So, will you please make your plans accordingly and be prepared to stay for business three days a week starting on May 2nd.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to address a parliamentary inquiry to the Majority Leader. When is he going to bring in the rule about additional sponsors to bills?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, soon.

Session 1955. 141st of the General Assembly.

Vol. 34. HARRISBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 20, 1955. No. 35.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

WEDNESDAY, April 20, 1955

The House met at 10:00 a. m.

The SPEAKER (Hiram G. Andrews) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend Harold J. Crouse, Pastor of the Trinity Lutheran Church, York, offered the following prayer:

God of our Fathers, it is in Thy name that we invoke Heaven's blessing and benediction upon this assembly and all its leaders and all who serve.

Most merciful Father, help us all to be true to higher standards, to choose the best instead of the worse.

O God, as we walk through unknown years we pray for light, lest we wander into a tangled way. Amidst so much that is fleeting give us a faith that grows, a love that deepens, a hope that earth itself cannot crush, and an ideal that beckons us to a life of honor and service.

We ask it in the name of Him who is Light and Truth, even Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVAL POSTPONED

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the approval of the Journal for Tuesday, April 19, 1955 will be postponed until printed.

The Chair hears none.

RESOLUTION INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

By Messrs. SARRAF, McLAUGHLIN, KAMYK, WALSH, KOLANKIEWICZ, RIGBY, COOPER, THOMPSON and VAUGHAN (Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 61

In the House of Representatives, April 20, 1955

Resolved (the Senate concurring), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania memorialize the Congress of the United States to support and enact into legislation that all United States currency shall bear the inscription "In God We Trust" and to take favorable action on House Bill No. 4661 of the 84th Congress; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the presiding officers of each house of the Congress of the United States and to each Senator and Representative from Pennsylvania in the Congress of the United States.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

SENATE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION SERIAL NO. 121

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, March 30, 1955.

The equitable distribution of the waters of the Delaware River among the states of Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey and Delaware that abut the river has been a subject of controversy for years.

The Interstate Commission on the Delaware River a few years ago made a study and presented a plan for the diversion and use of the waters of the Delaware, which plan was ratified and adopted by the states of New York, New Jersey and Delaware, but has not been ratified by Pennsylvania.

Pursuant to litigation before it, the Supreme Court of the United States has entered an order defining the rights in the Delaware River water.

In the light of this order and in an effort to proceed thereunder the state of New Jersey has adopted legislation intended to form a basis of a compact with Pennsylvania for the building of dams and reservoirs and the diversion, storage and use of water therefrom. The law adopted by New Jersey by its terms is contingent upon the acceptance of its provisions by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania on or before the first day of July, 1955.

A bill is now pending in the Senate of Pennsylvania, the purpose of which is to accept the proposal of the state of New Jersey for the allocation of water rights between these two states.

Question has been raised whether or not the proposal made by New Jersey is advantageous to this Commonwealth and whether the members of Pennsylvania's General Assembly are sufficiently acquainted with the facts involved to pass judgement at this time, therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That a Study Commission be created consisting of seven members, three of whom shall be Senators appointed by the President pro tempore, three of whom shall be Members of the House of Representatives appointed by the Speaker, and one of whom shall be a citizen of Pennsylvania, not a member of the General Assembly appointed by the Governor of the Commonwealth, and that it shall be the duty of the committee to study and examine the various plans developed for the distribution of water from the Delaware River and the effect of the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States thereon, as well as the effect of the legislation adopted by the State of New Jersey and the proposed acceptance thereof by Pennsylvania. The committee shall confer with the legislative committee and other proper persons in the states of New Jersey, New York and Delaware and shall resolve the problem equitably and impartially to all of the states affected, and be it further

Resolved, That the commission make a report with its recommendation to the Governor and to each house of the General Assembly on or before the first day of June, 1955.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

SENATE MESSAGE

TRIBUTE TO DR. ALBERT EINSTEIN

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, April 19 1955

Dr. Albert Einstein, the greatest theoretical physicist of all time, has passed away at the age of seventy-six. Though few of us are able to comprehend the full significance of Dr. Einstein's contributions to humanity, yet we realize that had it not been for the scientific genius of this one great man the world today would be far less advanced.

Author of the theory of relativity and the father of nuclear fission and electronics, Dr. Albert Einstein's genius made possible the most powerful implements of destruction ever known to man, yet he remained throughout his life one of the strongest advocates for peace among the people and the nations of the world.

Born in Germany of Jewish descent, Dr. Einstein chose the United States, with its freedom of expression and movement as his home, and bestowed upon it the bounty of his brilliance. For his contributions to science which have been instrumental in making our country the leader in this scientific age we shall be eternally grateful; therefore be it

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania pause at this time to pay tribute to Dr. Albert Einstein, the leader of science for the twentieth century, and to make known our deep feling of sorrow in the loss to humanity suffered by his death; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Miss Margot Einstein, Princeton, New Jersey.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

BILL SIGNED BY SPEAKER

Bills numbered and entitled as follows having been prepared for presentation to the Governor, and the same being correct, the titles were publicly read as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 461

An Act amending the act of June 22 1931 (P. L. 594) entitled "An act establishing certain township roads as State highways authorizing their construction maintenance and improvement under certain conditions and restrictions limiting the obligation of the Commonwealth in the construction of certain structures located on such highways conferring certain powers upon the Department of Highways and local authorities persons associations and corporations for sharing the cost of the maintenance and construction of such highways and making an appropriation to carry out the provisions of said act" changing a route in Beaver County by abandoning part thereof

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House, signed the same.

STATEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The Chair expresses the hope that this will be the last Wednesday session at which we operate on the basis of a consent calendar. The Chair must decline to operate the House unless there is a quorum.

There are pending in committees bills of immediate concern in the matter of remuneration to Members of this House. The Chair thinks we deserve higher compensation; the Chair thinks that the present Members of this House deserve during the months to come insofar as parliamentary procedure will permit higher compensation.

But the Chair assures you that the Chair will not be greatly concerned about the matter of higher compensation for Members of the House unless during the days to come we can demonstrate to all and sundry that we are actually actively on the job.

The Chair requests the gentleman from Montgomery Mr. Jones, to preside throughout the session.

Mr. THOMAS H. W. JONES IN THE CHAIR.

BILLS PASSED OVER

There being no objection

House Bill No. 620, Printer's No. 152 and

House Bill No. 698, Printer's No. 179.

were passed over at the request of the SPEAKER pro tempore.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. SPEAKER, we have been asking for months what you are up to? Who are you trying to fool? We force out you kept telling us to wait, wait, wait and we would find out.

Well, we found out yesterday. Now we know what you have been up to. You have been planning and schemeing to saddle the people with more than $600,000,000 in new taxes, in violation of your campaign pledges.

Think of it, more than $600,000,000 in new taxes, when your candidate for Governor went up and down this state in the election campaign last year, and gave the people his pledged word that he was against every tax the people didn't like.

Was he going to put on a wage tax? Oh no! Heaven forbid! That was just propaganda of those bad Republicans.

Was he going to put on a flat income tax? Oh, no! That was just some more Republican lies.

But how was he going to balance the budget? What was he going to do after he left the Sales Tax die?

Here's how he was going to do it, and he said it in Philadelphia on October 19 after a great deal of fanfare. Why he was going to reorganize the State Government, department by department, and now I am quoting his very words:

"Then and only then, would it be honest of us to propose new taxes," end quote.

Has he reorganized the state government, department by department, since he has been in office? No.

Look at his budget. You won't find any evidence or it there.

Instead of reorganizing the State Government, department by department, to make savings, Governor Leader came in here yesterday and asked for more money, millions of dollars in more money, for almost every major department.

The Governor spoke about the State's past commitments and insisted that we Republicans must help him keep those commitments.

Well the Governor and the Democratic Party has some commitments to honor too. They made a commitment with the people to save $100,000,000 in this biennium by reorganization of the State Government.

Does Governor Leader want the Republicans to help him keep that commitment? I am sure the people do.

Governor Leader and the Democratic Party made a pledge with the people not to replace the Sales Tax with a Wage Tax or a flat Income Tax.

Does Governor Leader want the Republicans to help him keep that commitment? I am sure the people do!

Earlier this week, I told you exactly what your pledges meant in terms of dollars and cents. I showed that your pledge to save $100,000,000 and to balance the budget without the Sales Tax or any substitute tax, could mean nothing less than a $936,000,000 ceiling on General Fund appropriations in the next biennium, plus whatever is needed to pay off the deficit from this biennium, which we say is $50,000,000 and you say is $74,000,000.

Instead of keeping that pledge, Governor Leader came in here yesterday and presented a budget of nearly $350,000,000 more than that.

In future weeks, I am going to go into the budget in detail. I am going to show that this budget is as phony and as deceptive as Governor Leader's campaign promises. I am going to show that the Leader Administration is still trying to fool the people in its desperate effort to justify a half billion dollar tax program that the people should never have to pay.

I am going to show that the tax Governor Leader says will fall least heavily on the little people will hit the average guy harder than he has ever been hit before.

I am going to show that the next four years will be the biggest spending spree this state has ever seen.

We Republicans are going to go over this budget item by item, department by department, and prove to the people that it is padded with pot fat.

We will demand public hearings, where we will call Dept. Heads in and let them explain to the people why they are being asked to pay out $600,000,000 more in new taxes.

We should call in the Governor and ask him why his office needs a 65 per cent increase over the amount appropriated to his predecessor.

We should call in the Secretary of Welfare and ask why he is requesting $44 million more for his department.

We should call in every department head, and every commission head and every person, that will have the spending of this money, and make them put it on the line what they are going to do with these new taxes.

Let's not be disciples of the theory of tax and spend just to stay in power.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Does the Majority Leader have any further business to bring before the House?

Mr. READINGER. No, Mr. Speaker, I do not desire to make a campaign speech today.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Does the Minority Leader have any further business to bring before the House.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I am sorry, Mr. Speaker, I will have to ask the Majority Leader to repeat what he just said.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recalls the gentleman said he was not going to make a campaign speech today.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I thank the gentleman. I did not know he was campaigning. I thought probably the Governor might be.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. There are no announcements except the Chair would like to call to the attention of the members the fact that Daylight Saving Time will go into effect prior to our next stated meeting, so the Chair hopes the Members will pay strict attention to the motion for adjournment.

ADJOURNMENT

Miss LEIBY. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until Monday, April 25, 1955 at 3:30 p.m. EST.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 10:35 a.m.) the House adjourned.

Legislative Journal.

Session 1955. 141st of the General Assembly.

Vol. 34. HARRISBURG, PA., MONDAY, APRIL 25, 1955. No. 36.

SENATE

MONDAY, April 25, 1955.

The Senate met at 2:30 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Roy E. Furman) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. HERBERT W. STROUP, Jr., Pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, Camp Hill, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray.

Our Heavenly Father, we thank Thee for the opportunity of doing important things in a world that requires important things to be done.

Give to us that insight that will allow us to do these things at their highest level, that we may hear the voice that should be heard, rather than the clatter of many voices; feel the touch of Thy hand, rather than the grasping of many hands; see the real needs of our people, rather than the seeking clamor of petty concern.

By Thy mercy, help us to be what we dreamed we wold be. In Christ's Name, we pray, Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. MAHANY and Mr. PECHAN, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

Mr. Pechan asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. PEELOR, due to illness.

He also asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. WOLFE, due to illness.

He also asked and obtained leave of absence for Mr. PROPERT, due to illness.

Senate Bill No. 136, entitled:

An Act amending the act of July 7, 1947 (P. L. 1368), entitled "An act amending, revising and consolidating the laws relating to delinquent county, city, except of the first and second class and second class A, borough, town, township, school district, except of the first class and school districts within cities of the second class A, and institution district taxes; providing when, how and upon what property, and to what extent liens shall be allowed for such taxes; the return and entering of claims therefor; the collection and adjudication of such claims, sales of real propery, including seated and unseated lands, subject to the lien of such tax claims; the disposition of the proceeds thereof, including State taxes and municipal claims recovered and the redemption of property; providing for the discharge and divestiture of certain tax sales of all estates in property and of mortgages and liens on such Bureau in each county, except a county of the first class, to act as agent for taxing districts; defining its powers and duties, including sales of property, the management of property taken in sequestration, and the management, sale and disposition of property heretofore sold to the county commissioners taxing districts and trustees at tax sales; providing a method for the service of process and notices; imposing duties on taxing districts and their officers and on tax collectors, and certain expenses on counties and for their reimbursement by taxing districts; and repealing existing laws," increasing certain fees, further providing for mail notices of the entry of tax claims, and for the distribution of excess money resulting from certain tax sales.

Whereupon,

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Roy E. Furman) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. KOPRIVER, JR., from the Committee on Elections, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 274, entitled:

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. CHAPMAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, the bill which I am about to introduce is co-sponsored by Senator Silvert, Senator Mallery and myself, and is relative to the issuance of fishing licenses free for those in mental hospitals.

Mr. President, the mental hospitals' vocational training is very important much more than drugs. The superintendents of the hospitals think that this is a very important bill in the vocational treatment of the patients under their care.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Messrs. CHAPMAN, SILVERT and MALLERY read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 330, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 2, 1925 (P. L. 448), entitled "An act relating to fish; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth," providing for the issuing of free resident fishing licenses to patients of mental hospitals.

Which was committed to the Committee on Forests and Waters, Game and Fish.

Mr. CHAPMAN read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 331, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation for the purpose of maintaining the public roads and improving and replacing bridges thereon through the Cornplanter Indian Reservation in Elk Township, Warren County, Pennsylvania.

Which was committeed to the Committee on Highways.

Messrs. WEINER and KOPRIVER, JR., read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 332, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 1, 1929 (P. L. 905), entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety; regulating the use of highways, and the operation of vehicles, tractors, street cars, trackless trolley omnibuses, bicycles, pedestrians, and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth; providing for the titling, including liens, encumbrances, and legal claims; registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof, upon payment of prescribed fees; prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue, the Department of Highways, peace officers, mayors, burgesses, magistrates, aldermen, justices of the peace, the courts and the clerks thereof, owners of vehicles, and garage keepers; providing that records are admissible as evidence; imposing upon owners, counties, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships, within the Commonwealth, liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles; imposing penalties; imposing certain costs upon counties;providing for the disposition of fines, forfeitures, fees, and miscellaneous receipts; making an appropriation and providing for refunds," authorizing the issuance of duplicate registration cards at the option of the owner, and fixing the fee therefor.

Which was committeed to the Committee on Highways.

Messrs. SEYLER and KESSLER read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 333, entitled:

An Act amending the act of January 18, 1952 (P. L. 2111), entitled "An act to provide for minimum compensation and increments for administrators and members of the faculty of State Teachers Colleges; providing for leaves of absence; imposing certain duties upon the Boards of Trustees and Presidents of State Teachers Colleges and the Superintendent of Public Instruction; and repealing inconsistent laws," increasing the minimum compensation and increments.

Which was committed to the Committee on Education.

Mr. DENT read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 334, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 1, 1929 (P. L. 905), entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety; regulating the use of highways, and the operation of vehicles, tractors, street cars, trackless trolley omnibuses, bicycles, pedestrians, and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth; providing for the titling, including liens, encumbrances, and legal claims; registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof, upon payment of prescribed fees; prescribing and limitng the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue, the Department of Highways, peace officers, mayors, burgesses, magistrates, aldermen, justices of the peace, the courts and the clerks thereof, owners of vehicles, and garage keepers; providing that records are admissible as evidence; imposing upon owners, counties, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships, within the Commonwealth, liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles; imposing penalties; imposing certain costs upon counties; providing for the disposition of fines, forfeitures, fees, and miscellaneous receipts; making an appropriation and providing for refunds," changing the provisions with respect to forms for inspection reports.

Which was committeed to the Committee on Highways.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. WEINER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. WEINER, from the Committee on State Government, reported as committed Senate Bill No. 303, entitled:

An Act amending the act of March 24, 1937 (P. L. 109), entitled "An act relating to interstate cooperation; creating the Pennsylvania Commission on Interstate Cooperation, as well as committees on interstate cooperation of the Senate and of the House of Representatives; defining the powers and duties of said commission and of said committees; and imposing duties on the Governor and the Secretary of the Commonwealth," increasing the number of the Commission on Interstate Cooperation.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. YOSKO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, since I have been a Member of the Senate, I have always advocated public hearings on the budget and other matters confronting the Legislature.

Mr. President, the fact that a Democratic Governor was elected has not altered my position. The Governor presented his budget on April 19 and, as was expected, after he presented his program a storm of controversy developed. Republicans in and out of the Legislature opened fire on him, with all of their big guns. Some Democrats, in and out of the Legislature, and I include myself, expressed the opinion that the whole plan should receive careful study before any final action was taken.

However, Mr. President, now that the Governor has presented his budget and tax program, as I said before, it is up to the Legislature to accept or revise it. In that connection, I am presenting a resolution calling for public hearings on the budget. If there is anything bad in the budget, it should be boiled out because every dollar that can be saved represents a dollar that will not have to be collected from the taxpayers.

Mr. President, in addition to hearings on the budget, the Legislature must get down to work on reorganizing the State Government to effect economies and to eliminate waste, extravagance and the overlapping of functions. The Annual Sessions bill, which already passed the House and has been tied up in the Senate Committee since February, must be released so that the question can be decided by the voters at the primary election on May 17, if that is possible. A uniform accounting system must be inaugurated as soon as possible so that receipts and expenditures can be properly recorded. The Commonwealth must operate on an accrual rather than a cash basis, so that it will be possible to determine the true financial condition of the Commonwealth at any given period. And, finally, the budget must be prepared in itemized form, and expenditure controls set up so that funds allocated for a specific purpose cannot be used for any other purpose.

Mr. President, if what I have enumerated is done, and it will not be an easy task, an equitable solution to the financial problems facing the people can be arrived at and a modern fiscal system will be functioining to guide us in the future.

Mr. President, when George Leader was campaigning for Governor last summer and fall, he pledged himself to effect economy. I am convinced, in my own mind, that George Leader meant those words when he spoke them. Since taking over the officer of Governor, after sixteen long and tedious years of mismanagement, he has been hit with the full impact of the terrible financial plight that the State is in today. A long succession of financial juggling, deficits and inefficient operation of the machinery of government has brought us to the sad plight in which we find ourselves today.

Mr. President, it is my sincere hope that in the weeks ahead it will be possible to reach the decisions which will give the people all the benefits they can possibly get, in view of the most serious financial dilemma which they face in our State Government today.

Mr. President the resolution which I am about to present I trust will be adopted and be adopted immediately. After the hearings are conducted, it will be within the province of this Legislature to reject, revise or accept the budget as presented by the Governor on April 19, 1955 and, by the same breath, I want to say that it will be our job then to provide the taxes to finance that budget.

Accordingly, Mr. President, on behalf of myself and my colleagues, Senator Dent and Senator Holland, I am presenting this resolution.

REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

JOINT COMMITTEE TO HOLD PUBLIC HEARINGS ON GOVERNOR'S BUDGET

Messrs. YOSKO, DENT and HOLLAND offered the following resolution, which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, April 25, 1955.

On April 19th, His Excellency, the Governor presented his budget to the General Assembly, together with his proposals for additional taxes to produce the revenue needed to balance the budget.

The amount of the budget is greater than that of any heretofore presented.

There is much uncertainty and possible misunderstanding over the provisions of the budget and the best means to raise additional revenue; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the Standing Committees on Appropriations of the Senate and the House of Representatives jointly hold public hearings at which all questions concerning the Governor's Budget may be inquired into for the purpose of affording the members of the General Assembly an opportunity to fully understand the proposed budget; and be it further

Resolved, That the committee make a report of their findings and recommendations to this Session of the General Assembly within thirty days.

REQUEST THAT RULE 39 BE SUSPENDED

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I have stated time and time again that the reason we have standing committees in the Senate is so that these committees may examine legislation and resolutions which are offered by the Members on the floor of the Senate. This resolution, perhaps, has a great deal of merit. I have also stated publicly that I thought hearings should be held on this budget.

However, Mr. President, due to the policy which I have seen fit to adopt, to see that resolutions such as this are sent to committee, I, herefore, object to its immediate consideration and ask that it be referred to the proper committee.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President for many years we have tried on this side to have hearings held upon the budget. We do not see that at this time, because it so happens that our Party has the Executive Branch of Government and is, therefore, responsible for the creation of the budget, why we should change our position. I might say that the entire Democratic Caucus has endorsed this resolution calling for a joint open hearing session, or sessions, by the Appropriations Committee.

Mr. President, I do not want to have a controversy on the floor with the Majority Leader as to what might happen to this particular resolution in committee. However, it is sufficient to say that we have presented this type of resolution for sixteen years, and it always has been sent to committee and here is where it has died. We have never yet been able to have, during the years, hearings upon the budget. We are just as anxious as anyone is to see to it that the budget covers the details and expenses of government that are legal and required in order that the services of government may be rendered.

Therefore, Mr. President, in order to show good faith to the people of the Commonwealth, we ask immediate consideration so that that committee knows that it is demanded of it by the Members of the General Assembly, that there be held public hearings.

Mr. President, I know full well that if we do not pass this resolution here in the Senate, we, as Senators, may be denied the opportunity to hear those who have the responsibility for presenting the figures of the budget to the Governor and to the Budget Director because, in my opinion, the House is introducing the same type of a resolution. If the Senate fails to act upon this resolution in the Senate, it may well be that the House Appropriations Committee, alone will hold the hearings, thereby depriving the Members of the Senate of an opportunity to sit with their committee and listen to the arguments, discussions or criticisms or praise, if that may be the case on the budget.

Mr. President, I would ask that the Majority Leader rescind his motion to send this to committee or his objection be recalled. Let us have the matter before us at this time. I do not think the Members of the Appropriations Committee will feel that they are being denied any of their prerogatives if we take from them the special privilege of looking at a simple resolution, easily read and easily understood.

Therefore, Mr. President, I would request that we have immediate action upon the resolution.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I believe Senator Dent has stated the best reason why we should not act upon this resolution at the present time, and that is he had the opportunity of taking his resolution up with the members of his caucus. He sated that they gave it their unanimous approval. We did not have such an opportunity and we had no reason, or no way of knowing, that such a resolution would be presented. We understood, through the press, that Senator Yosko was going to present some resolution; we did not know the exact wording of it or its context. We, on this side, would like to have the same opportunity to discuss these things in caucus as the Democrats had.

Mr. President, there seems to be no reason for taking any immediate action on this. This resolution can go until tomorrow when we can have a committee meeting. If this committee decides that they would like to have this resolution reported to the floor, we can adopt it tomorrow. There is no reason, whatsoever, for adopting this resolution right now.

Mr. President, I think it makes for bad legislation if we trot out resolutions here and take immediate action on them. I think we should have committee study and committee recommendation when we report from committee these resolutions. I have stated time and time again that with very few exceptions, any resolution which is more than just a resolution to congratulate a basketball team or to congratulate your own debating society or something such as that, I would object to its immediate consideration and ask that it go to the proper committee.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, as a member of the minority for the last sixteen years, at each Session of the Legislature I presented a resolution with Senator Yosko and Senator Dent time and time again, asking that public hearings be held by the Appropriations Committee.

Mr. President, I have never been satisfied with merely bringing the head of a department in to tell you about a number of figures which he presents and, at the same time, never explaining what the figures mean in actual service.

Mr. President, I feel that this step is a step in the right direction. As Minority Members, we asked for it and now, as Majority Members with the responsibility of the State Government, we again want to let the people know what services they are buying for the amount of money asked for in the budget. This has never been done in Pennsylvania under the Republican Party during the last sixteen years.

I think, Mr. President, that this resolution requires no study. Everyone here in the Senate has had the experience of debating these resolutions before, and I know a number of the Members on the Republican side who went with we time and time again and said that they favored public hearings on the budget and to carefully study every item in that budget and what it really represented to the people.

Mr. President, I think that the Majority Leader of the Senate is quite familiar with it, and I think it will do justice to the people of Pennsylvania to agree that this resolution be adopted immediately so the people of Pennsylvania can be advised of what their State Government is doing.

The PRESIDNT. Objection having been made to the immediate consideration of this resolution ,the resolution is referred to the Committee on Rules.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, under resolutions, before presenting this resolution I wish to make a few remarks.

Mr. President and Members of the Senate, again we are faced as we always are, every two years, with a major crisis. Long ago, those of us who have served here for a few years have learned that there is always a new crisis every Session and practically every day of the Session of the Legislature.

However, Mr. President, being the representatives of the people places upon us a duty beyond that of serving either ourselves or any particular political party. I take the position that all of us want to do what we think is right. Sometimes, though, we become confused in what is right and what appears to be right.

Historically, over the years, personally and collectively with a group of Democratic Senators, I have opposed what I called an iniquitous and obnoxious tax program and, at the same time, I have opposed a continuation of the hodgepodge system of tax assessments and collections in this Commonwealth.

Mr. President, two years ago, approximately, this Senate acted upon a bill known as the one cent sales tax. During the discussions on that tax, I pointed out that it was a tax which was unfair in that it bore most heavily upon those least able to pay. If you will recall, I tried to illustrate with examples of families, family incomes, the amount of money which would be assessed in relationship to the earnings of the families and the unfairness and inequity of the percentage of taxes paid in relation to incomes. At that time I tried, unsuccessfully also, to amend the sales tax upon the floor of the Senate to allow for certain exemptions in industrial manufacturing, mining and other activities in the Commonwealth which dealt with the consumption of a purchased article in the final product, produced at any particular plant or mine. That amendment was defeated.

Mr. President, I have many times since the passage of the act gone to the public press, and I have stated that the sales tax in Pennsylvania was deliberately and diabolically administered in such a manner as to lead the people to believe, especially the little peoples, that a sales tax was a fair and equitable method of taxation.

Mr. President, I have made a study of the rules and regulations promulgated by the Department of Revenue. I find that they are in direct contradiction to the law itself. I find, and any of you can find the same if you will take the publication known as "The Official Edition, Pennsylvania Sales and Use Tax," printed by Prentiss-Hall, Incorporated, that the law specifically states that this tax is a tax upon individual sales. I would like to read from the law:

"A tax is hereby imposed upon each separate sale of retail within this Commonwealth, which tax shall be collected by the seller from the purchaser and shall be paid over to the Commonwealth as herein provided."

Mr. President, I have searched through the act and I find there is no permission within the language of the act, or any permission in the action of the Legislature, to allow the department to make separate agreements with certain mercantile establishments in the Commonwealth to allow them to collect the tax on each and every purchase and then to pay to the State of Pennsylvania a percentage of that tax collected. We have instances on record where certain establishments in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania pay on a quarterly base seventy per cent of the tax assessed on a bulk figure. They have taken unto themselves the prerogatives of the Legislature and have legislated into the act features not contained therein.

Mr. President, they have allowed the collectors of the sales tax in Pennsylvania to make as much money out of collection, in some instances, as the Commonwealth has collected. For instance, the State of Ohio with eight and one-half million people, compared to approximately eleven million people in this Commonwealth, with a total mercantile turnover of a little over six billion dollars, as compared to approximately ten million dollars in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, is collecting something like $386,000,000 a biennium, where, in Pennsylvania, on the same ratio of tax, we would collect less than $300,000,000.

Now, Mr. President, I will tell you why that is happening. I am convinced that it was a scheme, planned in the minds of men who want to saddle the people of Pennsylvania with a three or four per cent sales tax. They have deliberately eased up on the collection and upon the application of the law in order to create the impression that this is a painless and equitable tax. The result has been, Mr. President, that the housewife, the workingman, the small-town businessman has had to pay the bulk of the sales tax in Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, under the regulations and under the law that we passed, we allowed one amendment for industry in which we said that any item which they purchased, which became finally a part of the product that they manufcatured, then that would be exempt from taxation. Let us see what the department has done with that particular section of the law.

Mr. President, this is the regulation put out by the department:

"Departments engaged in manufacturing and so forth; the sale of materials, supplies and other tangible personal property in the following departments considered as factory or processing departments are not taxable: patents, experimental, development, engineering, planning or scheduling departments of a manufacturing plant, maintenance departments and receiving departments.

"Transportation; the sale of tangible personal property consumed in transporting unfinished materials for manufacturing is not taxable. Materials, tools, fuels and other tangible personal property will be regarded as being consumed and their purchase is exempt from the tax when allowed as a Federal Income Tax deduction."

Mr. President, no manufacturing firm is paying income tax on typewriters, carbon paper, screws, nails; any of the materials that you, as an individual citizen, have to go out and pay for. The act operates entirely against the little taxpayer and for the sole benefit of the big industrial and merchant class peoples. And why do they do it? I'll tell you why, because they want to saddle upon the little fellow again a three to five per cent sales tax, and very cleverly now, they also exempt printing and allied industries such as newspapers in the State.

By so doing, Mr. President, they want to make sure that the natural atmosphere is built up to prove to big industry that this tax is painless, to prove to the merchant class that this tax is painless and to prove to the newspapers and other agencies of disseminating the news that the tax is painless. By so doing, and with this simple expediency of disregarding the law in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, they have created an atmosphere in which a sales tax has become welcome to the people in this State.

You know, Mr. President, it can be best illustrated by the events that occurred when I was a young kid back on the farm in Armstrong County. Every winter season, in November and in March, we used to butcher. We butchered the nice, big fat hogs and they were too big to wrestle with to try to stick. You know the best way to kill a hog is to stick them, and that is reminiscent of this tax bill, evidently. However, Mr. President, my father used to give me a small pan of corn and I used to drop corn in front of the big fat hog that we were going to take up to butcher, and when we got him over in the corner of what you call now a paddock—we called it a fence yard—when we got him over in the corner where Dad could swing a ten pound sledge and slug him one across the noggin and knock him out so that he could stick him without any danger, why then I quit giving him corn.

That is exactly what has happened here. They have been feeding the manufacturers and the people in Pennsylvania a little bit of corn. Now that they have him boxed into a corner, where we need approximately $500,000,000 to balance the budget, they are going to slug him over the noggin with a ten pound sledge and give him a three per cent or four per cent or five per cent sales tax and tell him how nice it will be after he is stuck.

Now, Mr. President and Members of the Senate, they went further than that. They also made little deals in the State of Pennsylvania, contrary to law, with the bottlers in Pennsylvania, with the processors in Pennsylvania that use materials for trading, packing and wrapping and all of these various items that go into selling or delivering goods. However, there is nothing in the law that exempts, for instance, a three pound bag that the man serves you a couple pounds of bananas in. He does not sell you that bag; that is part of the services and the law specifically says that it cannot be exempted. But what have they done? They have gone into the act and they have taken and written a regulation, under Regulation 212, in which they say that materials used for crating, packing and wrapping are not taxable.

Then, Mr. President, to further confuse the issue and to further make friends for the sales tax, they have turned around and said to the bottlers in this State, who do not give you the bottle, mind you—they buy the bottle and it is a retail purchase when they buy it and the law specifically says it is a retail purchase—but what do they do? They buy the bottles and fill them and deliver them, and then pick them up again and fill them and deliver them and do the same all over. However, they have come into the department and for about a month, Mr. President, they were allowed a forty-five per cent exemption on all of the purchases they made. Then finally somebody wised up and said, "Why, look, if we continue to do this, someday Johnny Dent may wake up and find out we are doing something illegal and surcharge us." So, they quit doing that particular thing in that particular field of endeavor.

Let us go further, Mr. President, and look into what is happening. You walk into a store and your bill is five dollars and, say, twelve cents or fifteen cents. We will say it is twelve cents and you lay down five dollars and fifteen cents, and the storekeeper says, "Oh, that is all right, the tax is six cents but three will do. I'll get it from some other sucker who comes in." And you know who the next sucker is, some housewife that comes in and buys a thirty cent item and has to pay one cent on it. That is how they make it up.

Now, Mr. President and Members of this Senate, I have said before on this floor, and I am going to say now, in order that there are no misunderstandings as to where I personally stand, I will not under any conditions—as an individual, I hope that I am never compelled by the House of Representatives, who must originate taxes, to be put into the position of voting for a tax that falls most heavily upon the people who work for a living. Just to give you an illustration, Mr. President, let me just cite one thing. For some reason or another they try to fool the working man. They try to tell him that a sales tax is a wonderful thing for him.

Let us see how it works, Mr. President. The average turnover for a workman on an automobile, which he uses mostly for his purposes of getting back and forth to work, and some for the pleasure of his family and his own entertainment and recreation, is a turnover of approximately three years. In other words, he has dissipated a car and used it up in three years. The normal price for a workingman's car today is about $3,000. So that means that he is using $1,000 of his income for the purchase of this vehicle. Under the sales tax, he would have to pay three per cent on this automobile purchase which means that he would pay thirty dollars every year on that single purchase alone. It means that every year he would pay thirty dollars under a three per cent sales tax to keep himself supplied with an automobile. On top of that he will pay for every piece of clothing, at least if you are going to have a sales tax that would raise the amount of money that is required in this Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, everything would have to be collected upon except food and food for home consumption. Therefore, a man with five or six little children has to go out and pay on every little dress that he buys, every little pair of shoes that he buys, every item that he buys for his own household. If he buys a television or a radio, or any of those things that every man normally expects to buy for his family, if he is a workingman he would have to pay every time that he goes out and purchases some item of that kind.

I say, Mr. President, that a man making less than $5,000 a year would have to pay a three per cent sales tax on at least sixty per cent of his income, but a man making $100,000 a year would have to pay on less than seven per cent of his income. Now, Mr. President, if there is any equity or justification in that type of a program in a great Commonwealth such as this, if somebody can convince me of it, then maybe I will change my stand. Until you can show me where the ability to pay is being served under that kind of legislation, then, I for one, will never vote for it.

The facts have proven exactly as I told you they would two years ago upon this floor, that they would administer this act in such a way that they would try to make enough friends so that they would come back two years later and ask for an increase in the sales tax. If the Republicans would have won the election you could have definitely been assured, by all I read and all I hear, that the people would have been saddled with a three to five per cent sales tax in this Commonwealth. I say to all of you right now that unless something is done to correct this direct abuse of power by the department heads, then there is no sense in the Legislature writing laws in this Commonwealth.

Therefore, Mr. President, with the permission of this Senate, I wish to present at this time a resolution and ask for its immediate consideration, although I know that it will be objected to.

SENATE RESOLUTION

REUESTING THE ATTORNEY GENERAL TO INVESTIGATE THE OPERATION AND ADMINISTRATION OF THE STATE SALES TAX ACT

Mr. DENT offered the following resolution, which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, April 25, 1955.

Whereas, the General Assembly in the year 1953 passed an act of the General Assembly, commonly called "The One (1%) Per Cent Sales Tax; and

Whereas, said act specifically states:

"A tax is hereby imposed upon each separate sale at retail within this Commonwealth, which tax shall be collected by the seller from the purchaser, and shall be paid over to the Commonwealth"; and

Whereas, the Department of Revenue, acting under the duly appointed Secretary of Revenue, did promulgate and put into force certain regulations which appear to be contrary to the intent of the Legislature; and

Whereas, said regulations have reacted against the best interests of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and have forced the payment of this tax in the main solely upon tax payers least able to pay, namely, low income groups who have had no regulation promulgated favoring their tax payments; and

Whereas, it appears that these regulations and rules and agreements have cost the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania untold millions of dollars;

Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the Attorney General immediately institute an investigation into the operation and administration of the one (1%) per cent sales tax as administered by the then Secretary of Revenue; and to immediately eliminate all rules, regulations and agreements found to be contrary to law, and to search the possibilities of making the tax payments of any taxes that were relieved illegally retroactive, and that all sums of taxes determine would be illegally forgiven; and that the then Secretary of the Department be held responsible for all rules and regulations which directly contradict the act of the Legislature.

Be It Further Resolved, That the Attorney General report to the General Assembly within the next two weeks on the results of his investigation.

REQUEST THAT RULE 39 BE SUSPENDED

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39), which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I do not see anything in this resolution that the Attorney General or the Secretary of Revenue cannot do right now without this resolution.

To follow through with my policy of having the committees study resolutions before acting upon them, I object to the immediate consideration and ask that it be referred to the proper committee.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, do we understand that the Majority Leader has now suggested that the Attorney General of the State of Pennsylvania take action against a former Collector of Internal Revenue?

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, he has taken action against a lot of people and he has not asked for my consent so far. If he would like to have my consent and adopt that as a matter of policy, why I will be glad to go over and confer with him, Senator.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, in that quaint way of his, the Majority Leader is against what he just stated, that the Attorney General has the power now, or words to that effect—I do not want to have the reporter go to the trouble of reading it, but I think in your statement that you said that this was a job for the Attorney General. Did you not say that?

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I stated that there is nothing in this resolution that empowers the Attorney General to do anything that he cannot do now.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, that is all I wanted to know. That is giving his consent, as the Majority Leader, to our Attorney General now taking action against the Secretary of Revenue.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, has this been referred to committee yet?

The PRESIDENT. It has not been, but it will be referred to committee.

Objection having been made to the immediate consideration of this resolution, the resolution is referred to your Committee on Rules.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. MAHANY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, Senator Dent has made a long speech in which he has stated many things. I remember chiefly what his father and he did about the hogs. It seems that he has not retained very much of the advice. I thought that the corn was spread last year and the sheep were led to slaughter. However, despite the fact that the election is now past, the Senate still continus to spread corn.

Mr. President, I think perhaps all this is done as a sort of smoke screen to get the people's minds off the fact that the Governor is now in somewhat of a mess with his tax program, which does not seem to be very popular.

Now, certainly, Mr. President, when the Senator talks about some three per cent sales tax which might be put upon the people, I do not know what he is talking about. We certainly have not presented any such tax program. I do not know of any Republican in the House who has presented any three per cent sales tax to be enacted. I would say to the gentleman that any tax whatsoever, whether it be a three per cent sals tax, a two per cent sales tax, or a one per cent sales tax, or a wage tax or a classified income tax or whatever they have in mind will certainly have to be the responsibility and obligation of the Democratic Party.

Mr. President, they, many times, have stated to us when we were in control that the onus of the tax program should rest upon the party in power. We felt at that time that they were right in saying that and we did accept that responsibility. Perhaps, the fact that they tried to unload their part of the responsibility on us was the cause of having this sales tax which we have now in the fashion in which it was drawn.

Mr. President, I would be the first to say that this sales tax, which we now have on the books, is certainly far from perfect. I have stated many times that it had many, many loopholes in it and many fallacies in it.

Mr. President, as you remember, in the 1953 Session when we studied this sales tax, it was picked up because I believe Representative Hewitt had presented a sales tax in the House of Representatives for many years. He had presented this one in the last Session and he had, perhaps, a certain pride of authorship in the sales tax program. When other things failed, they lifted this particular bill up and put it through the House, after much struggle and with certainly no help from any of the Democrats, and they put it over here and we took action on it.

I had several conferences with members of the Attorney General's Department and they said that perhaps there were things wrong with this bill and they told me about them. I brought in the leadership of the House, and stated that I thought we ought to make some amendments. The House of Representatives said that they had brought people on stretchers and in ambulances down to the House to vote for this bill. They said, "The Democrats didn't give us any votes; they made us bring these poor people into the House to vote for it and if you amend it and send it back, we do not think that we can get these people back in again and it would certainly, perhaps, cause their death." The fact of the matter is that since that time, Representative Watkins, who was brought in, is now deceased and for all we know, the trip that he was occasioned to take down here may have contributed a great deal to his death.

Mr. President we are not going to talk about taxes too much because we think our main job now is to examine this budget. Senator Dent has stated many times that it is up to the House to bring up a tax program to the Senate and then we will consider it. I think he made a long speech in 1951 along those lines, that this Senate should examine the tax program as produced by the House and if we do not like it, we will so state and we will turn it down and let them come up with another one. I think that that should be our present policy.

Whether or not the House and the Democratic leadership there, and the Democratic Governor, decide to come up with a sales tax or whether they decide to run through this income tax, or whatever tax program they expect to run through, I say that that is the Governor's responsibility and the responsibility of the Democratic Members of the House. The Governor has so stated in his Budget Message that if they were in control, and they are in control, in the House then it would be up to them to have the responsibility for the tax program. Over here in the Senate, the Democrats are not in the position of responsibility because they are not in the Majority. Therefore, the Governor asked us, as Republican Senators over here, to aid in formulating the tax program when it comes over here and to aid in every way we can with the Democrats here to do something about whatever tax program is passed by the House of Representatives.

Mr. President, when Senator Yosko presented the resolution which he did a little while ago, he referred to the many years of Republican mismanagement. Well that might be some statement to get somebody off the hook. I do not know of any great deal of mismanagement that has been going on here. Our biggest trouble has been that we have appropriated a lot of money for various things and yet have not had the courage to come up with a tax program to pay the bill for the appropriations which we have voted for. That includes Governor Leader, who was then Senator Leader and was a Member of this Senate for four years. He sat over there on that side of the aisle and voted many, many times for appropriations, but yet refused to vote for any new taxes to pay for these appropriations. He now asks us to take a different position than he did when he was a Member of this Senate.

I say that we are willing to forget and forgive all that, if they do not keep pounding us over the head with a lot of false charges and stating that we had a lot of mismanagement. Instead of making generalizations such as that, I think that they ought to come up with specific things. If there is any mismanagement, I think they should show where it has been and not just make a shotgun charge of mismanagement by the Republican Administration.

Mr. President, certainly there were many rules and regulations which were promulgated by the Department of Revenue in connection with this sales tax. It was quite indefinite; the tax was ambiguous. There were many, many things which the people did not know whether they were taxable or whether they were not taxable. When they exempted clothing, did that mean neckties, did it mean belts, did it mean suspenders, did it mean men's garters? What did it mean? Therefore, the Department of Revenue had to come up with some rules and regulations. As the Senator knows, during the first year or two of any new tax program you have to go through a trial and error method.

Mr. President, if the new Secretary of Revenue finds that any of these rules and regulations which have been formerly promulgated by the outgoing administration were wrong, then it is up to him to cancel them from the law. The fact of the matter is, if he wants to, he can cancel the whole thing off if you people want to do that. If you want to get rid of this sales tax mess it can be very easily done. All you have to do is bring in a bill and repeal the act, and then you will not have to talk about it anymore.

I say, Mr. President, that we are certainly wrong in this Chamber in taking a lot of time talking about tax programs. Let us let the House wrestle with it for awhile. When they bring it over here, we can then discuss it.

The House, you know, Senator Dent, is very jealous of their high prerogative of being the body which initiates tax programs. When we, as Senators, go over there they remind us that they are the Upper House and not us, because they are the only body of the Legislature that can initiate tax programs and, therefore, they should be called the Upper House. So, let us let the Upper House, as they like to call it over there, wrestle with this tax program and we, in the meantime, will cooperate with you in going over this budget, and we will try to pare it down to its bare minimum and try to—I do not like to use the word—cut the "fat" out of it because that is the word that you folks usually use over there. You have a different phrase for it now, but we will go along with saying that we will cut out any unnecessary expenditures which the Governor has inadvertently placed in his budget. We will be happy to cooperate with you during the intervening weeks for that purpose while the House is trying to get through this tax program, whatever it may be.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President the gentleman, I am glad of one thing, reminded me that the sales tax bill was introduced by a gentleman by the name of Hewitt. As I look over the House History, I find that Mr. Hewitt has another sales tax bill in for five per cent. I would not like the same thing to happen that he said happened by accident two years ago, that they suddenly picked it up and passed it.

Mr. President, I am not discussing whether the House puts in one of the other types of tax bills. I am discussing the plan, and scheme and deliberate attempt to create in Pennsylvania the impression that a sales tax is an equitable method of raising revenue. I tried to point out specifically that the only persons paying any attention to the sales tax bill are the little unorganized home owners and housewives in the small communities and large communities, who go in and are assessed one penny or two pennies or three pennies or more, while those who are in a better position to pay have been exempted by illegal exemptions. That is what I tried to point out. The best place to take that kind of an argument is on the floor of the Senate.

Now, Mr. President, in so far as there being a mess here, which the gentleman on the other side said he found that the Governor was in a mess, I would appreciate, and I think all of us appreciate, the fact that the Governor could not have created the mess in the three months that he has been Governor. Therefore, if there is a mess, which the Majority Leader says the Governor finds himself in, then it must have been created by those who preceded him.

Mr. President, he put his finger on a very sore spot. He said that the Legislature, over the years, has lacked the courage to pass the necessary revenues to pay the bills. Mr. President, the record will show that the Democratic Caucus, through me as their spokesman, offered a tax program to pay for the soldiers' bonus. It was turned down by the Republican Majority. The record will also show that we fought bitterly against tying the hands of future Legislatures in the matter of increasing increments for schoolteachers over the years without providing the necessary funds in revenue.

Yes, Mr. President, we fought tax bills on the floor of the Senate, but at no time was there ever a tax bill promoted or advanced by the Republican Party to pay for the soldiers' bonus, specifically, or to pay for the school teachers increments. Those are the two items today, Mr. President, and will be for the next two bienniums, which will cause increased taxation upon the people of Pennsylvania because under Mr. Duff, who so proudly went out over the State and said that he had given the soldiers a bonus and the schoolteachers a raise, we passed legislation which compelled the future Legislators to meet the bills and we are guilty of committing the crime of creating the bills without paying for them.

Therefore, Mr. President, I can agree that we lacked the courage, but let us say, specifically, that the Democratic side did not lack the courage because contrary to the usual rules of political procedure we, as the Minority, offered tax legislation to pay for the commitments of the General Assembly.

Mr. President, I have an article here, put out by the Pennsylvania State Chamber of Commerce, and it is called the "Business Slants on Legislative Week." I would like to wind up by reading what they call the quote of the week. It is credited to Governor Leader and I quote:

"Like any human instrument, this program is, of course, not perfect. No one in this admiinistartion would be so obstinate, I hope, or so full of the pride of authorship as to refuse to accept modifications and improvements."

Mr. President, I say to all of you here at this time, Governor Leader will accept any recommendations that you as the Majority, or this side as the Minority, can offer to him that will in any way, under any conditions, relieve the load upon the taxpayers and make for better government.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. MAHANY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I would just like to refresh Senator Dent's memory relative to what happened with the soldiers' bonus bill when it reached the Senate floor.

Mr. President, as I recollect it, we did make some effort to tie in a tax program to that bill, which would have paid it. As you will remember, at that time the veterans groups were very much opposed to it. I think they not only worked on the Members on this side of the aisle, but they also worked on the Members on the Democratic side of the aisle. They stated that we should either give them this bonus or else not, and let the people decide just on the question as it was submitted on the ballot as to whether the people were in favor of paying the soldiers a bonus or whether they were not, and not try to tie a tax package onto it because they might be in favor of giving the soldiers a bonus, but they would not be in favor of that particular type of tax which we placed on it as a string to it.

I want to say this, Mr. President, to the Senator. The present Administration has now been in power since the middle of January or thereabouts. The Secretary of Revenue no doubt has been on the job for a period of about four months, and certainly he has had opportunity to correct any wrong rulings or erroneous rulings which have been made by the outgoing administration. If there is anything wrong with this sales tax or the rulings on it, and he has it within his power to change those rulings, I would suggest that he do so. It seems to me that they have been quite busy in changing the personnel of the people who are collecting the tax, rather than changing the rulings. If they would spend as much time on the latter as they do on the former, I am quite sure we would not have all these beefs about the rulings.

I want to also say to Senator Dent, about this car. He drives a Lincoln, as I remember, and he has a $3,000 car down here that the average man is going to purchase and then he is going to depreciate it over a period of three years and that means $1,000 each year. Some fictitious sales tax figure of three per cent would amount to $30.00 a year. His figures seem to be all right, but I do not believe that the average little fellow pays $1,000 each year for his car. I do not know what the Senator pays to replace his old Lincoln with a new Lincoln, but my good friend, Senator Pechan, has admitted to me that he drives a Cadillac. I would never make such an admission; I drive just a little old Buick. However, when Senator Pechan traded in his Cadillac, after about a year of ownership, it only cost him about $700. Therefore, his tax would be $7.00, and if we had a three per cent sales tax it would be $21.00.

I understand that I can turn in my Buick, which I have had now almost a year, for approximately $500. That is about what it costs each year for cars in that price group. If you want to trade them in each year, you can get a new one for around $500 or $600. On the Fords and Chevrolets and that type, I presume it would be less. I am not an automobile man, but I presume you could do that for about $300 or $400 a year. If you figure out that figure, in the light of the new figures that it would cost to trade your car in, perhaps you will come up with a different answer. However, Senator, I am not trying to get you to go along with any particular type of tax program. I am just trying to correct your figures a little bit.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, the only thing I would appreciate, and I am sure every other man within the hearing of my voice would appreciate, is the name of the Cadillac dealer who will give me a new one every year for $700. I am certainly being cheated by the Lincoln fellow.

If you can find anyone who will give you a new Buick every year for $500, just give me his name and he will get more business than he has ever had in his life.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. PECHAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I am not here drumming up any business for Punk Hotaling, but go to George Hotaling, in Kittanning, and he will give you the same deal as he gave me. I am sure of that.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. MAHANY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I want to correct one thing that Senator Dent mentioned, and I want to correct it for the sake of the record. He said that Mr. Hewitt had put in a bill for a five per cent sales tax. I believe if Senator Dent will examine the bill that Mr. Hewitt put in—it is House Bill No. 779—it provides for a two per cent sales tax and not a five per cent sales tax.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

TIME OF NEXT MEETING

Mr. WHALLEY offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, April 25, 1955.

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That when the Senate adjourns this week, it reconvene on Monday, May 2, 1955, at two-thirty o'clock, p. m., E. S. T. and when the House of Representatives adjourns this week, it reconvene on Monday, May 2, 1955, at a time to be fixed by the House of Representatives.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

GEORGE M. LEADER.

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to introduce a bill at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Messrs. PECHAN and DENT read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 335, entitled:

An Act amending the act of June 22, 1937 (P. L. 1987), entitled as amended "An act to preserve and improve the purity of the waters of the Commonwealth for the protection of public health, animal and aquatic life, and for industrial consumption, and recreation; empowering and directing the creation of indebtedness or the issuing of non-debt revenue bonds by political subdivisions to provide works to abate pollution; providing protection of water supply; providing for the jurisdiction of courts in the enforcement thereof; requiring the approval of the Attorney General for prosecutions thereunder; providing additional remedies for abating pollution of waters; imposing certain penalties; and repealing certain acts; authorizing the acquisition by purchases or condemnation, or otherwise, of easements and rights of ways; the acquisition or construction of pipes, conduits, drains or tunnels by the Sanitary Water Board; and providing for payment of the costs thereof by the Commonwealth; authorizing the Sanitary Water Board to establish standards of purity and to determine the time for compliance with certain provisions of the act in certain cases and making it unlawful to open, reopen or continue operation of any coal mine, or to change any approved drainage or disposal plan without prior approval by the Sanitary Water Board," authorizing certain corporations to acquire interests in land by eminent domain.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I have here a series of bills being co-sponsored by Senator Mahany, myself, Senator George Stevenson and Senator Jo Hays. Senator Mahany represents the Republican Party in the Senate and I, by my good fortune, represent the Democratic Party. Senator Stevenson represents the District affected, and Senator Jo Hays represents the District affected.

These bills, Mr. President, are far reaching. They are bills that will bring, we hope, to Pennsylvania a plant of the Curtiss-Wright Aeronautical concern. This will be the first endeavor of that kind ever undertaken by a corporation, in which they are to purchase some 50,000 acres in Clearfield, Cameron and Elk Counties. They are going to establish there some type of topdrawer, high level project in the aeronautical field. They hope ultimately, within a span of a very few years, to have something between 6,000 and 7,000 employees. This has been made possible by the cooperation of the Republican leadership in the House and Senate. the Democratic leadership in the House and Senate and the Governor's office, in conjunction with the representatives of the Curtiss-Wright Aeronautical Corporation.

All of us, you will note that when it comes to those things that matter so much to all of the people in Pennsylvania, I believe can always find a common ground to act upon for the good of the people.

I would request, Mr. President, that these bills be committed to the proper committee and, if that committee chairman sees fit, we would appreciate at this time if he could call a five minute recess to have these bills reported to the floor. I will be glad at any time, and so will Senator Mahany, to discuss these bills or to give to anybody an explanation of what we are doing.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to introduce bills at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Messrs. DENT, MAHANY, STEVENSON and HAYS read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 336, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the twenty-second day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 594), entitled "An act establishing certain township roads as State highways; authorizing their construction, maintenance, and improvement under certain conditions and restrictions; limiting the obligation of the Commonwealth in the construction of certain structures located on such highways; conferring certain powers upon the Department of Highways, and local authorities, persons, associations and corporations for sharing the cost of the maintenance and construction of such highways; and making an appropriation to carry out the provisions of said act," by changing certain routes and adding a new route.

Which was committed to the Committee on Forests and Waters, Game and Fish.

They also read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 337, entitled:

An Act establishing a section of public road in Elk County as a State highway, and providing for the construction, reconstruction and maintenance thereof at the expense of the Commonwealth.

Which was committed to the Committee on Forests and Waters, Game and Fish.

They also read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 338, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act, approved the eleventh day of May, one thousand nine hundred forty-nine(P. L. 1182), entitled "An act establishing a certain section of road over State-owned lands as a State Highway and providing for the construction and maintenance at the expense of the Commonwealth," by removing a section of road from the State highway system.

Which was committed to the Committee on Forests and Waters, Game and Fish.

They also read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 339, entitled:

An Act authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies, with the approval of the Governor, to sell and to lease, under certain conditions, real property, now under the jurisdiction of the Department of Forests and Waters and the Pennsylvania Game Commission, located in Cameron, Clearfield and Elk Counties; authorizing the exercise of the right of eminent domain; and appropriating the receipts to the purchase of State forest and State game lands.

Which was committed to the Committee on Forests and Waters, Game and Fish.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to introduce bills at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. BARR read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 340, entitled:

An Act amending the act of April 9, 1929 (P. L. 343), entitled "An act relating to the finances of the State government; providing for the settlement, assessment, collection, and lien of taxes, bonus, and all other accounts due the Commonwealth, the collection and recovery of fees and other money or property due or belonging to the Commonwealth, or any agency thereof, including escheated property and the proceeds of its sale, the custody and disbursement or other disposition of funds and securities belonging to or in the possession of the Commonwealth, and the settlement of claims against the Commonwealth, the resettlement of accounts and appeals to the courts, refunds of moneys erroneously paid to the Commonwealth, audting the accounts of the Commonwealth and all agencies thereof, of all public officers collecting moneys payable to the Commonwealth, or any agency thereof, and all receipts of appropriations from the Commonwealth and imposing penalties; affecting every department, board, commission, and officer of the State government, every political subdivision of the State, and certain officers of such subdivisions, every person, association, and corporation required to pay, assess, or collect taxes, or to make returns or reports under the laws imposing taxes for State purposes, or to pay license fees or other moneys to the Commonwealth, or any agency thereof, every State depository and every debtor or creditor of the Commonwealth," making certain returns available for public inspection.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Messrs. BARR and KOPRIVER, JR., read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 341, entitled:

An Act amending the act of June 2, 1933 (P. L. 1433), entitled "An act defining the powers of the courts of quarter sessions, the Municipal Court of Philadelphia, and the County or Juvenile Court of Allegheny County, with respect to the care, guidance, control, trial, placement and commitment of delinquent, dependent and neglected children under sixteen years of age and of persons over sixteen years of age contributing to or encouraging the delinquency, neglect and dependency of children; and amending, revising and consolidating the law relating thereto," changing jurisdiction of the courts.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

They also read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 342, entitled:

An Act amending the act of June 3, 1933 (P. L. 1449), entitled "An act establishing a court of record in the county of Allegheny for control, care, guidance, treatment, trial, placement and commitment of delinquent, neglected and dependent children under sixteen years of age and of persons over sixteen years of age contributing to or encouraging delinquency, neglect or dependency of children; defining the jurisdiction and powers of the court, and regulating procedure therein; providing for the transfer thereto of certain powers, functions and duties from other courts, providing for the election of judges thereof, the appointment of probation officers, other necessary staff officials and assistants, providing for housing of same, and providing for detention facilities; making the contributing to or encouraging of the delinquency, neglect or dependency of children a misdemeanor; and providing penalties," changing jurisdiction of the court.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

RECESS

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for five minutes, for the purpose of holding a meeting of the Committee on Forests and Waters, Game and Fish.

Mr. PECHAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. STEVENSON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make reports from comittee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. STEVENSON, from the Committee on Forests and Waters, Game and Fish, reported as committed Senate Bill No. 336, entitled:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MONDAY, April 25, 1955

The House met at 3:30 p. m., E.S.T.

The SPEAKER Pro Tempore (Philip Lopresti) in the Chair.

PRAYER

Rev. Warren C. Johnson Pastor of the Nativity Lutheran Church, Philadelphia, guest Chaplain, offered the following prayer:

Gracious God, our Heavenly Father, who hast made us and placed us on the good earth to love and serve Thee, we praise Thee for Thy many gifts.

As Thou didst send Thy Son into the world, not to be ministered unto, but to minister so teach us the joy of service. Help us to see that the acid test of all true living is to become identified with the world, sharing its dreams and disillusionments, its triumphs and its tragedies.

Bless our country and those who make its laws. Grant to our leaders patience and courage to match the demands of these tangled days.

Thou hast filled our lives with Thy bounty. Give us the grace to answer that bounty with our lives, in the name of Him who did not show His generation a clenched fist, but rather an outstretched arm and an open hand, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

JOURNALS APPROVED

The SPEAKER. Are there any corrections to the Journals of Monday, April 18, Tuesday, April 19 and Wednesday, April 20, 1955? If not, and without objection, the Journals are approved.

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, by reason of some confusion on our side as to what this bill is for, and what it purports to do, we would like to interrogate the Chairman of the Committee on Insurance, Mr. Hamilton, the gentleman from Beaver.

THE SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Hamilton, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ROBERT K. HAMILTON. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Hamilton, we would be pleased if you would explain this bill for the Members of the House.

Mr. ROBERT K. HAMILTON. Mr. Speaker, the same subject matter as incorporated in this bill was introduced in the 1953 session by Senator Mallery and it came over to the House Committee, but was unable to get out of Committee, as it came over late and the Chairman of the Committee at that time had agreed to have no more meetings.

This bill has been reintroduced by Senator Mallery and Senator Lane, and the reason for it is that the casualty companies of Pennslyvania have been interested in giving additional coverage to automobile liability in that the disability benefits and benefits from death might be increased and liberalized.

Our Insurance Commissioner has felt that legally under the law that exists at present they were unable to give this coverage, and this bill was introduced to liberalize the law so that the insurance Commissioner can make it possible to allow the casualty companies of Pennsylvania and other companies that do business in Pennsylvania to write coverage to pay disability benefits to injured persons and death benefits to dependents and other persons who are killed in automobile accidents.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the section?
It was agreed to.
The second section and title were separately read and agreed to.
And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,
Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

The Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission shall have jurisdiction, subject to appeal to the Superior Court as in other cases, in all matters hereby required to be approved by it. Jurisdiction shall be exercised in the manner provided by the Public Utility Law of May 28, 1937 (P. L. 1053) and its amendments.

They were agreed to.
The section was agreed to as amended.
The title was read.
On the question,
Will the House agree to the title?
Mr. PETROSKY offered the following amendment:

Amend Title, page 2, next to last line of Title, by inserting after "rates" where it appears the second time services and service charges and uniform accounting.
It was agreed to.

The title was agreed to as amended.
And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended.
Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

BILL ON THIRD READING POSTPONED

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. AMARANDO.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 532, as follows:

An Act relating to baseball basketball bowling football and hockey on Sunday in Philadelphia prohibiting these sports on Sunday before two o'clock post meridian and after that hour unless the electors of the city are in favor of the same and in certain cases a license has first been secured from the city providing for a referendum to ascertain the will of the electors and for the enactment and repeal of licensing ordinances and resolutions in accordance therewith providing penalties and repealing inconsistent laws

Section 1 Short Title This act may be cited as the "Philadelphia Sunday Sport Law of 1955"

Section 2 Penalty for Unlawful Sports on Sunday It shall be unlawful for any person copartnership association or corporation to conduct stage or engage in any baseball basketball bowling football and hockey game regardless whether a charge of admission thereto is made or whether labor or business is necessary to conduct manage stage or operate the same on the first day of the week commonly called Sunday before the hour of two o'clock post meridian

It shall be unlawful for any person copartnership association or corporation to conduct stage or engage in any baseball basketball bowling football and hockey game regardless whether a charge or an admission thereto or incidental thereto is made or whether labor or business is necessary to conduct manage stage to operate the same on the first day of the week commonly called Sunday after two o'clock post meridian unless the voters in the city have first voted in favor of baseball basketball bowling football and hockey on Sunday as hereinafter provided and unless the person copartnership association or corporation proposing to conduct or stage any such game to which admission charge is made or is incidental shall first have secured from the proper authority of the city a license authorizing him her or it to conduct or stage such game after two o'clock post meridian on Sunday

Any person copartnership association or corporation violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding ten dollars ($10) and in default of the payment of such fine and costs of prosecution the person or any member or agent of any copartnership or association or any officer or agent of any corporation responsible for the violation shall undergo imprisonment for a period of not more than five days

Section 3 Ordinances and Resolutions License Fees If at the election in the year 1955 as hereinafter provided a majority of the electors of the City of Philadelphia voting at the election vote in favor of baseball basketball bowling football and hockey on Sunday after two o'clock post meridian then the council shall by ordinance provide for the licensing of baseball basketball bowling football and hockey games to which an admission fee is charged or is incidental on Sunday after two o'clock post meridian If the vote of the electors in the city was not in favor of baseball basketball bowling football and hockey then no ordinance or resolution providing for the licensing of these games shall be enacted or adopted

The license fees to be charged under the ordinance for any baseball basketball bowling football or hockey game to which an admission is charged or is incidental shall not exceed five hundred dollars ($500)

All license fees collected under the provisions of the ordinance shall be paid into the treasury of the city

Section 4 Referendum Statement of Question on Ballots At the municipal election in the year 1955 there shall be submitted in the manner provided by the election laws of the Commonwealth a question to determine the will of the electors of the City of Philadelphia with respect to baseball basketball bowling football and hockey games on Sunday The question shall be in the following form

Do you favor the conduct staging and playing of baseball basketball bowling football and hockey games regardless of whether an admission charge is made or incidental thereto or whether labor or business is necessary to conduct stage or operate the same after two o'clock post meridian on Sunday

The question shall be printed on separate official ballots in bound form by the board of elections in the city and sufficient number of ballots shall be furnished to the election officers in each election district of the city so that one ballot may be supplied to each voter at the election In districts where voting machines are used the question shall appear on the face of the machine where the machine is properly equipped for those purposes

Section 5 Returns and Computation of Votes The votes cast on the question shall be counted by the election officers and returns thereof made by them and by election officers where voting machines are used to the prothonotary of the county who shall lay the same before the return for computation at the same time and in the same manner as other returns The return board shall compute the returns and certify the results of the vote cast on the question to the legislative body of the city

The election shall be governed by the election laws of the Commonwealth and all penalties provided by those laws shall apply to the election

Section 6 Future Referendums In the City of Philadelphia the will of the electors with respect to baseball basketball bowling football and hockey on Sunday may after the year 1955 but not oftener than once in three years be ascertained and the question as provided in this act shall be submitted to the electors of the city upon demand in writing of petitioners equal to at least five per centum of the highest vote cast for any office in the city at the last preceding general or municipal election The petition shall be filed with the city authorities at least sixty days before the day of any general or municipal election at which the question is to be submitted and if the petition is sufficiently signed shall thereupon be certified to the board of elections who shall cause the question to be submitted in the same manner as is provided in this act for the election in the year 1955

If a majority of the electors voting in the city which licenses baseball basketball bowling football and hockey games to which an admission charge is made or is incidental are not in favor of the licensing then the ordinance licensing these games shall be repealed but if a majority of the electors in the city which does not license these games are in favor of the licensing then an ordinance shall be enacted licensing these games to which an admission charge is made or is incidental as provided in this act

Section 7 Intent of Act (A) It is the intent of this act to provide a method whereby the will of the electors of the City of Philadelphia with respect to baseball basketball bowling football and hockey games on Sunday after two o'clock post meridian may be ascertained and it shall be the duty of the legislative body of the city to enact adopt or repeal any ordinance in accordance with the will of the electors as ascertained at the election In case of a failure so to do the duty herein imposed upon the legislative body of the city may be enforced by mandamus

(B) The provisions of this act shall not be construed to prohibit or limit the issuance of licenses or the conducting staging of or engaging in sports under the provisions of the act of April 25 1933 (P. L. 74) nor shall the results of referenda held under the provisions hereof affect any license issued under the provisions of the act of April 25 1933 (P. L. 74)

Section 8 Repeal Section 1 act of April 22 1794 (3 Sm L 177) entitled "An act for the prevention of vice and immorality and of unlawful gaming and to restrain disorderly sports and dissipation" is repealed in so far as it prohibits baseball basketball bowling football or hockey in Philadelphia on Sunday

Section 9 Hunting and Fishing Nothing contained in this act shall relate to Sunday hunting and fishing or be construed as repealing any law relating thereto

Section 10 Effective Date This act shall take effect immediately.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

SENATE MESSAGE

TIME OF NEXT MEETING

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, April 25, 1955.

Resolved, (the House of Representatives concurring), That when the Senate adjourns this week, it reconvene on Monday, May 2, 1955, at two-thirty o'clock p. m., E. S. T. and when the House of Representatives adjourns this week, it reconvene on Monday, May 2, 1955, at a time to be fixed by the House of Representatives.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. READINGER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to inform the Members of the House that on Wednesday of this week we will have a consent calendar. But we are planning to have three full working days next week, the week of May 2nd.

The plans for the following week, which is the week preceding the Primaries, have not to date been determined, but the likelihood is we will have three working days that week, and then recess until Wednesday, May 18, the day following the primary election.

During that week we will meet only two days, Wednesday and Thursday. We have been informed that some group is having a convention in town and we would not be able to keep our hotel rooms beyond Thursday of that week, so we are planning to meet only on Wednesday and Thursday of the week in which the primary falls.

INTERROGATION

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the Majority Leader.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the Majority Leader permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. READINGER, I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Majority Leader, back home in Berks County do you happen to be a precinct leader or a committeeman?

Mr. READINGER. I do not, thank goodness.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I think, Mr. Speaker, if the Majority Leader were and had a fight, and I say this with all seriousness, if he had a precinct fight or a primary fight where he went to the polls and stood there and worked hard for thirteen to fifteen hours, by the time those ballots were counted, and I mean this very seriously, I don't think he would be in any condition, physically or mentally, to come up and serve a full day in the House the following day after election.

I do think he should take into consideration the fact that there are a lot of precinct workers and committeemen here and that it is a hard job to be standing for fifteen hours and then drive to Harrisburg, like some of the people will have to do from Allegheny county, and serve a full day in the House.

I just bring that to the attention of the Majority Leader in considering this Wednesday and Thursday session.

Mr. READINGER. I wish to thank the gentleman for his comments on that matter and they will be considered. However, I think he underestimates the ruggedness of the membership of this House.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH asked and obtained unanimous consent to address House.

Mr. Speaker, the hour is growing late but there has been so much to say in regard to the Governor's budget that it is not only going to take days to say it, it is going to take weeks, and it seems that from now until the budget is passed I am going to have to bore the House with some memories or recollections and bring to their attentions some of the things that have been said.

Last Wednesday I told this House that at last I have found out what the Democrats are up to. If you will remember, I have been asking, What have you been up to? Well, last week when the budget came in we found out.

We found out that you were trying to put across the greatest fraud in the history of the Commonwealth. We were greatly puzzled by some of the remarks made by his Excellency the Governor last week in his budget message. When he was recommending his $600 million of new taxes he said, and I quote,

> "It will finance the expenditures budget I have submitted and finance it equitably, fairly and in full accordance with the platform upon which I ran, in accord with the established principles of my party, in accord with every word that I have spoken in public or in private."

Now, we have looked, and looked, and looked through everything that the Governor said during his campaign in the hope that somewhere, some place we would find something in which he told the public he was going to recommend $600 million in new taxes, and that he was going to urge this Legislature to enact a wage tax.

You know and I know there are many, many and many occasions on which, as a candidate he told the people he was not going to propose a wage or an income tax. In fact he went much further than that, he said and I quote again,

> "Republican leaders in an attempt to put me on the spot have asked what I would substitute for the sales tax." This is the Governor's quote, "I do not plan to substitute anything."
> That was in Bloomsburg on September 3rd of last year.

You are also very familiar with a full page advertisement which appeared in the Commonwealth's newspapers the day before election last November 2nd, here it is and I am going to read from the advertisement that the Governor and the Democratic party put in. They said at that time:

> "If I am your next Governor I pledge," and a pledge is a promise to me . . . "death to the sales tax, death to any plan for a state wage tax, I believe in these things, if I am your next Governor I pledge them to you. Signed George M. Leader, Democratic Candidate for Governor."

Even in the face of these quotations and many others, we were still not satisfied, we could not believe that the Governor who was elected because of the support of so many people who believed he meant what he said, would stand before us and propose all of these new taxes and then say, "it was in accord with every word that I have spoken in public or in private" unless there was something to back it up.

I don't know but maybe this is the thing that he thinks backed it up. We may have found it in a speech he made in Harrisburg August 23rd of last year. I admit that it is a pretty slim reason but here it is, I give it to you for what it is worth. This is a quote,

> "Unless the Republican leadership literally carts away the Capitol dome before leaving office we will find the money to pay the bills without taking the housewives' pennies."

Well, we all know that the Capitol dome is still here; the Republicans did not cart it away as Candidate Leader seemed to fear at that time.

We all know that Governor Leader is going to keep his promise not to take the housewives' pennies. He has a very different method, he is going to sneak a hand into every man's pay envelope and slice off a hunk of everybody's pay check before the housewife even gets hers. He is after dollars, not pennies. It is dollars for George, every where you go.

They say it in Erie, Scranton, Pittsburgh, the taxicab drivers tell it to you down in Philadelphia, the farmers are writing in from up state and the miners from the coal region. They are all saying the same thing, "don't let him do it, don't let him take our dollars, he promised us that there wouldn't be any new taxes and now he wants to pay the biggest tax bill in the history of the Commonwealth."

Just think of it $600 million more, when he told us he would abolish the sales tax and make up the difference with savings and the elimination of waste in the organization of State Government.

The Legislature has given the Governor the broadest possible powers to reorganize the State Government, but you don't see any evidence of it in this budget. It is the strangest thing with this administration, that every time you Democrats say something it turns out to be exactly the opposite of what you mean or what you do. That is why we have to stand up here and ask you so often, "Who are you still trying to fool? The people?" If you think you are, just go out on the street or anywhere in this Commonwealth and ask anyone you meet, and they will tell you whom you are fooling. You are only kidding yourselves.

Take the matter of the budget itself, the Democratic party platform for 1954 said, and I quote,

> "The Democratic party of Pennsylvania pledges to the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to provide a system of accurate budgeting to replace the antiquated hit or miss system now existing, to make appropriations to agencies of the Commonwealth in accordance with object classification instead of in a lump sum as at present, thereby eliminating the indiscriminate juggling of appropriations without proper approval."

That is what you told the people you would do; you told the people you would end the antiquated hit or miss system, that you were going to provide an accurate budget system.

Now let's look at the budget and see if you kept your pledge in that. I defy anyone to find any difference whatsoever in the system of accounting in this budget over those of previous years. There isn't any difference. We defy anyone to tell us from the Governor's budget how he plans to spend $142 millions in the Department of Welfare. If we are not being asked to give Mr. Shapiro, Secretary of Welfare, a blank check, I don't know the meaning of the word. It isn't broken down it is $142 million.

Mr. Speaker, I ask the gentleman to tell us one thing more. We didn't know what you were talking about when you said it during your campaign, but we know now. You were describing Governor Leader's budget to a "T" and we are leaving it to the people to determine who is right.

Something else the Governor said, . . . I have so many quotes here that I can't find half of them. That is perfectly right, "They are all the same"; they are all the same in that they are being kicked around today and we are not even to say anything about them. The Governor said, and I quote,

> "The budget of the Republicans was based on politically pyramided state costs, it is impractical and vacuous and it is a monumental political distortion and a monstrous fraud."

That is what the present Governor said of our budget. I think we should let the people decide who was right and what words are being misquoted.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. READINGER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, that was such a lovely speech that I am wondering who wrote it for the Minority Leader. It reminds me of a story of two ladies who attended a social tea one day. They didn't care much for each other, so Mrs. Jones says to Mrs. Smith, "My dear, that's a lovely dress you are wearing today. It's too bad they didn't have it in your size."

When I think of all the promises that the Republican party has made and broken over the years that I have been a Member of this House, I wonder how true the speech just made by the gentleman will ring. I don't accuse him of misquoting the Governor in his campaign, but I do think he is misinterpreting many things which were said during that campaign.

For example, he quotes the then candidate, and now Governor, as saying he is against a wage tax, and I say that the tax program proposed by the Governor bears out his statement that he is against a wage tax, because the Governor is not proposing a wage tax but a classified income tax. I don't care how long you call it a wage tax, it is no more a wage tax than the federal income tax which we have been paying these many years.

I know it is good politics to give it a name, a name that the people won't like to hear, a thought they won't like to think. But as the days go by and the need for this revenue unfolds, I assure you there will be no budgetary mysteries. The Speaker stated that at the beginning of this session, and that is going to be true.

There are going to be hearings on the Governor's budget and, if we find any fat in it, we intend to cut it out.

We intend to know, to, before any appropriation bills are offered to this House, exactly what the money is proposed to be spent for.

It is all right to make political capital, we expect you to do it, but I say the need for revenue is here. A lot of it arises through your own failure in the past to pass adequate revenue bills to meet the needs of the Commonwealth. You have been running deficit after deficit, and we are now running one just as your prior administrations did. We are going to meet the deficit. We don't think our tax program is popular; we don't believe anyone would like to pay out dollars instead of pennies. We are not under any illusions. We have found out since the Governor made his proposal to raise these revenues last Tuesday how unpopular it is.

The newspapers of this state are certainly aiding in creating a feeling on the part of the people that it is an unjust imposition. But I say to you, before these bills are acted upon by the House the public is going to be given full information on why this money is necessary, and why a classified income tax is a much more equitable way of raising it than under your sales tax. If we can't get that story across to the public, and we do pass these bills, we deserve whatever the public decides to do to us politically in the future.

I say to you we have proposed and will defend what we think is a much more equitable way of raising the amount of money this Commonwealth needs. You can blame anyone you want to in the past for statements made which would indicate we do not need any more money, or by economies we can finance the Commonwealth, and so forth, but the fact remains that these expenditures that are being proposed are to a great extent justifiable, and I say "to a great extent" because up to this time we have not had time to analyze some of the proposals for raising and spending money.

I have seen statements in the Press made by certain Republican politicians that we are going to be the "tax-and-spend" party. I assure you we are just as much interested as you are in not spending a nickel in this Commonwealth that is not necessary. But we do have very practical problems. We have our problem of education, and we have our problem of taking care of unfortunate people in mental institutions and other institutions. We are not going to shirk our duty. If we can't find ways and means to raise the revenue to do it, it will not be because we have not tried.

Just because you have seen fit in the past not to do certain things for the unfortunate people of this state because it cost money, we do not intend to follow suit. We do things as we see the right. You have every right to say we are wrong about it, to point out where we are wrong, but so long as we think we are on the right track we are going to pursue what we believe to be the proper policy for this state.

I mentioned before, and I will probably mention it again before these debates on finances are finished, that we must deal with realities. No matter what was said by your candidate or what was said by our candidate, we have a practical problem with which we must deal and we are not going to run away from it, we are going to do what we think is right about it.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman asked me who wrote the speech. Well, it might be interesting to him to know that the Democrats themselves wrote the speech; they wrote it by their statements. What we are doing is giving quotations of things they said during the campaign. All we are doing is reminding them of the pledges they made, and that's all. All we have to do is compile a long list of clippings, which the newspapers have, and which we have in our possession, and that is the way we are writing all of our speeches, and that is the way all of the speeches will be written. It is just a compilation of the statements the Governor made, and a good many high Democrats made. We are just reminding them of what they said.

The gentleman said this is not a wage tax, it is a classified income tax. I wonder if the gentleman, Mr. Speaker, has had time to look over the present tax bill which he introduced today. In Article 4, the heading is this: "Collection of Income Tax at Source of Wages." If that isn't plain, I don't know what is. Those are not our words, they are the words of the bill that the gentleman just introduced, "Collection of Income Tax at Source of Wages." No matter what you call it, it is still a wage tax.

I would like to remind the gentleman that we also have had problems in the past, we have had problems during the last session and during the session prior to that. We have always gone out and tried to meet our problems, but I do not believe that we have ever led the people to believe the things that the present party is trying to get the people to believe, that they would not haxe a wage tax and not have an income tax.
have a wage tax and not have an income tax.

I would like to remind the gentleman that Limburger Cheese, if you call it Chanel No. 9, still smells.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. READINGER from the Committee on Rules reported as committed, Senate Resolution Serial No. 122.

SENATE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION SERIAL No. 122

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, April 18, 1955.

Dr. Jonas E. Salk, University of Pittsburgh scientist, has at last attained that pinnacle of success for which we have so long awaited; the discovery of a vaccine against polio. Far too many great minds in the recent past have been directed toward the destruction of mankind. Now one brilliant man has come forth with a discovery which well entitles him to a position of honor in the annals of history as one of the greatest saviors of mankind; a discovery to rid the world of the heartbreak and destruction wreaked by that horrible disease, polio.

Because of this monumental discovery and the deep feeling of gratitude shared by all, we, as the representatives of the people of Pennsylvania, wish to make our feelings known to Dr. Salk; therefore be it

Resolved, (the House of Representatives concurring) That Dr. Jonas E. Salk be sincerely invited to attend a joint session of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania specially called in his honor, and there to receive the tribute which he has so well earned; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to Dr. Jonas E. Salk at the University of Pittsburgh.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1955. 141st of the General Assembly.

Vol. 34. HARRISBURG, PA., TUESDAY, APRIL 26, 1955. No. 37.

SENATE

TUESDAY, April 26, 1955.

The Senate met at 10:00 o'clock, a.m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Roy E. Furman) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. HERBERT W. STROUP, JR., Pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, Camp Hill, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray.

Our Heavenly Father, we have been told and we do believe that if we know the truth, the truth shall make us free. But we have found that truth often comes to us in such mixed forms that we cannot tell what is true and what is false.

Wilt Thou, then, sharpen our conscience, that if we cannot see clearly, we can at least feel within ourselves the right? Keep us spiritually keen, that when our minds are confused our hearts may know the answer. And by Thy mercy, forgive us when we have moved honestly and yet have found we were wrong.

In the Name of our Lord, we pray, Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present, the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. MAHANY and Mr. YOSKO, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, relative to the bill which I am about to present, I would like to say, for the information of the Senate, that this is a very important piece of legislation, because it establishes a State Liquor Control Board Retirement System, which is sponsored by the Association of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board Employees.

Mr. President, this bill has come out of a two year study. It is modeled after the State Police Retirement bill, and recognizes the fact that voluntary retirement at the age of fifty is permissible under this act, the same as under the State Police Retirement System. This, of course, will react to the benefit of the system by attracting to the State services those who consider retirement as part of their emoluments in office.

I believe that we ought to pass legislation of this type because we are in a position in Pennsylvania where persons who work for the State of Pennsylvania find themselves at a very bad disadvantage when they reach the retirement stage and, as we all know, there is such a thing as an occupational hazard in political jobs. That hazard comes up about every November.

The necessary moneys to go into this financing of the State retirement, or Liquor Control Board employees' retirement, would be raised by a two per cent markup on liquors. This recognizes the principle that no additional cost should be borne by the taxpayers, but should be borne by those who receive the services. We all know that Liquor Store employees, as a whole, are notoriously underpaid when we consider the responsibility that they perform.

BILL INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Messrs. DENT and MAHANY read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 352, entitled:

An Act establishing a Pennsylvania State Liquor Control Board Retirement System; providing for payments upon retirement, death, disability, involuntary retirement, and payments of certain medical expenses from the State

Employes' Retirement Fund, under the administration of the State Employes' Retirement Board; providing for contributions by employes of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board and the Commonwealth; providing for the guarantee by the Commonwealth of certain funds; providing for the subrogation of the Commonwealth to the rights of the member or dependents against certain third parties; exempting annuities, allowances, returns, benefits, and rights from taxation and judicial processes; and providing penalties.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

Messrs. WEINER and BARR read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 353, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to article nine, section one of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania exempting income taxes from requirement of uniformity.

Which was committed to the Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations.

Messrs. WEINER, SILVERT, MULLIN, CAMIEL and DONOLOW read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 354, entitled:

An Act amending the act of June 25, 1919 (P. L. 581), entitled "An act for the better government of cities of the first class of this Commonwealth," changing the provisions for notices of ordinances and elections relating to indebtedness in cities of the first class and the advertising thereof.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

They also read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 355, entitled:

An Act regulating the recording of all instruments in writing by the Commissioner of Records in the City of Philadelphia and repealing inconsistent laws.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

They also read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 356, entitled:

An Act amending the act of April 3, 1923 (P. L. 50), entitled "An act authorizing cities of the first class to provide for the use of moneys borrowed, or authorized to be borrowed, for purposes which have proved or may prove impracticable, impossible or inadvisable, for any other lawful municipal purpose, or to provide for the cancellation of the authority to borrow such moneys," changing the provisions for advertising notices of ordinances and elections on changing the purpose for which indebtedness has been incurred or authorized and on rescinding the authority to incur such indebtedness in cities of the first class.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

They also read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 357, entitled:

An Act amending the act of May 1, 1929 (P. L. 905), entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety; regulating the use of highways, and the operation of vehicles, tractors, street cars, trackless trolley omnibuses, bicycles, pedestrians, and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth; providing for the titling, including liens, encumbrances, and legal claims; registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof, upon payment of prescribed fees; prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue, the Department of Highways, peace officers, mayors, burgesses, magistrates, aldermen justices of the peace, the courts and the clerks thereof owners of vehicles, and garage keepers; providing that records are admissible as evidence; imposing upon owners, counties, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships, within the Commonwealth liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles; imposing penalties; imposing certain costs upon counties; providing for the disposition of fines, forfeitures, fees, and miscellaneous receipts; making an appropriation and providing for refund," authorizing the establishment of speed limits in cities of the first class, under certain terms and conditions; providing for use of testing devices in these cases and imposing penalties.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

They also read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 358, entitled:

An Act amending the act of June 24, 1937 (P. L. 2051), entitled "An act relating to public assistance; providing for and regulating assistance to certain classes of persons, designated and defined as dependent children, aged persons, blind persons and other persons requiring relief; providing for the administration of this act by the Department of Public Assistance and county boards of assistance hereby created for this purpose; authorizing the Department of Public Assistance to cooperate with, and to accept and disburse moneys received from, the United States Government for assistance to such persons; providing for the liquidation of the State Emergency Relief Board, Boards of Trustees of the Mothers' Assistance Fund, and Boards of Trustees of Pension Fund for the Blind; and repealing laws relating to mothers' assistance, pensions for the blind, old age assistance, and the State Emergency Relief Board," providing for interim assistance in cases where a person does not meet residence requirements or there is no reciprocal legislation in force.

Which was committed to the Committee on Public Health and Welfare.

They also read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 359, entitled:

An Act authorizing the Secretary of Highways to lay out, open, construct and maintain a road to be a part of the system of State Highways in cities of the first class.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

Messrs. WEINER, SILVERT, DONOLOW and CAMIEL read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 360, entitled:

An Act amending the act of June 25, 1919 (P. L. 581), entitled "An act for the better government of cities of the first class of this Commonwealth," making certain changes in the provisions for notices of elections relating to indebtedness in cities of the first class.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

Messrs. WEINER, SILVERT, MULLIN, CAMIEL and DONLOW read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 361, entitled:

An Act amending the act of April 19, 1883 (P. L. 9), entitled "An act to abolish the office of the collector of all outstanding or delinquent taxes, to authorize and empower the receiver of taxes to collect the delinquent taxes, and to provide for the more efficient collection of said delinquent taxes, in cities of the first class," providing for the distraint of rent money for the purpose of making necessary repairs to real property condemned by local health authorities; empowering the Revenue Commissioner to appoint licensed real estate brokers to collect the rent money; and extending the application of rent money to the extinguishment of water rents, sewer rents and municipal claims held by cities of the first class.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

They also read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 362, entitled:

An Act amending the act of April 9, 1929 (P. L. 177), entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers thereof, including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools, or Teachers Colleges; abolishing, creating, reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments, boards, and commissions; defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers, and of the several administrative departments, boards, commissions, and officers; fixing the salaries of the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and certain other executive and administrative officers; providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers, and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments, boards, and commissions; and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments, boards and commissions shall be determined," authorizing the lease or grant of real estate under the jurisdiction of the Department of Forests and Waters in any city of the first class, for the purpose of aiding the establishment of parking services and facilities within State park areas situate within such cities.

Which was committed to the Committee on Forests and Waters, Game and Fish.

STATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

MEMORIALIZING THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES TO PROCLAIM A COLONEL-COMMANDANT MICHAEL KOVATS DAY

Mr. YOSKO offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, April 26, 1955.

General George Washington entrusted the organization of his cavalry to an experienced Hungarian, Michael Kovats, who was recommended to General Washington by Benjamin Franklin. Colonel-Commandant Michael Kovats was second-in-command of the Pulaski Legion and while serving in this capacity gave his life for the United States of America when, on May 11, 1779, he fell mortally wounded in the defense of Charleston, South Carolina.

American Hungarians respectfully ask for appropriate recognition for Colonel-Commandant Kovats. Americans of Polish descent have their revolutionary hero honored in the form of Pulaski Week. Washington's Cavalry known as the Pulaski Legion, was whipped into an efficient fighting force by Colonel-Commandant Kovats, and this historical fact is recognized by official documents, records of the Society of the Cincinnati and other official sources; therefore be it

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, on behalf of all American Hungarians memorializes the President of the United States to proclaim a Colonel-Commandant Michael Kovats day in honor of this outstanding hero of the Revolutionary War; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States, Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

URGING LOCAL MEDICAL SOCIETIES TO SET A REASONABLE UNIFORM FEE FOR SALK VACCINE INOCULATIONS

Messrs. WEINER, DENT, BARR, PECHAN, MILLER and SEYLER offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, April 26, 1955.

Because of the great demand which exists for Salk vaccine it is necessary that there be safeguards to insure an equitable distribution to all persons requesting it. There are reports that varied and in some cases exorbitant fees are being exacted from persons being inoculated. It is the duty of the medical profession to see that the fees charged for inoculations are kept uniform and as reasonable as possible, so that this high demand will not have the effect of raising the price of inoculations and thus put them beyond the reach of any person who may desire to be inoculated; therefore be it

Resolved, (the House of Representatives concurring), That local medical societies be urged to set a reasonable uniform fee for Salk vaccine inoculations, and that the fees thus set be strictly adhered to by members of the medical profession.

RULE 39 SUSPENDED

Mr. WEINER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolutions be referred to an appropriate committee, be suspended and the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

PETITIONING THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE UNITED NATIONS TO VOTE TO LIBERATE CYPRUS FROM BRITISH COLONIAL RULE AND TO PERMIT THE INCORPORATION AND UNIFICATION OF THE PEOPLE OF CYPRUS WITH THEIR MOTHERLAND, GREECE

Messrs. DONOLOW, SCHMIDT, SEYLER, McGINNIS, CAMIEL, YOSKO, BARR and DENT offered the following resolution which was twice read and referred to the Committee on Constitutional Changes and Federal Relations:

In the Senate, April 26, 1955.

The glorious history of the United States bespeaks the firm adherence by our Government to the unchanging and changeless principles of the right to self-determination of the right to liberty, both of which were declared in our City of Philadelphia, the birthplace of American independence, to be inalienable human rights by the Founding Fathers of our great land.

The people of Cyprus have, at incalculable expense of blood and spirit, gallantly struggled for the cause of world freedom and liberty, the ideal for which our American soldiers, side by side with the Greek and Cypriote soldiers, fought victoriously in two World Wars.

The people of Cyprus have overwhelmingly, by plebiscite in 1950, proclaimed their desire to be unified with their Motherland, Greece, and so eminently deserve and should have the blessing of self-determination and freedom.

Freedom-loving people everywhere have reposed their abiding confidence and faith in the United Nations to secure peaceful independence to every country whose people desire and are capable of sustaining an independent existence; therefore be it

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania respectfully petition the General Assembly of the United Nations to vote to liberate Cyprus from British colonial rule and to permit the incorporation and unification of the people of Cyprus with their Motherland, Greece; and be it further

Resolved, That certified copies of this resolution be forwarded to the Honorable Dag H. A. Hammarskjold, Secretary-General of the United Nations, the Honorable John Foster Dulles, Secretary of State of the United States of America, and the Honorable Henry Cabot, Lodge United States Delegate to the United Nations.

STUDENTS FROM WEST READING HIGH SCHOOL PRESENTED TO SENATE

Mr. RUTH. Mr. President, I wish to present to the Senate a group of ninth and tenth grade social studies students from the West Reading High School, under the leadership of Mrs. Mary E. Gresh, Mrs. Mary M. Lash and Mr. John Shalter. They are seated in the balcony.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair wishes to say to the students visiting us today that we are very happy to have you here, particularly because you are constituents of Doctor Ruth. We hope you enjoy your stay.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEE ON EXECUTIVE NOMINATIONS

Mr. WATSON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make reports from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. WATSON, from the Committee on Executive Nominations, reported the following communication from His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth:

RECALLING NOMINATION OF WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION REFEREES

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 25, 1955

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 404, as follows:

An Act amending the act of May 1, 1833 (P. L. 103) entitled "An act concerning townships of the second class and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" making optional the charge or assessment against accommodated or benefited properties the cost for storm sewers or drains

Section 1 Section 1507 act of May 1, 1933 (P. L. 103) known as "The Second Class Township Code" reenacted revised and amended July 10, 1947 (P. L. 1481) is amended to read

Section 1507 Cost of Construction How Paid The cost of construction of any such system of sewers or drains constructed by the authority of this subdivision in so far as it relates to sanitary sewers or drains shall and in so far as it relates to storm sewers or drains may be charged upon the properties accommodated or benefited thereby to the extent of such benefits in the manner hereinafter provided

The township supervisors may finance the cost of construction of any such system of sewers or drains by the issuance of general obligation bonds of the township within the constitutional and statutory limitations for the incurring or increasing of indebtedness and pursuant to the provisions of law relating to the borrowing of money by political subdivisions Where general obligation bonds are so issued the supervisors in the case of construction of sanitary sewers or drains shall and in the case of construction of storm sewers or drains may nevertheless be required to assess the cost of the construction of such sewers or drains to the extent permitted by law against the properties accommodated or benefited by such improvements as hereinafter provided and to deposit the proceeds of such assessments in the sinking fund established for the purpose of retiring such general obligation bonds

Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the financing of the cost of such construction under the provisions of the "Municipal Authorities Act of 1945" and any amendments thereto

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye," the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 561, as follows:

An Act amending the act of May 1 1929 (P L 905) entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety regulating the use of highways and the operation of vehicles tractors street cars trackless trolley omnibuses bicycles pedestrians and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth providing for the titling including liens encumbrances and legal claims registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof upon payment of prescribed fees prescribing and limitng the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue the Department of Highways peace officers mayors burgesses magistrates aldermen justices of the peace the courts and the clerks thereof owners of vehicles and garage keepers providing that records are admissible as evidence imposing upon owners counties cities boroughs incorporated towns townships within the Commonwealth lability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles imposing penalties imposing certain costs upon counties providing for the disposition of fines forfeitures fees and miscellaneous receipts making an appropriation and providing for refunds" providing for issuance of special registration plates to licensed operators of amateur radio stations requiring the secretary to furnish to sheriffs lists of special registrations and requiring sheriffs to maintain these lists

From the meltng snows of California through the flooded valley of the Mississippi to the hurricane lashed shores of Florida and in the mountainous terrain of Pennsylvania the amateur radio operator has proven his worth in time of disaster and wide-spread danger to the people

He has been directly instrumental by the dissemination of information in saving life and property at times when regular communication facilities were dsrupted

His services in locating travelers and persons whose whereabouts are unknown and in numerous instances when disaster hurricanes and storms have threatened he has been a boon to mankind

There are many licensed amateur radio stations in Pennsylvania ready and alert equipped at their own expense and prepared in any emergency

A distinctive automobile tag would prove of great aid in locating and identifying these amateur radio operators to the State Police sheriffs Red Cross municipal police officers and the National Guard in time of public or private need therefor

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Section 414 act of May 1 1929 (P. L. 905) known as "The Vehicle Code" is amended to read

Section 414 Police Departments and sheriffs to Have Registration Bulletins

The secretary shall issue bulletins giving the registration number name and address of the owners of each vehicle registered to such police departments as he deems necessary and such police departments are hereby prohibited from disposing of such bulletins or parts of such bulletins for other than information as to violations of the motor vehicle laws

The secretary shall on or before the first day of May of each year furnish to the sheriff of each county in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania an alphabetically arranged list of the names addresses and license tag letters of each person to whom a license tag is issued under the provisions of subsection (e) of section 501 of this act It shall be the duty of the sheriffs of the State to maintain and to keep current these lists for public information and inquiry

Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction thereof in a court of quarter sessions be sentenced to pay a fine of two hundred ($200) dollars and costs of prosecution or undergo imprisonment for not more than three (3) years or suffer both such fine and imprisonment

Section 2 Section 501 of the act amended August 24 1951 (P L 1368) is amended by adding after subsection (d) thereof a new subsection to read

Section 501 Registration Plates to be Furnished by Department

(e) Upon application to the department any owner of a motor vehicle designed for passenger travel and not used for commercial purposes residing in Pennsylvania and holding an unrevoked and unexpired General Advanced or Extra Class amateur radio station license issued by the Federal Communications Commission shall be issued a registration plate as prescribed by subsection (a) of this section on which shall be inscribed in lieu of the registraton number prescribed by subsection (b) of this section the official amateur radio call letters assigned to the applicant by the Federal Communications Commission The applicant shall comply with all laws pertaining to registration and licensing of motor vehicles and the application for registration as prescribed by this subsection shall be accompanied by proof of ownership of the aforesaid amateur radio station license and the sum of three ($3) dollars in addition to the fees otherwise prescribed by law for annual registration of motor vehicles

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Philip Lopresti) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend Harold J. Crouse, Pastor of the Trinity Lutheran Church, York, offered the following prayer:

Eternal God, our Loving Father, we come to Thee this day in the name of Jesus Christ asking that Thou wouldst use us in Thy service for the good of all mankind. Grant, O Lord, that this assembly of free men, chosen to lead and to govern a people who love freedom, may give of their best in leadership and may be strengthened by the inner voice of conscience.

Help us, gracious God, to be kindly toward others, to respect other people's points of view, to put away envious thoughts and hasty judgments, to forgive as we hope to be forgiven, to season all our attitudes with charity.

These things we ask by the grace and mercy of Jesus Christ, Our Lord. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVAL POSTPONED

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the approval of the Journal for Monday, April 25, 1955, will be postponed until printed. The Chair hears none.

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Speaker has referred the following House resolutions:

By Messrs. VAUGHAN and MATT S. ANDERSON.

(Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 63.

In the House of Representatives, April 25, 1955.

The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has created Point Park, at the confluence of the Allegheny, Monongahela and Ohio Rivers, at what is known as the Point in the City of Pittsburgh.

George Washington, the father of our Country, as an emissary of the Colony of Virginia was the First American to set foot on the soil of Pittsburgh at the Point in November, 1753, to demand that the French troops under Claude Pierre de Contrecouer surrender that territory to the Colony of Virginia.

George Washington, again, in 1754, travelled from Mount Vernon to the Point and again demanded that the French troops, under the command of Captain Daniel Lienard de Beau Jeau, (who had erected Fort Duquesne at the Point), evacuate Fort Duquesne and surrender it and the territory west of Pittsburgh.

George Washington, in 1755, again travelled from Virginia to what is now Pittsburgh, to make reconnaissances and plans to drive the French from the Point (in the City of Pittsburgh) and from Western Pennsylvania.

George Washington, in command of Virginia colonists, valorously served with General Edward Braddock and the British Troops when they were defeated, near Pittsburgh, on July 9, 1755, by French Troops and Indians, under the command of Captain Daniel Lienard de Beau Jeau.

George Washington, again in command of Virginia and Pennsylvania colonists, served with General John Forbes and the British Troops in the march from Fort Ligonier to take Fort Duquesne, at the Point, which was evacuated and burned on November 24, 1758, by the French Troops and Indians under the command of Captain Coulon de Jumonville in face of impending battle with the British and the American colonists.

The evacuated and burned Fort Duquesne was rebuilt and renamed Fort Pitt by reason of which the great city of Pittsburgh derived its name.

It was the demands, scouting, pioneering, planning and heroic military activities of George Washington that made Western Pennsylvania an English and subsequently an Amercan territory, instead of French Territory.

What was known as the Northwest Territory, and all of the western part of our Country, was opened through and initially developed due to the initiative, and military activities of George Washington.

The greatness of the City of Pittsburgh, as the iron and steel centre of the World was started and developed through the heroic pioneering and patriotism of George Washington; therefore be it

Resolved (the Senate concurring), That a suitable and appropriate statue of George Washington be erected in the Point Park in Pittsburgh, at the confluence of the Allegheny, Monongahela and Ohio Rivers, facing westward; and, be it further

Resolved, That the name of the Point Park be renamed in honor of the Father of our Country, George Washington, as Washington Point.

Referred to the Committe on Rules.

By Messrs. WELSH, TOLL and LEVEN.

(Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 64.

In the House of Representatives, April 25, 1955

The seventy-five-cent minimum wage established by the Federal Fair Labor Standards Act in 1949 was inadequate when that Law was passed and is now completely obsolete.

The establishment by law of reasonable minimum wage rates is essential to the well-being of our Nation, for the reasons that (1) persons receiving substandard wages may be unable to purchase the food necessary to maintain their health and that of their families, (2) substandard wages produce slums and crime, and increase public expenditures, (3) low income operates to deprive children of equal educational opportunities, by necessiating their going to work before their educations are completed, and (4) a higher level of wages helps maintain purchasing power and a sound national economy.

Since 1946 approximately 150 textile plants in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania have closed down, liquidated or migrated with a consequent loss of mills over twenty-five thousand in number due in large measure to the low wage competition of mills in the south and elsewhere.

It is not possible for an individual state acting alone to deal effectively with this problem of substandard wages, since industries in any one state must compete with industries in other states.

The maintenance of decent minimum wages for workers whose jobs affect interstate commerce is a proper responsibility of the Federal government, therefore be it

Resolved, (the Senate concurring), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania urge the President of the United States to favor and memorialize the Congress of the United States to intruduce and enact into legislation, amendments to the Fair Labor Standards Act providing a minium wage of one dollar twenty-five cents ($1.25) an hour, and extending the coverage of the act to all employes whose employment affects interstate commerce; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States, the presiding officers of each house of the Congress of the United States and to each Senator and Representative from Pennsylvania in the Congress of the United States.

RESOLUTION No. 65.

In the House of Representatives, April 25, 1955.

The Pennsylvania U. S. Highway No. 30 extends across the south-central part of Pennsylvania from east to west and comprises an integral part of a transcontinental highway important to the commercial and economic life of State and Nation.

The Pennsylvania U. S. Highway No. 30 is also a military road, being one of two such vital east-west highways in the Commonwealth.

The Pennsylvania U. S. Highway No. 30 passes through one of the most scenic areas of our Commonwealth and is the access route for thousands of visitors who come from all parts of the Nation and State to enjoy the hunting, fishing and natural grandeur of the area.

The widening, straightening and complete renovation of Pennsylvania U. S. Highway No. 30 would provide the shortest and most attractive highway from the Atlantic to the Pacific Ocean by way of large industrial and population centers of Omaha, Chicago, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia and Atlantic City, to the urban industrial centers of the east, and as such is included in the proposed Federal Interstate Highway Program; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Secretary of Highways of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania be requested to advance plans to make Pennsylvania U. S. Highway No. 30 a four lane toll-free highway to the end that said highway may form a real part of the vital defense system of transcontinental military highways and to the additional purpose of further opening a vast area of the potential industrial and existing recreational resources of Pennsylvania; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of Highways of the Commonwealth of Pennslyvania communicate such plans to the Director of the Federal Bureau of Public Roads to the end that the plans may be integrated and the reconstruction and improvement of Pennsylvania U. S. Highway No. 30 be commenced with all the celerity consistent with proper highway improvement practices.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

RESOLUTION (Not printed)

In the House of Representatives, April 25, 1955

Dr. Thomas Francis, Jr., head of the evalution team which declared the Salk polio vaccine safe, was a resident of New Castle, Pennsylvania, during boyhood and early manhood. Dr. Francis attended Lincoln-Garfield School, and graduated from New Castle High School in 1917. He graduated from Allegheny College in 1921.

Since his graduation from the Medical School of Yale University, Dr. Francis has had an outstanding record in the field of medical research. He did considerable work in the Rockefeller Foundation, specializing in research in influenza. Today, he is considered the world's greatest authority on influenza.

Dr. Francis' recent work in evaluating the Salk polio vaccine is a unique and outstanding contribution to medical science. It is upon proper evaluation that the medical profession depends for guidance before starting general use of the vaccine. The work of evaluation requires great exactness and a thorough scientific approach which is based upon long training and ability to marshall data in a manner which gives an accurate and exact picture of the subject of evaluation. The thoroughgoing evaluation of the Salk polio vaccine has given the entire world a new hope in its long struggle with human disease; therefore be it

Resolved, That this House of Representatives hereby congratulates Dr. Thomas Francis, Jr. on his great contribution to medical science, and wishes him well in his future work in his chosen field of medical research; and be it further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to Dr. Francis at the University of Michigan.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Speaker ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, I would not venture from the safe refuge of the Speaker's rostrum into the angle of fire if I could not hope that because of my many infirmities those who might perchance agree with what I might say would, nevertheless, deal gently with me.

During recent weeks the Members of this House have listened to a series of political fulminations, fulminations that have become a chant of confusion and that threatens to develop even into a symphony of hate. This trying period which we face cannot be served helpfully by any concatenation of discord, nor can we obliterate the trail of unseemly partisanship by charging that only the Democrats or only the Republicans are playing politics.

I wonder what has the young and valiant leader, to whom we have been listening recently with twitching ears, been trying to do? What is his game? Who is he trying to fool? Is there merit in his simulated madness? Is it possible that our young political Napoleon who speaks for the loyal opposition, who leads the alert minority, envisions a return from Elba? Is his goal a pinnacle from which the people, time and the weight of accumulated error have so recently dethroned him?

We fear the distinguished leader of the opposition and the members of his personal cabinet are wading deeper and deeper into waters without actually ever having learned to swim. We challenge the right of the talented gentlemen on the other side of the middle aisle to pose as financial experts. The record accuses them. Can men who couldn't gauge the financial momentum of a one per cent sales tax within $40 million, successfully tangle with the intricacies of a state budget? This is a time when budget bunglers should woo the chaste counsel of financial facts.

The present administration faces an inherited deficit of $75 million, No, no, shouts the political Napoleon, the deficit isn't $75 million; it's only $50 million.

The young man reminds us of a lady who appeared before the judge with an infant in her arms and alack and alas, no wedding ring upon her finger, and she expostulated with the judge because of the severity of the sentence, pointing out: "Judge, it was such a little, little baby."

In like manner the eloquent pleader on the other side of the aisle expostulates that the deficit doesn't run to $75 million; it is such a little deficit, he says, it's only $50 million.

Can we, dare we, in addressing ourselves to the problems which the Commonwealth's fiscal situation presents accept the type of advice which not so long ago produced an alleged balanced budget by means of the magic of acceleration of tax payments?

Many of the older Members of this House will recall the financial wizardry which balanced the budget for one biennium by impounding some of the revenues normally payable in the following biennium. Such a desperate trick simply deferred the date for the payment of the bills.

That money, drawn from the future, and the $75 million deficit which the present administration inherits are financial millstones around the neck of that administration.

The time, very frankly, has come to banish trickery and face the realities of an unhappy situation. And let us face this fact: The time has come to begin dealing with actual figures.

There are those who, it would seem, would rather specialize in the art of talking financial figures off the cuff than they would in getting the facts. Apparently it is easier to imagine facts than it is to dig for them.

Now, if there is any Member of this House on either side of the aisle, who desires to ascertain the financial facts that confront the Commonwealth, or any particular financial fact, let him consult the Budget Bureau, and if the desired information is not forthcoming, we will have some of our House Committees subpoena the information. There is no reason why Majority Leader and Members of this House should bicker back and forth that this figure is so and so, or it is something else. If there is disagreement, let us consult the Budget Office and if we don't like the figures the Budget Office gives us, let's subpoena the books.

The era of manipulated figures is definitely at an end! There has been presented for the consideration of this House a budget and a tax program. Both the budget and the tax program are properly subject to Legislative scrutiny. There never yet has been a budget totalling a billion or more that couldn't be cut and cut without endagering some essential service.

Now, a word with the Minority Leader. I note in the Press he has intimated that he is preparing to insist that the House Appropriations Committee hold public hearings. Personally, I would be prepared to echo that insistence.

If the Minority Leader will rummage through his files he will find among the resolutions he smothered in his Rules Committee a resolution which I sponsored. And that resolution called for public hearings of the House Appropriations Committee to be held, if necessary, in the Hall of the House, with all Members of this House and representatives of the Press to be in attendance, if they so desired.

Now personally, I never favored blank check appropriations. Personally, I would favor a line by line appropriation bill. Every item in the Commonwealth's budget should be verified. Every item should be justified. The Executive Department in preparing the budget has the benefit of services rendered by experts of various types and calibers. In preparing the budget, the Executive found it expedient, necessary even, to mobilize a staff.

The House of Representatives should, in my opinion, reply in kind and mobilize a staff—a staff composed of persons who could help analyze figures and who know how to analyze service needs. It is the responsibility of our House Appropriations Committee to analyze every detail of the executive budget. Not all of the services requested by department heads are necessarily essential services, department heads to the contrary, notwithstanding.

Billion dollar budgets are not something to be swallowed at one gulp. Swallowing budgets at one gulp has been the practice in the past to far too great an extent.

Hearings of the House Appropriations Committee should begin at a very early date and every avenue of expenditure carefully canvassed. It is not our purpose today to discuss the tax program in its particulars. There is a time limit beyond which I would not venture to try your listening patience.

However, there really should be two budgets; one budget to finance the pit that was dug when the financial wizards dug into the future to accelerate tax payments; and then continued their financial depradations by rolling up a $75 million deficit. We should have a budget dealing with future business and a budget that finances the thoughtless eras of the past. Charge up about $210 million to past administrations, as a burden upon this administration, directly and indirectly, and you would be just about right.

Incidentally, I sometimes wonder about that $75 million deficit. Was it planned? Was it planted as a time bomb in the Commonwealth's fiscal structure—a time bomb destined to explode when the new Governor took office last January? Were there those whose crystal balls told them that they were riding to defeat, and did they plot to embarrass the party that was to succeed them? Strange things happen here on Capitol Hill.

And now briefly I want to talk a bit about taxes. Basically, the tax problem is simplicity itself. Basically, there are only two kinds of taxes: a tax, any tax, must be either a capital levy or an income tax. Corporations must either pay their taxes by drawing upon their capital reserves, or they must pay them out of income.

Now just as there are only two kinds of taxes, capital levies or income taxes, there are only two methods of taxation. These methods are direct taxes and indirect taxes. And basically that's all there is to the tax program. It is the shifting of taxes, the indirect taxes, that promote inequality in the tax structure. All income from whatsoever source eventually comes to rest in the keeping of some individual. If a corporation does not pay corporation taxes, the money it earned would be distributed among the stockholders, who would pay the tax bill.

An income tax paid by individuals in accordance with their ability to pay is a tax that should be the cornerstone of any abiding and just tax structure, A gradual income tax is a tax that cannot be shifted. Let there be no misapprehension, the ultimate end which this administration, which many members of the Democratic party rank and file, and many members of the Republican party rank and file, seek to serve, is a graduated income tax for Pennsylvania.

During recent years there has been a movement nationwide in its scope, a movement backed by a wave of propaganda that has cost millions, to shift taxes from the economic level best able to pay, to the economic levels least able to pay.

Those of us who march with the program sponsored by the present administration seek to reverse that drift because we know that here in Pennsylvania the ultimate choice lies between a bona fide graduated income tax and a sales tax, at least at the 5 per cent level.

Whether or not the people of Pennsylvania would, if given the opportunity, amend their Constitution to permit the imposition of a graduated income tax, I do not know. However, they should be once again given that opportunity to choose.

We note with genuine sorrow, the surprise that we should have a Governor and a party committed to the keeping of its campaign promises. It is a comment upon the times, upon the thinking of the present, that such intention should cause surprise. If we Democrats desire to make the name of our party a hissing and a byword, we have only to admit that our campaign promises were

> "Like poppies spread,
> A moment bright, their bloom is shed.
> Or like the snowfall in the river,
> A moment white, then gone forever."

These are the taxation canons to which I adhere: everybody who has an income should make some contribution to the support of their state government, however small that contribution should be. There is a place in the tax program for even the widow's mite.

Second, taxes that are shifted are an economic abomination, an abomination that operates to the interests of the few to the detriment of the many. A sound tax program should be based upon relative ability to pay. Personal income taxes are taxes you cannot shift. And I submit to you that there is a basic difference between a flat income tax that is a part of an integrated tax structure, and a flat income tax that stands by itself.

A party that breaks its promises is a party that sets its feet upon the path of disrepute. I would not elect to travel that path even in company with a Democratic governor.

We are told that the tax program submitted to the General Assembly by the Governor of our Commonwealth is unpopular. So be it. If it is unpopular it may be because it has been misrepresented and misunderstood. But in any event, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House, there are those among us who take our stand as advocates of the taxation principles which the Leader administration supports, and we do so not because we cherish victory less but, ladies and gentlemen, because we cherish honor more.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I have had a lot of honors given to me in this House of Representatives over the many years that I have served here, but I believe today the Leader administration, without knowing it, has given me the greatest honor I have ever had.

The other side of the House, evidently, has been forced to bring the big guns out. They have been forced to bring the "Old Master" out of retirement. I am very flattered, Mr. Speaker, when they bring the "Old Master" out, because there has been nobody that I have held greater respect for, and that I have admired more for his ability and his courage. And today, as I say, it is probably the greatest honor that I have ever had. We must be reacting if we are bringing out the big guns, you do not bring out the big guns if there is nothing worth shooting at, believe me.

I have been misled, because I have always thought the Speaker of this House, when he assumed the royal and purple robes of the Speakership, sort of kept himself in a bipartisan aspect. And I insist, Mr. Auxiliary Speaker, that I must address the gentleman, even though you introduced him as the gentleman from Cambria, I must address him as Mr. Speaker. There is an old saying which the gentleman knows that, "Once a Speaker always a Speaker." You do not shed the royal robes that lightly, Mr. Speaker.

I have been misled, too, because I was under the impression that Mr. Speaker was planting tomatoes yesterday. But I can see he was not planting tomatoes—we call them tomaters—he has evidently been trying to plant a tombstone on the Republican Party and he evidently has had very sinister plans in his mind for probably a week, because it was brought to my attention today that when the gentleman asked for leave of absence he did not ask for leave of absence for himself, he asked for leave of absence for the Speaker from the Chair for these three days. So I can see that this has probably not been something that has been started overnight, Mr. Speaker, it has been probably rumbling up there in the gentleman's mind. I know he likes a good fight and I see he has decided to get into it.

I hope he does not take any of these things I am going to say as personal. If they are personal, I apologize to the gentleman because I have too high a personal regard for him.

He has asked us what we are doing. Another thing that has flattered me today, I notice he has started to steal the Republican phrases, such as, "What are you up to?" He must think it is good, because he would not use it if it were not good. We think it is good, Mr. Speaker, "What are you up to?"

One of the things he wants to know is what we are doing. I will tell him what we are doing. We are just sick and tired—and I do not want to get into personalities—we are sick and tired of the leadership and I do not mean in the House, of the Democratic Party during the campaign, during every speech that is made from this rostrum, not by the Speaker, we are sick and tired of the Democratic Party trying to place the blame where they know in their heart it does not belong, on the Republicans. We are to blame to some degree, but let's not place it all on us. There are a lot of Democrats, the Governor himself is as much to blame as we are, believe me. He as a Senator had the nerve to vote for the appropriations, but he did not have the courage of his belief to vote for the taxes. He did not even have the courage to vote for the real estate taxes. If we had worked on the Governor's philosophy, we today would have been in bankruptcy.

And I might say, too, that the Speaker, who just finished talking about the budget, says that the budget can be cut. We think it can be cut, Mr. Speaker, but we think, too, that if it can be cut it is the duty, first of all, of the majority to try to cut it. If the majority fails to fulfill their duty, then we will try to cut it. We believe this budget has fat in it, and I hope to tell you that we will prove it has fat in it, not by our figures, Mr. Speaker, but by the figures that have been handed down by the Budget Office.

The one thing we are interested in on this side of the House is an honest budget. I think we will accept the gentleman's offer that the budget can be lowered, we will accept his offer of help in lowering the budget. That is the big thing, that is the thing that we are interested in. We are interested primarily in saving the people of Pennsylvania money. We feel, too, that the present majority had a 1,000 per cent batting average when it came to voting for every appropriation. We like to remind them of that. But their batting average fell to zero when it came to voting for any taxes or shouldering any responsibility in the past administrations.

I do not like to say this and bring back old memories, the Speaker quoted and said I was a financial expert. Well, I take a little bit of pride when I do study the budget, I am no expert, but it seems that the Speaker himself was a financial expert in the past. And I would like to read a few quotes again. In Easton, August 17, 1954, the Hon. Hiram G. Andrews made a very good speech, as he always does, and this is what the honorable gentleman said, according to the newspaper reports:

> "With efficient accounting and governmental economies at least $125 million could be picked up in a two year fiscal period by the state government. We think tax dodging is very considerable in Pennsylvania. We have audited tax settlements made for the past five years."

The gentleman admitted there was $125 million that could be saved. For the last four or five weeks I have had bills in Committee which have been, I believe, abiding in the "Mausolem Committee," as the Speaker used to call it, asking the House to make an investigation on the charges that the Governor made that the Republicans were giving millions of dollars back to those terrible, terrible industries over the state. None of those bills have come out. I have bills in Committee asking that in the future the Board of Revenue and Finance publish every refund that will be made. Those bills are not out. So the Speaker himself said $125 million could be saved, but they are not being saved.

I have a quote here that the Speaker of the House, Mr. Andrews, made on the floor of the House during debate when we were talking about teachers' salaries being increased. This is a quote which we are sure of, it is from the Journal, and I read it to you. The Speaker said:

> "I am not amazed nor am I disturbed by the fact that these bills may entail an additional expenditure of $55 million.

I might say that we were talking on the teachers' bills, the mandatory salary bills. He said he is not disturbed by the fact that these bills may entail an additional expenditure of $55 millions.

> "It is my conviction, and it has been my conviction, that instead of $55 million it should be $10 million more."

Then he says:

> "Let us determine what we should spend for the schools, what we should spend for these other things, and then raise the money . . ."

And this I like, because the Governor must have read this part of it,

> ". . . because this is a great rich state and there are sources of revenue that need only to be tapped to pour forth abundant funds for all the necessities of this Commonwealth."

Don't you like that, Mr. Speaker? I do. I am sure the Governor read that when this tax bill went into Committee. It was all right to say those things at that time when the Speaker was the leader of his party, but at that time not one of his party accepted the responsibility of putting the money up to meet that extra $10 million over the $55 million.

Now, another thing the Speaker credited me with, and I take a little pride in it. Yes, we did dream up the accelerated payments on corporations, but I would like to remind the gentleman that none of those accelerated payments are taking one penny from this biennium. Those payments are still accelerated, Mr. Speaker, and you did not lose one nickel. It helped us out of a jam, it helped us over a two year period, it was a good thought. We all thought it was a good thought at the time and we still do, because you are not losing, and it did help the State not to go into the bankruptcy, which the Governor is predicting we are going into.

The speeches that I have been making over the last two or three months have sort of irritated, evidently, some of the people in the House, or maybe in the front office, but I would like to remind him that those speeches are not speeches that have been written by Charlie Smith, the Minority Leader, or by any publicity man, those speeches have been written by the Governor himslf. All we have been doing, Mr. Speaker—and we have the quotes and can prove them—is repeating to you what the Governor himself said. We have made speech after speech only on what the Governor said. We are not dreaming them up, they are facts that the Governor himself said prior to the campaign, after the campaign, and what he is still saying.

I can remember the time, to, when I was Minority Leader several years back, I can remember the time when Mr. Johnson was Majority Leader, we practically begged for votes to pass a tax so that the state would not be in financial difficulties. I say to you, Mr. Speaker, we begged for them, we needed them and that begging took years out of some of our lives because we were honest and sincere in what we were asking. I can still remember the Speaker standing over there at that desk and proudly thumping on the desk and saying, "Not one Democratic vote will you get." They were his words, and he patted his chest when he said it. So you assume some of this responsibility.

He would take the floor day after day and ride us—and, believe me, he rode us, he had a right to do it. We did not get mad. We did not have the big guns to bring in, we were the little guns trying to make good for the people of Pennsylvania, but we didn't get any votes.

I can say one thing again, that in our sales tax we dealt—and I am not ashamed to say it, we dealt for votes so that this state would not get into financial chaos. If the Democrats were as liberal with votes with us as they want us to be with them, we would have had a sales tax that would not have brought in $90 million, but would have brought in enough money to balance the budget and there would be no deficit today. So don't lay it at our doorstep.

The gentleman says that the Leader tax should be made a permanent tax. If the income tax is so good, and the gentleman speaks of it as being good, why do you not want to make this a permanent tax. That is the question I would like to ask.

I would like to end by saying, Mr. Speaker, that I feel it is my duty as an individual, because I have been elected, it is my duty as the Minority Leader of the Republican party, and it is my duty to the people of Pennsylvania to bring forth the honest facts as we see them. I can assure you no matter what big guns the Governor brings out, it is what we are going to do. We are going to try to take the fat out of the budget for one reason, to save the people of Pennsylvania money. That is what we intend to do, and we will fight the Speaker, the Governor and everybody else in Pennsylvania to do it.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. READINGER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I have been informed by the gentleman from Cambria, the Speaker, that the Minority Leader has been misinformed on one of the matters he has spoken about. The Speaker informs me that he never spoke at Easton, Pennsylvania, and where the gentleman gets the newspaper item, where he got it, or how it happened to be reported that the Speaker made such a speech in Easton, I cannot understand. I know that our Speaker would not tell me that he had not spoken in Easton if he had.

The gentleman from Philadelphia in his remarks insists that the speeches he has been making recently were written by the Governor because he is quoting things the Governor said in his campaign. But I would like to remind you that it is the interpretation that the gentleman from Philadelphia insists on putting on the Governor's words which comprise his speeches. We do not mind his arising and quoting what was said during the campaign, what was said was said, but we do object to his interpreting those statements and then calling them the Governor's speeches.

I think I know just how the gentleman feels when he says that they had to carry the burden of passing the tax bills when they were in control of the House. They did have that burden and they did discharge it, but when he chastises and criticizes us for having voted only for the appropriation bills, then the gentleman is getting on thin ice.

We objected to the type of a tax that the then majority party was about to impose on the people of Pennsylvania, and when we do not like a tax we are going to vote against it. We expect you will do the same thing when we propose a tax, if you don't like it. If we can persuade you of the rightness of our tax program to the extent that you will be willing to vote for it, then we expect you to do so. If you honestly and firmly believe that it is not a good tax program, then you should vote against it. That is exactly what we did in the past. It is all right to use the glib phrase that we have a thousand per cent batting average in voting for all appropriations and for no taxes, but it just isn't so.

The gentleman well knows that the people on this side have voted over the years for many taxes proposed by the Republican party. There were votes on this side for the real estate tax, whatever the now Governor did when the bill was before the Senate. We will in the future vote for taxes in which we believe. But when you present your tax program as you did in the past and you get not a single vote from us, you can say we are playing politics and voting for the appropriations, if you want, but we did not believe it was a good tax and we were not going to give you any votes for it. We believe we have a good tax program and we are going to fight for it just as hard as you will probably fight against it.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I must apologize to the Speaker of the House on my quotes from Easton.

The quotes were from the Easton Express, it is a newspaper. He may not have spoken in Easton, but the Easton Express was the paper that quoted him. If the gentleman is interested in it, I will show him the exact quote and the paper itself.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

By unanimous consent leave of absence was granted as follows:

Mr. Worley for Mr. MIKULA for the remainder of the week because of illness.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. AUKER asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a bill to be introduced by him.

PALMER TOWNSHIP STUDENTS WELCOMED

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair welcomes to the Hall of the House a delegation of students from the Palmer Township School of Northampton County under the supervision of their teachers Mrs. Susan McConalogue, Mr. Arthur Latp and Mr. Roland Moyer. They are the guests of the gentlemen from Northampton, Messrs. Gaffney, Pacchioli, Mrs. Reibman and Mr. Bucchin.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 193, as follows:

An Act amending the act of May 11, 1949 (P. L. 1210) entitled "An act relating to group life insurance describing permitted policies and restrictions thereon the premium basis thereof and rights thereunder limiting the amount of such insurance prescribing standard policy provisions and requiring notices of conversion privileges" providing for policies issued to associations of employers on behalf of its members

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Clause (4) of section 1 act of May eleven one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 1210) entitled "An act relating to group life insurance describing permitted policies and restrictions thereon the premium basis thereof and rights thereunder limiting the amount of such insurance prescribing standard policy provisions and requiring notice of conversion privileges" is amended to read

Section 1 Types Permitted No policy of group life insurance shall be delivered in this State unless it conforms to one of the following descriptions and to the requirements as to each set forth in sections two three four and five of this act

(4) A policy issued to the trustees of a fund established by an association of employers on behalf of its members or two or more employers in the same industry or by one or more labor unions or by one or more employers and one or more labor unions which trustees shall be deemed the policyholder to insure employes of the employers or members of the unions for the benefit of persons other than the employers or the unions

Section 2 Section 5 of the act amended July two one thousand nine hundred fifty-three (P. L. 350) is amended to read

Section 5 Policies Issued to Trustees of Joint Funds A policy issued to the trustees of a fund established by an association of employers on behalf of its members or two or more employers in the same industry or by one or more labor unions or by one or more employers and one or more labor unions to insure employes of the employers or members of the unions for the benefit of persons other than the employers or the unions shall be subject to the following requirements

(1) The persons eligible for insurance shall be all of the employes of the employers or all of the members of the unions or all of any class or classes thereof determined by conditions pertaining to their employment or to membership in the unions or to both The policy may provide that the term "employes" shall include retired employes and the individual proprietor or partners if an employer is an individual proprietor or a partnership The policy may provide that the term "employes" shall include the trustees or their employes or both if their duties are principally connected with such trusteeship

(2) The premium for the policy shall be paid by the trustees wholly from funds contributed by the employer or employers of the insured person or by the union or unions or by both No policy may be issued on which any part of the premium is to be derived from funds contributed by the insured persons specifically for their insurance The policy must insure all eligible persons or all except any as to whom evidence of individual insurability is not satisfactory to the insurer

(3) The policy must cover at date of issue at least one hundred persons and not less than an average of five persons per employer unit and if the fund is established by the members of an association of employers the policy may be issued only if (i) either (a) the participating employers constitute at date of issue at least sixty per cent of those employer members whose employes are not already covered for group life insurance or (b) the total number of persons covered at date of issue exceeds six hundred and (ii) the policy shall not require that if a participating employer discontinues membership in the association the insurance of his employes shall cease solely by reason of such discontinuance

(4) The amounts of insurance under the policy must be based upon some plan precluding individual selection either by the insured persons or by the policyholder employers or unions No policy may be issued which provides term insurance on any person which together with any other term insurance under any group life insurance policy or policies issued to the employees or any of them or to the trustees of a fund established in whole or in part by the employers or any of them exceeds twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) or one and one-half times the basic annual earned income of the person whichever is the greater but in no case exceeding forty thousand dollars ($40,000)

NOT VOTING—4

Brown,	Mikula,	Stroup,	Walsh,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for Concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 279, as follows:

An Act amending the act of June 23 1931 (P L 932) entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class and amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto" providing for examination for promotions in the police department and limiting and providing the procedure for the demotion of police officers and suspension of civil service employes

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk for information.

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 4408), page 5, line 14, by inserting after "appointed" or promoted.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the offering of an amendment at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, for the information of the House, this amendment which I have offered, simply adds the words "or promoted" in a section which relates to another section in the act concerning the appointment to a third class city police force and a promotion in the police force.

The intention and the effect of the amendment is to make sure that no police officers now holding any rank will be frozen into that rank without taking the qualifying examination that everybody else would have to take under this bill.

That, I understand, was the original intention of the bill as introduced, and this is more or less a clarifying amendment.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 384, as follows:

An Act amending the act of June 5 1947 (P. L. 458) entitled as amended "An act creating as bodies corporate and politic 'Parking Authorities' in cities of the first second second A and third classes boroughs and townships of the first class prescribing the rights powers and duties of such authorities authorizing such authorities to acquire construct improve maintain and operate parking projects to conduct research of the parking problem and to establish a permanent coordinated system of parking facilities and to borrow money and issue bonds therefor providing for the payment of such bonds and prescribing the rights of the holders thereof conferring the right of eminent domain on such authorities empowering such authorities to enter into contracts with and to accept grants from the Federal Government State political subdivisions of the State or any agency thereof exempting the property and securities of such parking authorities from taxation and conferring exclusive jurisdiction on certain courts over rates" changing the power to appoint members of the governing body of parking authorities in cities of the third class and prescribing the method of filling vacancies for unexpired terms on such bodies in cities of the third class boroughs and townships of the first class

Section 1 Subsection (a) of section 8 act of June 5 1947

(P. L. 458) known as the "Parking Authority Law" amended May 10 1951 (P. L. 291) is amended to read

Section 8 Governing Body

(a) The powers of each Authority shall be exercised by a board composed of five members the majority of whom shall be residents of such city borough or township of the first class and all of whom shall be residents of the county wherein the city borough or township of the first class is located The mayor of [the city] cities of the first class second class and second class A the city council of cities of the third class the president of the borough council or president of the board of township commissioners shall appoint the members of the board one of whom shall serve for one year one for two years one for three years one for four years and one for five years from the first day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-seven Thereafter the [said] appointing officer or body shall not sooner than sixty days nor later than thirty days prior to June first in each year in which a vacancy occurs appoint a member of the board for a term of five years to succeed the member whose term expires on the first day of June next succeeding Vacancies for unexpired terms that occur more than sixty days before the end of a term shall be promptly filled by appointment by the mayor of cities of the first class second class and second class A the city council of cities of the third class the president of the borough council or president of the board of township commissioners as the case may be Members of the board may be removed at the will of the appointing power

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the sponsor of the bill to explain to the membership of the House what the purpose of the bill is?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from York, Mr. Lawyer, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LAWYER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman explain the bill?

Mr. LAWYER. Mr. Speaker, this bill simply provides that in third class cities where they presently have the power, or the council has the power to create a parking authority, and the appointing of the members of the authority is in the mayor alone—this bill changes that and provides that the council also appoints the members of the authority.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman further?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. LAWYER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman mean that the council and the mayor now will appoint?

Mr. LAWYER. Mr. Speaker, no, the mayor only appoints under the present law.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, under the new law will both the mayor and the council appoint?

Mr. LAWYER. Mr. Speaker, that is correct.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, we have a number of third class cities and we have had no complaints whatever concerning the authority of the mayor to appoint the members of the authority. Does the gentleman have a specific case of where there is trouble under the present act?

Mr. LAWYER. Mr. Speaker, I think that would be obvious, or there would not be a bill.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman care to state if it is one particular case, or if there are a number of cases where we are having trouble under the present system of appointing these members of the authority?

Mr. LAWYER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to answer that in this way, I feel this bill before the House is a logical bill. The purpose of the bill is to furnish the consistency which would be provided by having the body that can create this authority also appoint the members to the authority. It seems as though it is a foolish thing to permit the authority to be created and then permit one person to prevent the thing from going into effect by not appointing the members to the authority.

Mr. LOVETT. May I ask the gentleman in case of a tie in a third class city on appointments of an authority if the mayor would not cast the deciding vote?

Mr. LAWYER. The mayor would cast a vote originally. He would not have to wait the event of a tie; he would be voting on the matter originally.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, is your law then different from the law covering boroughs, in regard to a tie vote in council?

Mr. LAWYER. Mr. Speaker, the mayor in every instance, as I understand it, is a member of council for all purposes, so far as voting on any ordinance or anything else is concerned.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, what is the membership of your council?

Mr. LAWYER. Mr. Speaker, third class cities—that is four councilmen and a mayor.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, four and one?

Mr. LAWYER. Mr. Speaker, that is right.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, of course, the gentleman is familiar with the fact that in boroughs—

Mr. LAWYER. Mr. Speaker, this bill, I might point out, applies only to third class cities.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I realize that it only applies to third class cities, but I thought the cities form of voting is the same. I may have been mistaken there. I thought the mayor only voted—

Mr. LAWYER. Mr. Speaker, the mayor votes in all instances.

Mr. LOVETT. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

We have a number of third class cities under the present law and we have had no trouble whatever. We have had no complaints from our third class cities on the appointing power under the act providing for authorities. I do not see any reason why we should pass a bill because of a quarrel in some one particular place, when the majority of the third class cities find that the act at present is satisfactory. Therefore, I ask the membership to vote against this bill.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I want to agree with the gentleman from York. He has very ably stated the reasons why this bill should pass.

To me it seems idiotic to say that if four councilmen out of the five officials, including the mayor, agree that there should be a parking authority, it is nothing short of idiotic to say that the mayor alone can then defeat the entire thing by refusing to appoint the members. That is exactly what can happen and is happening in one of the third class cities in this state.

If the four councilmen do not represent the people of that community in their thinking and so forth, then they had better get new representatives. I see no sense in allowing a mayor to defeat such a program simply by the expedient of refusing to name anybody as a member of the authority. To me this bill is highly sensible and should be passed.

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, the proposal that is before us, House Bill No. 384, Printer's No. 139, is an attempt to amend the act in circumventing, only in cities of the third class the appointive power of the mayor in appointing members of parking authorities, and transferring that to council.

Now, I do not know what condition in a particular city has brought this about, but if we approach this matter that is before us as good legislation, then it would seem to me that it would be good legislation for cities of the first class, cities of the second class and cities of the second class A as well as the third class cities.

We have a goodly number of third class cities in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and to date I have received no request for such a change being incorporated into our appointive act in reference to parking authorities.

I believe that the right place to rectify the problems that the gentleman from York has is for the elctorate to do that at an election. Why disturb the orderly procedure in the fifty some odd cities of the third class in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by instituting such a change as this at this particular time?

In the event that the proposal is made with the thought that it is good government to do it in this order, then I would assume that the proposal would have been made all down the line for every city in the Commonwealth to so select the members on their parking authorities.

I believe this is an improper time to make such a change, because we have had the act on the books for some time and our third class cities, the great majority of them, are operating very orderly under the present system.

Therefore, I ask the Members of the House to sustain the orderly procedure that we have enacted into law in the past, under which the great majority of cities are now living and working under, and to refer this proposal back to the electorate to rectify the problem at the next ensuing election for the mayoralty.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, may I further interrogate the sponsor of the bill?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from York, Mr. Lawyer, permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. LAWYER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. If the gentleman's bill passed, would the appointees to the authorities in third class cities made by the mayor, could the council then demand that they have a right to appoint and dismiss the men that are now at the head of those authorities?

Mr. LAWYER. My answer to that would be, no. The act would only become effective in the present parking authorities when there is a vacancy.

Mr. LOVETT. Do you make that statement of your own knowledge that the council could not, if they so wished, request. . .

Mr. LAWYER. The act itself provides as to the manner of filling vacancies. And I would certainly think that the proper legal interpretation of the act would not affect any existing parking authorities.

Mr. LOVETT. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, I agree with my colleague, Mr. Petrosky, that I cannot see any reason at this time for changing the present law, especially since it does not affect first and second class cities under their system of appointing authorities.

I therefore, ask that the Members vote against the bill.

Mr. LAWYER. Mr. Speaker, I do not desire to prolong this debate unnecessarily. I simply want to say in conclusion that the matters brought out by Mr. Readinger, are certainly impelling reasons to vote on behalf of this bill. I think it is a good bill. I think it is certainly not going to hurt any of the cities.

In answer to Mr. Petrosky, I represent a third class city, and I have been sitting in this House since January. I have noticed a number of bills that are being presented with respect to specific classes. I am not concerned with the first and second class cities, but only with the third class cities.

I feel that we have a situation here that has arisen once that I know of. I don't know how many of the third class cities have parking authorities. But I do know that it is certainly no burden upon anyone to permit the power which has the right to create an authority to appoint the members to that authority and not to be stymied by one individual.

I urge everyone on both sides of the House to support this legislation.

Mr. FILO. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate Mr. Lawyer.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the sponsor, the gentleman from York, Mr. Lawyer, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LAWER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FILO. Does this bill have the approval of the third class cities' league?

Mr. LAWYER. I cannot answer that question.

Mr. FILO. Well, I too represent third class cities, in fact two of them. I would ask Mr. Lawyer to pass over this bill until he gets verification from the Third Class City League.

Mr. LAWYER. I feel the bill is quite clear, it is very simple, I see no reason to pass it over. I am willing to have the matter brought to a head now.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Section 802.1 act of May 1 1929 (P L 905) known as "The Vehicle Code" added July 16 1935 (P L 1056) as amended to read

Section 802.1 Multiple Beam Road Lighting Equipment Except as hereinafter provided the headlamps or the auxiliary driving lamps or combinations thereof on motor vehicles other than motorcycles or motor driven cycles shall be so arranged that the driver may select at will between distributions of light projected to different elevations and the lamps may in addition be so arranged that the selection can be made automatically subject to the following requirements and limitations

(a) There shall be an uppermost distribution of light or composite beam so aimed and of such intensity as to reveal persons and vehicles at a distance of at least three hundred fifty (350) feet ahead for all conditions of loading [The maximum intensity of this uppermost distribution of light or composite beam one (1) degree of arc or more above the horizontal level of the lamps when the vehicle is not loaded shall not exceed eight thousand (8000) apparent candlepower and at no other point of the distribution of light or composite beam shall there be an intensity of more than seventy-five thousand (75,000) apparent candlepower

(b) There shall be a lowermost distribution of light or composite beam so aimed that

1 When the vehicle is not loaded none of the high intensity portion of the light which is directed to the left of the prolongation of the extreme left side of the vehicle shall at a distance of twenty-five (25) feet ahead project higher than a level of ten (10) inches below the level of the center of the lamp from which it comes

2 When the vehicle is not loaded none of the high intensity portion of the light which is directed to the right of the prolongation of the extreme left side of the vehicle shall at a distance of twenty-five (25) feet ahead project higher than a level of five (5) inches below the level of the center of the lamp from which it comes

3 In no event shall any of the high intensity of such lower-most distribution of light or composite beam project higher than a level of forty-two (42) inches above the level on which the vehicle stands at a distance of seventy-five (75) feet ahead

(c) Where one intermediate beam is provided the beam on the left side of the road shall be in conformity with subsection (b) one of this section except when arranged in accordance with the practice specified in subsection (e)

(d) All road lighting beams shall be so aimed and of sufficient intensity to reveal a person or vehicle at a distance of at least one hundred (100) feet ahead

(e) All road lighting equipment manufactured and installed on and after January first one thousand nine hundred thirty-six shall be so arranged that whenever any beam is used which is not in conformity with subsection (a) of this section two (2) white or yellow lights one (1) on each side of the vehicle visible to an oncoming driver and to the driver of said vehicle shall be lighted except that other suitable alternate means may be provided for indicating to the driver behind the light when such beams are on Indicator lights shall not be connected otherwise than as required in this paragraph Beam indicator lights and front parking lights shall be so connected that either of said lights shall be lighted when a beam is in use which conforms with subsection (b) one of this section]

(b) There shall be a lowermost distribution of light or composite beam so aimed and of sufficient intensity to reveal persons and vehicles at a distance of at least one hundred (100) feet ahead and on a straight level road under any condition of loading none of the high-intensity portion of the beam shall be directed to strike the eyes of an approaching driver

(c) Every motor vehicle other than a motorcycle or motor driven cycle registered in this State which has multiple beam road lighting equipment shall be equipped with a beam indicator which shall be lighted whenever the uppermost distribution of light from the headlamps is in use and shall not otherwise be lighted The indicator shall be so designed and located that when lighted it will be readily visible without glare to the driver of the vehicle so equipped

Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10.00) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days

Section 2 This act shall take effect immediately

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

Brown,	Mikula,	Stroup,	Walsh,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 733, as follows:

An Act amending the act of June 11 1947 (P. L. 565) entitled "An act providing compensation to certain persons who served in the military or naval forces of the United States or of any of her allies during World War II providing the method of making payment to representatives of persons who because of death or incapacity cannot personally receive compensation imposing certain duties on the Adjutant General making an appropriation and providing penalties" extending the time during which applications may be filed for veterans' compensation

Section 1 Section 5 act of June 11 1947 (P. L. 565) known as the "World War II Veterans' Compensation Act" amended April 15 1953 (P. L. 183) is amended to read

Section 5 Application for Compensation Applications for compensation shall be made to the Adjutant General on such forms and in such manner as he shall prescribe

Applicants shall state on their application whether or not they have applied for or received a bonus gratuity or compensation of a nature similar to that provided for by this act from any other state in the union

All applications shall be made (1) personally by the veteran or (2) in case of death or mental incompetency preventing the making of a personal application then by such representative of the veteran as the Adjutant General shall by regulation prescribe An application made by a representative other than one authorized by such regulation shall be held void

The Adjutant General shall not accept or consider any application filed with him after the thirty-first day of December one thousand nine hundred [fifty-three] fifty-six

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 756, as follows:

An Act amending the act of May 1 1929 (P. L. 905) entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety regulating the use of highways and the operation of vehicles tractors street cars trackless trolley omnibuses bicycles pedestrians and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth providing for the titling including liens encumbrances and legal claims registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof upon payment of prescribed fees prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Dpartment of Revenue the Department of Highways peace officers mayors burgesses magistrates aldermen justices of the peace the courts and the clerks thereof owners of vehicles and garage keepers providing that records are admissible as evidence imposing upon owners counties cities boroughs incorporated towns townships within the Commonwealth liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles imposing penalties imposing certain costs upon counties providing for the disposition of fines forfeitures fees and miscellaneous receipts making an appropriation and providing for refunds" changing the requirements regarding use of different types of danger and caution signals

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Section 824 act of May 1 1929 (P L 905) known as "The Vehicle Code" amended April 25 1945 (P L 304) and subsection (a) and penalty clause amended August 24 1951 (P L 1368) is amended to read

Section 824 Danger and Caution Signals

(a) Every motor bus and every motor omnibus for the carriage of passengers for hire except taxicabs and every commercial vehicle or combination of vehicles having a registered capacity gross weight of eleven thousand (11,000) pounds or more and every trailer or semitrailer designed for the living quarters or carriage of persons shall be equipped with [at least three (3) red flags of dimensions not less than twelve by twelve (12x12) inches and a sufficient number of flares not less than three (3) or electric lanterns electric flashing signals or other signals capable of continuously producing three warning lights each] one of the following combinations three red fusees three flares (liquid burning pot torches) and two red cloth flags or three red electric lanterns and two red cloth flags or three red emergency reflectors and two red cloth flags the flares (liquid burning pot torches) red electric lanterns red emergency reflectors or othr signals capable of continuously producing three warning lights shall be visible from a distance of at least five hundred (500) feet for a period of at least eight (8) hours [or three (3) reflector type flares Provided however That the] The provisions of this section shall not apply to vehicles within the confines of a municipality or within a business or residence district

(a.1) All other motor vehicles shall be equipped with a sufficient number of red burning fusee type flares not less than three (3) or electric lanterns giving a red light electric flashing signals giving a red light or other signals giving a red light and capable of continuously producing a red warning light visible from a distance of at least fixe hundred (500) feet for a period of at least forty-five (45) minutes or not less than three (3) red emergency reflectors The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to vehicles within the confines of a municipality or within a business or residence district

(a.2) Every such flare fusee electric lantern electric flashing signal red emergency reflector [type flare] or other signal shall be of a type approved by the secretary and he shall publish lists of those devices which he has approved as adequate for the purposes of this section No fusee shall be approved which after burning leaves a residue or stand-up device containing a metal spike nail or any object or substance which if allowed to remain upon the highway would constitute a danger or hazard

(b) Whenever any such vehicle as provided in subsection (a) of this section and its lighting equipment are disabled during the period when lighted lamps must be displayed on vehicles or when visibility is impaired by fog snow or other atmospheric condition and such vehicle cannot immediately be removed from the main traveled portion of a highway outside of a business or residence district or if the lighting equipment on any such vehicle is not disabled but due to its position upon the highway or by reason of contours or curves in such highway it may constitute a menace to other vehicular traffic the operator or other person in charge of such vehicle shall [cause such flares lanterns flashing signals or other signals to be lighted and placed upon the highway or reflector type flares placed upon the highway] immediately place on the traveled portion of the highway at the traffic side of the vehicle a lighted fusee a lighted red electric lantern or a red emergency reflector if the stop is to exced fifteen minutes the driver shall place emergency signals as required in the following manner One (1) at a distance of approximately one hundred (100) feet in advance of such vehicle one (1) at a distance of approximately one hundred (100) feet to the rear of the vehicle and the third upon the highway side of the vehicle except that if the vehicle is transporting flammables such vehicle shall be equipped with a sufficient number of electric flares of electric flashing signals or [reflector type flares] red emergency reflectors not less than three (3) Whenever any such vehicle is disabled during the period when lighted lamps are not required to be displayed on vehicles and such vehicle cannot immediately be removed from the main traveled portion of a highway outside of a business or residence district or whenever a vehicle is disabled upon the highway and by reason of contours or curves in such highway it may constitute a menace to other vehicular traffice the operator or other person in charge of such vehicle shall cause the red flags to be placed upon the highway One (1) at a distance of approximately one hundred (100) feet [in advance of such vehicle and one (1) at a distance of approximately one hundred (100) feet to the rear of the vehicle and the third upon the highway side of the vehicle] from the vehicle in the center of the traffic lane occupied by such vehicle toward traffic approaching in that lane one (1) at a distance of approximately one hundred (100) feet in the opposite direction from the vehicle in the center of the traffic lane occupied by such vhicle

(b.1) Whenever all other motor vehicles as provided for in subsection (a.1) of this section and its lighting equipment are disabled during the period when lighted lamps must be displayed on vehicles or when visability is impaired by fog snow or other atmospheric condition and such vehicle cannot immediately be removed from the main traveled portion of a highway outside of a business or residence district or if the lighting equipment on any such vehicle is not disabled but due to its position upon the highway or by reason of contours or curves in such highway it may constitute a menance to other vehicular traffice the operator or other person in charge of such vehicle shall cause such a fusee electric lantern electric flashing signal or other electric signal capable of continuously producing a warning light to be placed upon the highway at a distance of approximately fifty (50) feet to the rear of the vehicle except if red emergency reflectors are used the operator or other person in charge of such vehicle shall place one (1) upon the highway fifty (50) feet to the rear of the vehicle one (1) one hundred (100) feet to the rear of the vehicle and one (1) one hundred fifty (150) feet to the rear of the vehicle

(c) No person shall at any time operate a vehicle transporting explosives as a cargo or part of a cargo upon a highway unless it carries electric lanterns or electric flashing signals or reflector type flares as herein required but such electric lanterns or electric flashing signals must be capable of producing a red light and such reflector type flares must be in good condition capable of reflecting light an on-coming vehicle at least five hundred (500) feet and shall be displayed upon the highway when and as required in this section

Penalty Any owner or operator who shall fail to comply with any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of twenty-five ($25) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than (10) days

Section 2 This act shall take effect November 1 1955

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will either of the sponsors of the bill permit himself to be interrogated?

Mrs. MARKLEY. I shall Mr. Speaker.

Mr. READINGER. Would the lady from Lehigh please explain to the House what it will be necessary for all passenger car owners to purchase in order to comply with this bill?

Mrs. MARKLEY. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman will refer to the bill, he will notice that it says, "Flares, fusees, electric lanterns, electric flashing signals," one or the other, approved by the Secretary.

Mr. READINGER. Approved by the Secretary of Revenue?

Mrs. MARKLEY. Yes, sir.

Mr. READINGER. Does the bill describe the type of flares?

Mrs. MARKLEY. That is left to the discretion of the Secretary. It would have to be approved by the department as a proper safety measure. It is purely a safety bill.

Mr. READINGER. Can the lady tell me what the presently marketed flares cost?

Mrs. MARKLEY. I spoke to somebody just recently, Mr. Speaker, and they informed me they have the type of flare that they feel would be approved, which cost 49 cents apiece.

I understand further, Mr. Speaker, that there are other reflectors or flares at a higher cost, but that depends entirely upon the individual as to what type he would purchase.

Mr. READINGER. Is it possible under this bill for the Secretary of Revenue to approve a flare which might cost $2 apiece?

Mrs. MARKLEY. It is possible.

Mr. READINGER. And nothing less than that.

Mrs. MARKLEY. There is no limit on the cost in the bill, Mr. Speaker. As to the cost of flares, however, I am sure it will be a flare that is acceptable and that is safe and $2 a flare is a very small amount compared to a loss of life on the highways.

Mr. READINGER. I understand that the purpose of this bill is to provide greater safety for cars which might break down on the highway at night.

Mrs. MARKLEY. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. READINGER. Has the lady any information on the number of accidents which have occurred in Pennsylvania during the last year due to the fact that a car was on the highway at night, which could not have been pushed off the highway before an accident happened?

Mrs. MARKLEY. I do not have the Pennsylvania figures, Mr. Speaker, but I have the national figures, if the gentleman would like them.

Mr. READINGER. I would be delighted to hear them.

Mrs. MARKLEY. According to the report of the American Automobile Association, there were 41 million calls for assistance from motorists with disabled vehicles. Two-thirds of these calls, or almost 28 million, involved vehicles stalled on streets and highways. For instance, I can just mention one, this was in the Evening News of Thursday, March 24th, on a Turnpike crash, where two sisters from Chester were killed enroute from a basketball play-off, when their car was disabled and struck by a truck. That is the thing that I had in mind in sponsoring this bill, that type of accident.

Mr. READINGER. Does the lady have any details on that as to how long the car which was disabled was on the highway before it was struck? Was it there 5 minutes or 10 seconds?

Mrs. MARKLEY. I do not, Mr. Speaker, but apparently it takes a while to get help when you are on a highway. This bill does not affect you in a municipality as much as on a public highway. It all depends how far you are from a telephone or how long it is before you get assistance from a passing motorist. I do not think that you could limit the time as to when you might get help.

Mr. READINGER. Did the lady say that the accident of which she has spoken happened on the Turnpike?

Mrs. MARKLEY. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. READINGER. And does the lady know why the vehicel which was disabled was not removed from the traveled portion of the Turnpike and put on the shoulder of the road?

Mrs. MARKLEY. I do not have that, Mr. Speaker. I merely know that it was a disabled car which was struck by an oncoming car and this disabled car did not have a signal which warned the oncoming car. There were people in the car and they had to have help to push it off of the highway apparently.

Mr. READINGER. You say some people were killed?

Mrs. MARKLEY. Two sisters were killed.

Mr. READINGER. And they were sitting in the car on the highway at the time it happened?

Mrs. MARKLEY. Waiting for assistance, that is correct. That is my impression, Mr. Speaker. I do not have the details of the accident.

Mr. READINGER. They were sitting in a car with no lights on it, on a highway, waiting for assistance to come?

Mrs. MARKLEY. I do not have the details of this particular accident, Mr. Speaker. There are many accidents which occur and I cannot answer as to the details on that accident. The time I saw the accident an individual car was struck by a truck and I thought it was absolutely necessary that something be done to warn oncoming cars when a car was stalled on a highway. Trucks presently, are compelled to carry flares, and if it has been acceptable, and has been found a safety measure for trucks, I can see no reason why pleasure cars should not do the same thing.

Mr. READINGER. The lady spoke a minute ago about some 28 million calls for assistance, I believe.

Mrs. MARKLEY. That is correct.

Mr. READINGER. Do you have the breakdown on the figures to show how many of those calls for assistance came from people who were broken down within a municipality, a well lighted municipality?

Mrs. MARKLEY. These were on the highways. It is an American Automobile Association report.

Mr. READINGER. Well, streets in cities are highways too, I believe.

Mrs. MARKLEY. I do not have the breakdown but suppose we cut it in half, 14 million from 28 million, I think that would be justified.

Mr. READINGER. That would probably be a good figure.

Mrs. MARKLEY. Mr. Speaker, I feel if it saves only one life it is justified.

Mr. READINGER. May I ask the lady if she knows how many registered passenger cars there are in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania?

Mrs. MARKLEY. I do not, but I think the gentlemen would know because you intend to tax them.

Mr. READINGER. Touche. May I remind the lady that her party has been taxing them for a long time. Would the lady disagree if I said there are approximately 6 million registered passenger cars in the state of Pennsylvania?

Mrs. MARKLEY. It is probably closer to 7.

Mr. READINGER. We shall then agree on 7 for the purpose of the argument. Is that agreed?

Mrs. MARKLEY. I am told by my colleagues there are 3 million pleasure cars.

Mr. READINGER. And the lady says it is her opinion that if only one life is saved by compelling 3 million people to buy flares it is worthwhile?

Mrs. MARKLEY. I would say so, sir, and I would also say further there are many people today who presently carry these flares. I was amazed to find among many of my friends and people with whom I have discussed this since I became interested in this legislation, who presently carry electric flares. In fact, I found that several wives have given their husbands flares for Christmas presents to carry in their automobiles.

Mr. READINGER. I thank the lady for the idea. May I ask whether the lady herself has ever purchased a flare or carried one in any of her automobiles?

Mrs. MARKLEY. No, sir, but I intend to very quickly and that is why I priced them.

Mr. READINGER. I thank the lady, Mr. Speaker.

Much as I believe in the idea of highway safety, I can not agree that this is a good bill to pass. I do not know how many accidents there may have been in Pennsylvania in the last year or the last twenty years due to the fact that somebody was disabled on the highway, could not move a car from the highway and might have avoided an accident or injury by having flares. I have no idea how many such instances there have been, and I do not intend to vote for a bill which is going to force, in my opinion, 6 million people to purchase flares whch they will put in a compartment of their car and probably forget where they are, or which will probably be worn out in one way or another before the exigency arises for which they are to be used.

Part of our tax program is to increase the registration fee from ten to fifteen dollars, the additional money, of course, to be used solely for highway purposes, and I do not want to become a party to imposing upon millions of people the need to purchase this equipment. I have known cars to run out of water on the highways and I certainly would not want to vote to require the owners of automobiles to purchase a canteen and carry water with them at all times, and I do not think you would either. That would be a safety measure. They might have to walk 20 miles to get back to a place where they could get water if they are not carrying it. But it seems to me that in most instances, a car which becomes disabled can be pushed on to the side of the road and will not be in anybody's way, nor will it cause any accidents.

According to Mrs. Markley and her recital of what happened on the Turnpike or whatever road it was, if people break down on a highway at night, have no lights of their own and just sit in the automobile waiting for somebody to come along, they are asking for injury and death, and I do not think a flare system is going to prevent things of that kind from happening. It is true it might save four or five lives over a period of time, it might save somebody from an injury, but most of us like to prevent injuries from happening to ourselves and we immediately do what we can to prevent injuries.

We are, of course, all equipped—all automobiles are equipped, trucks are equipped with headlights and we should not be traveling at speeds which make us unable to stop within the range of our own headlights. It is true it happens at times. I have passed many trucks which had no tail lights—they had tail lights but they were not operating, but the flares would not have helped in that situation because those trucks were moving. So I am asking the membership to vote against this bill. I do not want to see the people saddled with the additional cost which this would impose upon them.

Mr. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, during the years 1938 up to 1946, I have been part of a law enforcement agency and I have witnessed some nasty accidents. I know there was no law compelling a motorist to own flares, but at all times our police force carried flares and placed the flares to prevent other people from ramming into the accident.

I was a person that patrolled a route, and I think 22,000 cars traveled on it, and I do say this, that if we had flares at that time some of the accidents could have been prevented. Some of these cars were smashed and the people were not able to have assistance. A car could not get to them at the time, and because of the condition of the road with a terrible bend, another accident was caused. Probably if somebody in the car had flares the accident could have been prevented.

I know of many instances, I have traveled I think, a good section of this state, where cars cannot be pushed to the shoulder, there is no room. If a car stalls you will have to push it either into the river or you will have to push it over the mountain, over the cliff. There is no room to push the car to the side on the shoulder. I say this, I have witnessed it, and I say if there were a law in this state to make motorists buy flares and compel them to have them, if it only costs 49 cents I think it is going to save many a life in this state. I say this, from my own experience, it is a good bill. I say it is something that every car should have.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I think Mr. Amarando and Mrs. Markley certainly are to be complimented on offering this type of legislation.

As an automobile dealer, I do not expect to sell flares, because I am not in the flare business. But I have a friend, or I did have one, who would be living today if he had had flares. His car stalled, he was in a place where he had to get it off the road, or thought he did. He was attempting to push it and a car came over the hill and killed him.

I cannot follow the Majority Leader's thinking that a person would not be sitting in the car. The person coming up on that car that has no lights could be just as dead as the people in the car that might be disabled, so you are not only endangering the people that are possibly going to come on to you, but people who are following that car, or people coming in the opposite direction.

There is a law that all trucks have to have flares. The State Police certainly carry them, and as the gentleman has just said practically all of your other law enforcement men carry them. It is not going to impose any burden. I certainly will be only too glad to spend a dollar or two for fusees or flares in order to protect, not only the people who might be in my automobile waiting while we get a tire fixed, or get a battery, or something else, but the people who might run into it. I think it is good legislation and I think it should be voted for.

Mr. GARLOCK. Mr. Speaker, I think the intent of this bill was probably very good, as a lot of other legislation has been. I happen to have been connected with an inspection station where we had trucks coming in for inspection, and I definitely know that even the flare law as it applies to trucks is not enforced. About fifty per cent of all the trucks that came in for inspection in the station with which I was connected, and I believe this applies generally, do not have any signs or flares on the truck, or they are not in working order. Those type flares would be of no benefit to anybody on the highway. The flare you spoke of, the forty-nine cent flare, is an emergency type flare, it is used one time and one time only. The flares that pass the truck inspection law cost approximately $6.00 for the set, that is about the cheapest you can hope to get by on, and for that reason I am opposing the bill.

Mr. AMARANDO. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inform the Members of this House that this bill was put in for only one reason, if it saved the lives of only one, two, or three persons within a year's time, it would be well paid for.

Mr. Readinger tells us about the cost. This is not a yearly cost, this is a one-time buy. If you use it to save a life, you will go out and spend $10 more to buy another set of flares. Secondly, he talks about putting the car on the side of the road. My good colleague explained that many roads do not have shoulders. For many years I drove a truck up and down the highways of this Commonwealth and the State of New York. Many people I saw killed by crashing into parked cars along the side of the road. Whether this bill falls or moves today, I am satisfied that I tried to help to save somebody in the future. And I want to thank everyone of you who is going to help to support this bill today.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Amarando.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Amarando, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. AMARANDO. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Do you have any figures to show how many accidents we have had where flares have been used?

Mr. AMARANDO. Mr. Speaker, I do not believe that the Safety Division of the State of Pennsylvania has in their accident reports whether or not flares were used.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I think as an educational program it is a very good thing, but I am thinking of the traveling public that comes into our state and do not know anything about the law of Pennsylvania that they must have flares. They have a little trouble along the highway, and the fine in this bill, I think, is $25. Those are the people that I am thinking of. I do not think it is necessary to make it a law that they must have flares. I think we should educate the people to the fact that they should carry flares. As far as law is concerned, I think we are going a long way when we are interfering with the general traveling public.

We find now that people complain very much about being mistreated when they visit our state because of the action of our police officers throughout the state in speed zones, and so on and so forth. I think this is just placing another burden upon the general public and it will not help the good feeling for the State of Pennsylvania. If it is an educational program, I would be for it one hundred per cent, but I do not think that it should be law.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I do not want to belabor the point at all, and I hope nobody takes a personal view on this thing. I have no personal reason to oppose this, and I am certainly not opposing it as the Floor Leader.

I am doing so as an individual legislator, just as you are taking a position for or against it.

Early this session I introduced a bill in the House which would have required reexamination of all drivers in Pennsylvania after they reached the age of sixty-five. I did not make it include everybody of any age because of the cost involved. It would cost quite a few millions of dollars to reexamine every Pennsylvania driver for example, every five years. I assure you I have been soundly berated by many people over the age of sixty-five as picking on them, singling them out, trying to pass a piece of class legislation, all of which is not so at all. I did not believe I would have any chance of getting through this Legislature a bill which would require the reexamination of every driver every five years, and that is exactly what I think the law of Pennsylvania should require. In order to finance a matter of that kind, it would be necessary to assess each driver examined the cost of examining him, it might be a dollar, it might be two dollars. I do not know what the cost would be. The driver would have to go to a central point at some place in the county, drive his car with some official present, and answer questions, and so forth, to see whether he is still a fit driver. I believe most people will agree that after you reach the age of sixty-five physical infirmities occur with increasing severity and that therefore, you will find more persons among that group who by reason of age and infirmities might not be safe to be on the highways any more.

Here we are considering a bill which would, according to Mr. Garlock, possibly cost each passenger car owner $6.00 or even $4.00 for the purpose of carrying a flare which he might use and might be glad to have, which he can now buy, if he wants, without being forced to by law. When I think of compelling the people of this state, and I think there would be six or seven million of them, to buy these things, it seems to me we would save a great many more lives if we would change our laws on the examination of drivers and prevent them from killing other people, or getting killed, because by reason of one thing or another they are no longer fit to drive.

I would like very much to see the bill I have mentioned pass this House. If we are going to do something of that kind, then I would go along with this, but I do not see any point in spending this money where the other factor I am talking about is costing many, many more lives in this state.

Mrs. MARKLEY. I do not want to prolong this debate, but since the gentleman was speaking about his bill and he was permitted to continue to talk about a bill which he has introduced which has nothing to do with the present bill, I wonder if he realizes the cost of that particular bill to the Commonwealth. Since we are talking about costs, I feel this is such a small item when it comes to saving a life, and we are making a great to-do about it, that I do not think the Majority Leader is consistent in his thinking when he is trying to save pennies and spend millions.

I would like the Members of the House to vote for this bill, because the life you save may be your own.

Mr. McCANN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to place in the record a few remarks regarding this particular bill.

A moment ago a previous speaker stated that the flares cost a stipulated amount of money. Myself, I have had occasion to travel the Pennsylvania Turnpike week after week throughout many years prior to being a Member of this House. I noticed on various occasions that trucks parked along the highway, the super-highway, have devices that are of the reflector type and not the flare type. I noticed particularly last week two trailer trucks that used this type.

In reading this bill I also notice that it says reflector type. Therefore, it is my opinion that the Secretary has the right under this bill to designate the type, and surely the reflector type that we are speaking of could not possibly be in the $6.00 category, it looked more like "five and dime" stuff to me, possibly forty-nine or fifty-nine cents apiece.

I myself asked many questions about this bill in Committee. There are those of us who agree that the cost to motorists would be a certain amount, but at the same time there are many of us who feel that those who have automobiles and drive on the highways have certain responsibilities. I, for one, believe that if you own a car you should have insurance, it should be compulsory.

Perhaps there is objection to the way the bill is worded by the two sponsors, I am not sure of that. If that is the case regarding this particular bill, it is my honest belief that it could be rectified and corrected to suit the wishes of the Members of this House so that it would specifically say the type of reflector they are speaking about and you could actually determine the cost.

In my own humble opinion, Mr. Speaker, if this is a matter of one or two dollars regarding the automobiles in this Commonwealth, I believe that our Commonwealth should lead the field in safety because of the number of vehicles that we have and the highways that we have. I certainly urge that they think very seriously in this regard, because we are endeavoring to reduce traffic accidents within this Commonwealth and, if this will reduce them or save one life and it is a matter of a dollar or two in the reflector type, I certainly believe we should consider it seriously and at least go along with this bill in this particular session.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. LOVETT. Mr Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I wish to make a correction on my vote on House Bill 684, Printer's No. 198, on which I voted "no" under a misapprehension.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Does the gentleman desire to be recorded as voting "aye?"

Mr. LOVETT. I do, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. That is as far as your statement is concerned?

Mr. LOVETT. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman understands his vote cannot be changed now. The result has been announced. The remarks of the gentleman will be noted upon the record.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

NAYS—1

Frost,

NOT VOTING—4

Brown, Mikula, Stroup, Walsh,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 86, as follows:

An Act amending the act of June twenty-eight one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. L. 477) entitled as amended "An act providing for the payment of the salary medical and hospital expenses of policemen firemen and park guards by counties cities boroughs towns and townships who are injured in the performance of their duty and providing that absence during such injury shall not reduce any usual sick leave period" extending the provisions thereof to the State Police Force

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. BANKER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

Amend Title, page 1, last line of Title, by inserting after "Force" and to employes of State penal, correctional or mental institutions.

Amend Sec. 1 (Title), page 2, line 13, by inserting after "Force" employes of State penal, correctional and mental institutions.

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 1), page 3, line 2, by inserting after "or" where is appears the first time any employe of a State penal, correctional or mental institution, or.

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 1), page 3, line 7, by inserting after "or" where it appears the first time if an employe of any State penal, correctional or mental institution, or.

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 1), page 4, line 3, by inserting after "Force" or an employe of a State penal, correctional or mental institution.

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 1), page 4, line 6, by inserting after "Force" employe of a State penal, correctional or mental institution.

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 1), page 4, line 9, by inserting after "Force" employe of a State penal, correctional or mental institution.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the offering of amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. BANKER. Mr. Speaker, my amendment brings the employes of our state penal, mental and correctional institutions under the Act.

This amendment first of all has the blessing of the sponsors of the bill as given to me by Senator Dent. He added at that time that had he and the other sponsor thought of it, they would have been included, at the time they wrote the bill. There are no objections from the Senate to my amendment.

The Act provides that any person covered by it who is injured in the performance of his duty shall be fully compensated for all medical and hospital bills. His salary shall be continued for the length of his incapacity. His vacation or sick leave shall not be charged with his absence. Disability arising from heart dseases or tuberculosis if attributable to his occupation are compensable, subject to present compensation laws.

If a guard in one of our institutions is attacked, he gets just what the compensation laws give him and nothing more. He loses his salary while off duty, due to his injuries. He loses his vacation and sick leave if he is off for a sufficient length of time. He must pay all nursing costs, if he is so fortunate to survive his injuries. If he is killed he gets nothing.

In my own home town we have two men whose lives were spared but who will never work again. One of them was injured back in 1921 or '22, somewhere back at that time. That man today is still living, in good health. But his injuries destroyed his sense of balance. Anywhere he may go today, he is walking around with his arm over some friend. He got nothing. He is still living but is dependent upon his relatives or whomsoever may take care of him.

The other, a personal friend of mine, was attacked three or four years ago by inmates without reason. He was beaten severely and then thrown into a big washing machine, the current turned on, and left there. He was very fortunate in being rescued before he lost his life. Today he is walking the streets. He cannot take any job. His nerves are in bad condition. All that man received was just compensation and what little retirement he had to take care of him the rest of his life.

Our third incident in Huntingdon took place a year ago. This is just one institution I am speaking of. This man was attacked by four boys. I imagine most everyone read about that, it was in all of the papers. They stabbed this man to death. One widow, four children, no support. No provision for any help for them.

Ladies and gentlemen, this bill is humane, it may cost us money, certainly, but who is more deserving? These men working in our institutions are in peril every second of the time they are on duty. No one can predict what an inmate of an institution is going to do for any five minutes. These accidents all arise because no one can predict what an inmate will do. On top of that the compensation that they receive is certainly little, or small, I will say. They receive a fair compensation, today, but not a good one. I am only talking about our own institution. As an example, three-fourths of those men on their days off are occupied with some extra curricular activity to make enough money to try and keep their families going, and their children living with other children in a commensurate way.

I cannot see anythng against the bill. And I am asking you please to give these fellows a break.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose these amendments. I would like, like Mr. Banker, to give these little fellows a break and so forth, but I cannot do so until I have better information than he has been able to supply on the number of people in these institutions about which he is speaking, and the amount of money which would be involved in extending to them this additional protection—and that is what it is. This protection originally was given to policemen and farm and park guards, by the Act of 1935, and this present bill seeks to extend it to the state police, all of whom in their own official duties are engaged in hazardous work.

I had asked the gentleman who is offering these amendments to embody these amendments in a separate bill, introduce it and give me an opportunity to consult with the administration to find out how many of these people are involved and approximately what it might cost. We have lots of records indicating what the compensation has cost the Commonwealth over the years for people who work for it and who are injured.

For example, in all mental and penal institutions there are hundred of people, hundreds, thousands perhaps, who have no contact at all with the prisoners or have no contact with the patients, especially the dangerous patients. Girls in offices, men in, we will say laundries, and so forth, whose work is not hazardous in the sense that a fireman's and a policeman's is, will be brought within the terms of this bill by his amendment. He would get complete and full medical care. He would get the other advantages which now exist under the law for those who are covered by it.

I think it is inadvisable for us to vote for these amendments, with the meager information we have. I have not been able to get any, I have not had the time since this bill was reported out, to find out what it is going to cost and how many people it will affect.

Another reason that I could advance at this time for not approving these amendments is this: If it is good to extend this protection to the employes of these various institutions why not extend it to all the employes of the Department of Property and Supplies. Lots of those people do dangerous work. They crawl up on ladders, they do many things in the maintenance program of the buildings of this Commonwealth and perhaps some of them get hurt. They are covered by workmen's compensation now and they should be. They should receive medical benefits and they should receive compensation of some kind.

But this bill, to which this amendment is now offered, goes much further than that. It puts them in a favorite class as far as taking care of them is concerned. I say we should not be doing this before we have much more information and before we weigh the equities of putting everybody under such a system.

I ask that you vote against these amendments and I assure you, that if these amendments are defeated and Mr. Banker puts in a bill such as I have suggested, if it can be done—

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the Majority Leader yield to the sponsor of the amendments?

Mr. READINGER. I will yield.

Mr. BANKER. Mr. Speaker, looking the House over, seeing the absentee membership and knowing that there are a lot of men who are interested in this question on both sides of the House, if the Majority Leader will consent, I would like to have it passed over or postponed.

AMENDMENTS WITHDRAWN

Mr. BANKER. Mr. Speaker, I will withdraw the amendments and move to put the bill on the postponed calendar to be considered later.

Mr. READINGER. I have no objection, Mr. Speaker, to passing this over or postponing it.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. BANKER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the third reading postponed calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 114, as follows:

An Act amending the act of May 2 1925 (P L 448) entitled "An act relating to fish and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth" authorizing issuance of free licenses to certain veterans

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Subsection (b) of Section 220 act of May 2 1925 (P L 448) known as "The Fish Law of one thousand nine hundred twenty-five" amended July 28 1953 (P L 666) is amended to read

Section 220 Resident Fishing License Fees

* * *

(b) Any disabled veteran of any war or armed conflict whose disability consists of the loss of one or more limbs or the loss of the use of one or more limbs or a veteran who is totally blind and who meets the above qualifications shall be issued such license upon application to any county treasurer without the payment of the above license fee provided for the use of the Commonwealth The application for the issuance of a license in such case shall in addition to the other information required contain a statement that the applicant is a war or armed conflict veteran and that his disability was service incurred The county treasurer may likewise require of such applicant the production of such applicant's discharge papers

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILLS PASSED OVER

There being no objection,

Senate Bill No. 155, Printer's No. 81

was passed over at the request of the SPEAKER pro tempore.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 171, as follows:

An Act amending the act of June 23 1931 (P. L. 932) entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class and amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto" further regulating the power of the directors of the various departments to suspend certain employes and providing appeals

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Section 4408 act of June 23 1931 (P. L. 932) known as "The Third Class City Code" amended June 28 1951 (P. L. 662) is amended to read

Section 4408 Suspension and Discharge Reduction of Employes Appeals All employes subject to civil service shall be subject to suspension by the director of the department for misconduct or violation of any law of this Commonwealth any ordinance of the city or regulation of the department pending action by the city council upon the charges made against any of such employes On hearing before the city council where they may be represented by counsel they may be fined or suspended for a period not exceeding thirty days with or without pay or they may be discharged by city council if found guilty of the charges made against them The director of each such department may for misconduct or violation as aforesaid suspend any employe of such department for a period of ten days with or without pay without preferring charges and without a hearing of council [Provided however That if] but no employe shall be suspended more than one time for the identical or same violation or act of misconduct If it should become necessary to reduce the number of men in said department for purposes of economy seniority rights shall prevail and any and all removals for such cause or causes shall be from the members last appointed and the member or members serving the shortest time shall be removed first but members with longer times of service may be discharged for cause

Any civil service employe aggrieved by the action of the council in fining suspending or discharging him shall have the right to appeal by petition to the court of common pleas within thirty days after the suspension or after receipt of written notice of such action by council which it shall be the duty of the council to give and the court shall hear the charges made against him de novo The issue before the court shall be whether the action of the council shall be affirmed or be modified in any respect or whether the charges should be dismissed or whether the suspension made by the director shall be affirmed or rescinded Where any such employe has been suspended [by action of council] and the charges are dismissed or the suspension rescinded on appeal he shall receive full compensation for the entire period of suspension

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. WORLEY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, some members of this House were in the Committee on Railroads and Railways, which continue until this House was in session today and could not attend the Labor Relations Committee which was scheduled to meet just fifteen minutes after the Railroads and Railways Committee met.

I want the record to show that had I been able to I would have attended the Labor Relations Committee meeting, but could not for the reason that I was attending the Railroads and Railways Committee, which Committee met only fifteen minutes earlier than the Labor Relations Committee and continued through the time of the meeting of the Labor Relations Committee and also continued into the time when this House was in session.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Mr. Speaker, having concluded the business of the day, I desire to turn the gavel over to you.

The SPEAKER (Hiram G. Andrews) in the Chair.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman from Cambria. I am told that he has performed in magnificent fashion and that various Members of the House have no objection to how long I absent myself from the Chair.

Vol. 34. HARRISBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 27, 1955. No. 38.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

WEDNESDAY, April 27, 1955

The House met at 9:00 a. m. EST.

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Philip Lopresti) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend Harold J Crouse, Pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, York, offered the following prayer:

O God, our Help in ages past and our Hope for years yet unborn, we offer Thee our thanks for all the blessings which have come into our lives from Thy hand. Keep us ever mindful of these mercies which are more than we can number and which are new every morning.

O Lord, we pray Thou wilt help us to pay more heed to what we truly are than what others think of us; to care more for a good name in Thy sight than in the sight of others. Help us to do our best day by day.

Bless these Thy servants, the chosen of the people, with good health, sound minds, gracious speech so that they may speak, and vote and live for righteousness and freedom.

O God, in our prayer this morning we thank Thee for all the men and women whose names may be forgotten but who by their honesty and purity have helped make our country great.

In the strength of Jesus Christ, who has overcome the world, we make this prayer. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVAL POSTPONED

The SPEAKER. If there are no objections, the approval of the Journal for Tuesday, April 26, 1955, will be postponed until printed. The Chair hears none.

RESOLUTIONS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Speaker has referred the following House and Senate resolutions:

By Messrs. McINROY and FLINT.

(Concurrent) RESOLUTION No. 66.

In the House of Representatives, April 26, 1955.

Soil Conservation Service is at the present efficiently and beneficially administered by the United States Department of Agriculture. Proposals have been made to transfer the Soil Conservation Service and its activities either to another Federal agency or to the individual states.

It is the opinion of the General Assembly that the interests of soil and water conservation can best be served by the Soil Conservation Service as it now exists, therefore be it

Resolved, (the Senate concurring), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania memorializes the Congress of the United States to keep soil conservation under Federal control and to oppose any reorganization which would transfer the Soil Conservation Service and its activities to any other Federal agency, or to the individual states; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be transmitted to the presiding officers of each House of Congress of the United States and to each Senator and Representative from Pennsylvania in the Congress of the United States.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

By Mr. JOHN J. MURRAY.

RESOLUTION (Not Printed).

In the House of Representatives, April 19, 1955.

Samuel R. LaRosa, of McKeesport is a man who is indeed worthy of admiration. Deprived of the pleasures of boyhood by a disease which necessitated the wearing of braces on both his legs. Sammy, as he is affectionately known to all the citizens and particularly the youth of McKeesport, longed for the day when he too could join in the sports he liked so well. Though the day never came when Sammy could be an actual participant in sports, this did not in any way embitter him. He started as a mascot, and later became manager or coach of various teams, leading many of them to championship. He also devotes much of his time and limitless energies to scouting and any other activities which he feels to be an aid to the boys of the community.

Ten years ago, Sammy conceived the idea that the best way to combat juvenile delinquency and to promote the general betterment and physical well-being of the boys of McKeesport was to organize a boy's club, and to provide the boys with a means of education, recreation and guidance. Inspired by the memories of his early youth, Sammy founded the McKeesport Boys Club, which on this its tenth anniversary, has grown into one of the most successful organizations of its kind in our Commonwealth; therefore be it

Resolved, That the members of the House of Representatives, individually and as a body, extend to the McKeesport Boy's Club its best wishes on its tenth anniversary, and extend to Samuel R. LaRosa, the founder and president of this fine boy's club, its thanks for an outstanding and exemplary job of building our citizens of tomorrow.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

SENATE MESSAGE

UNIFORM FEE FOR SALK INOCULATIONS

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, April 27, 1955.

Because of the great demand which exists for Salk vaccine it is necessary that there be safeguards to insure an equitable distribution to all persons requesting it. There are reports that varied and in some cases exorbitant fees are being exacted from persons being inoculated. It is the duty of the medical profession to see that the fees charged for inoculations are kept uniform and as reasonable as possible, so that this high demand will not have the effect of raising the price of inoculations and thus put them beyond the reach of any person who may desire to be inoculated; therefore be it

Resolved, (the House of Representatives concurring), That local medical societies be urged to set a reasonable uniform fee for Salk vaccine inoculations, that the fees thus set be strictly adhered to by members of the medical profession.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

SENATE MESSAGE

MICHAEL KOVATS DAY

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, April 26, 1955.

General George Washington entrusted the organization of his cavalry to an experienced Hungarian, Michael Kovats, who was recommended to General Washington by Benjamin Franklin. Colonel-Commandant Michael Kovats was second-in-command of the Pulaski Legion and while serving in this capacity gave his life for the United States of America when, on May 11, 1779, he fell mortally wounded in the defense of Charleston, South Carolina.

American Hungarians respectfully ask for appropriate recognition for Colonel-Commandant Kovats. Americans of Polish descent have their revolutionary hero honored in the form of Pulaski Week. Washington's Cavalry known as the Pulaski Legion, was whipped into an efficient fighting force by Colonel-Commandant Kovats, and this historical fact is recognized by official documents, records of the Society of the Cincinnati and other official sources; therefore be it

Resolved (the House of Representatives concurring),

That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, on behalf of all American Hungarians memorializes the President of the United States to proclaim a Colonel-Commandant Michael Kovate day in honor of this outstanding hero of the Revolutionary War; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States, Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, yesterday the Speaker of the House was kind enough to offer that at any time we wanted information from the Budget Office he would see to it personally that we received all the information and all the help we would ask for.

Now, during all of this session since the beginning we have asserted that the deficit will be no more than $50 million. That is the amount we predicted it would be on September 3, 1954.

Before the 1954 election campaign the Democratic candidate for Governor charged us with gross misrepresentation.

I am asking now, because of the Speaker's kind and generous offer yesterday, that the Speaker himself request the Budget Office to supply the following to my office before the public hearings on the budget begin next week.

We would like to have an explanation of why the budget on page 4 lists the total amount of deficiency appropriations for the biennium at $40 million, when the actual amount appropriated by this Legislature is only $22 million. The way we figure this is a difference of $18 million which can be saved the taxpayers.

We would also like an explanation of why the budget deliberately ignores the fact that the Legislature has reduced the school appropriation by $10 million. This appropriation belongs either in the total for this biennium or for the new biennium, but you cannot use it in both. That is financial juggling. This is $10 million more of fat in the budget which can be trimmed out with a stroke of the pen.

We are also asking for a breakdown item by item of the actual and estimated lapses in appropriations which the Governor states will amount to approximately $18 million for the current biennium, but which we believe should total a much greater sum if he has practiced any of the economies he promised.

The Governor, in trying to alibi his demands for more than $600 million of increased taxes, has stated that the deficit from this biennium must be paid twice. That again in our estimation is financial juggling.

We feel if these errors of the Budget Office are allowed to stand it will mean that the taxpayers of Pennsylvania, by the Governor's own mathematics, not by ours, will be asked to pay a minimum of $56 million in unnecessary new taxes.

We feel, Mr. Speaker, it is our duty to save the people of this Commonwealth $56 million.

Mr. Speaker, this is only the beginning, it is only a quick resume of what we are going to ask, but we have a definite point in our mind, a $56 million amount that can be saved, which we feel we can increase to over $100 million within the next few weeks by these queries and the answers to our questions.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. WILLAREDT. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until Monday, May 2, 1955 at 3:30 p. m. EST.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 9:36 a.m. EST) the House adjourned.
